A SWITCH FROM 'HELL' TO 'HELP'

 millrace, campus clean-up, aiding aged and disabled and planting a hedge across University street in front of McArthur court.

Suggested projects for women were mostly connected with Red Cross activities.

Objectives of the program, Cook said, are to promote good feeling among living organizations, to provide a substitute for "hell week" which retain its values but none of its perils to health, scholarship and house unity; and to dignify the pre-initiation period and the initiation itself.

Hawk Likes It

Ray Hawk, director of men's affairs, called the plan "a constructive approach" Sunday. He said it was only a matter of time before the system is adopted. (Several Eastern and Mid-West schools are using the "help week" plan. The plan has not yet been adopted by any school west of the Rockies.)

Director of Student Affairs Donald DuShane called the program "a fine idea."

Joanne Lewis, president of Panhellenic, sorority organization, said she "definitely agreed with the idea." She said that sororities on a number of Eastern campuses have set up such a system. No Oregon sorority now uses the plan, she stated.

Hasn't Reviewed It

Dick McLaughlin, president of the Inter-fraternity council, had not reviewed the plan when contacted Sunday. The IFC will discuss the proposal at 7 p.m. Thursday in the Student Union, he said.

Cook, who has carried on an extensive correspondence with other schools and national Greek organizations, said that the "help week" plan originated at Indiana university, Bloomington, Ind.

The idea received national publicity in an article titled "The Metamorphosis of Hell Week" which was printed in the Reader's Digest recently.

The national Inter-fraternity council has indicated approval of the "help week" theory.

'Little Colonel' Contest Begins; 23 Women Compete for Title

Twenty-three women will meet at 4 p.m. today in the Student Union for the initial step in selection of a "Little Colonel" to preside over the 1952 Military ball.

Candidates from each living organization will hear instructions today. Tuesday evening the field will be narrowed to five "Little Captains." The "Little Colonel" will be picked from the five finalists by vote of couples attending the dance. The winner will be commissioned by Gen. Thomas E. Rilea, adjutant for the state of Oregon.

Candidates for the honor of presiding over the year's first formal dance, to be presented Saturday by Scabbard and Blade, military honorary, are:

Tita Vincent, Chi Omega; June Clark, Delta Delta Delta; Patty Ruan, Delta Gamma; Lila Carlson, Delta Zeta; Donna Krieske, Gamma Phi Beta; Cornelia Morton, Hendricks hall; Mirian Goddard, Highland house.

Barbara Keelen, Kappa Alpha Theta; Betsy Thayer, Kappa Kappa Gamma; Biruta Steinberg, Orides; Joan Marie Miller, Pi Beta Phi.

Judy McLoughlin, Rebec House; Molly Harbert, Sigma Kappa; Audrey Mistretta, University house; and Barbara Brabham, Zeta Tau Alpha.

A candidate from Ann Judson house had not been selected Sunday evening.

Dress for Tuesday's elimination will be campus clothes.

The five finalists will be selected by a committee composed of Maj. E. W. Palm, assistant professor of military science and advisor of Scabbard and Blade; John Epley, Scabbard and Blade president; Ned Takasumi, military ball general chairman; a wife of ROTC faculty member, Art French, University photographer; and Staff Silverman, chairman of "Little Colonel" selection.

Pictures of the five finalists will appear in the Student Union and the Co-op on Wednesday, Silverman said.

Tickets are $2.25 per couple. They may be purchased from Scabbard and Blade members, Ron Jerjeson, ticket sales chairman or Major Palm at the ROTC building.

Tickets will be sold in the Co-op from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. and from 2 to 4 p.m. beginning Tuesday.

King Perry will play for the dance. Dress will be formal with suits or uniforms optional for men.
