Allies Retreat Near Panmunjom In Only Korean Ground Action

Compiled by Donna Lindbeck

(From the wires of the United Press and Associated Press)

United Nations troops gave up an advance position east-northeast of Panmunjom Sunday in the only action of the day which cost ground to either side, the 8th Army announced yesterday.

The lost ground was in the no-man's land between the two armies near the truce talk village. Two Red platoons struck the positions at 8 p.m. Sunday and Allies defending the position faded back and called in artillery.

In the old Iron Triangle area south of Pyonggang a U.N. raiding patrol drove the Communists off the top of a hill, cleared out Communist bunkers and then pulled back to its own lines.

Another raiding party southwest of Pyonggang engaged the Communists in a five-hour skirmish in which heavy small arms, automatic weapons and mortar fire was used. Twice the U.N. force moved back to call in artillery before calling it a day.

B-29 Superforts from Okinawa dropped 90 tons of 500-pound bombs on an enemy bridge at Sunchon Sunday night, while others flew in support of U.N. frontline forces.

The Communists have given an answer . . .

. . . to Allied proposals for voluntary repatriation of prisoners and restrictions on rebuilding military airfields.

The Red answer is: "Interference in internal affairs." No progress has been made on either point so far, but further debate was to be held at Panmunjom Sunday night.

California Democratic leaders have . . .

. . . settled on a primary election slate of national convention delegates pledged to President Truman. There was no opposition as the statewide party meeting in San Francisco created a 21-man campaign committee to work for a Truman delegation. This was done at the request of National Democratic Chairman Frank McKinney.

James Roosevelt quoted McKinney as saying he assumes state delegations should be instructed to Truman as long as the president hasn't removed himself as a possible candidate.

Roosevelt is Democratic National Committeeman from California. Before the 1948 party convention, Roosevelt—the eldest son of the late president—tried to swing California's delegation to General Eisenhower, but today Roosevelt said, "I'm proud of Mr. Truman's record and I'd like to fight for it."

Gen. Mark Clark's nomination . . .

. . . to be Ambassador to the Vatican will not be resubmitted to the Senate, it has been announced by the White House. The announcement said the decision had been made at the request of General Clark and President Truman plans to submit another nomination at a later time.

The terse White House announcement was made after reports had circulated that Clark would not be renominated for the controversial post.

Price Stabilizer Michael DiSalle confirmed . . .

. . . today that he is considering resigning his federal job to seek election as Democratic senator from Ohio. DiSalle said he would announce his decision on Jan. 22. He added that if he decides to run for the U.S. senate seat now held by Republican John W. Bricker of Columbus, he will resign as price chief.

Chester Bowles, ambassador to India . . .

. . . says that the Communist situation in Southern India is rugged but, as he put it, "Nothing that a fuller stomach won't fix."

Bowles, former Democratic governor of Connecticut, returned from India yesterday for a round of conferences with state department officials. He also will see President Truman, although no date has been set for this meeting.

Bowles was interviewed upon his arrival at National airport. He declined to discuss in detail any further U.S. aid to India. He said, "We'd better leave that to Congress." However, dispatches from New Delhi have mentioned Bowles' interest in further help to the Indians, and he said today that the people of India need help in many ways.

A halt in the search for 45 men . . .

. . . of the freighter Pennsylvania and the vanished ship itself, lost in the Pacific ocean off the coast of Canada, has been forced by a storm out of the Arctic. Winds of 60 miles-an-hour driving heavy snow have cut visibility to a few yards and no let-up is in sight for 24 to 34 hours.

President Truman's top economic advisor . . .

. . . said today the new budget will call for spending between $80 and $85 billion in fiscal 1953 and strongly indicated the president will call for some form of tax increase.

Leon H. Keyserling, chairman of the president's council of economic advisers, gave a preview of the coming budget message in an interview on the NBC television program, "Meet the Press."

120 Men Pledge Fraternities During Frosh Rush Period

One hundred and twenty men were pledged during rush week, Mrs. Paula B. Casebeer, student affairs secretary, said Sunday. Almost all of the pledges, she noted, were freshmen and a few were boarders.

One hundred and thirty-four men went through rush week this term compared with 240 during fall term rushing last year, Bob Christ, IFC alumni secretary, said.

He explained that the next two weeks will be a closed period for rushing with only "limited social contact" allowed between unpledged freshmen and fraternity men. This system was used through fall term.

Open rushing will begin Jan. 28, he said, with normal social contact allowed and will last until two weeks before the end of spring term.
