

World News Capsules United Nations Hints Compromise On North Korean Air Base Issue

Compiled by Mary Ann Mowery

(From the wires of the United Press and Associated Press)

The United Nations moved apparently in vain Wednesday to break the Korean Armistice deadlock and charged that the Communists were stalling on orders from Moscow.

The U.N. command took these steps in an attempt to end the impasse in truce negotiations:

1. Hinted that the Allies might be willing to compromise on their demand for an outright ban on airfield construction during an armistice.

2. Sought to clear the stormy air by admitting an "inadvertent" bombing of the security area surrounding the Communist truce camp at Kaesong Jan. 17 and the probability that U.N. planes also unintentionally attacked a Communist truce delegation convoy Jan. 18.

3. Decided to try a change of faces in the subcommittee on truce supervision.

Major General William K. Harrison, Jr., deputy commander of the 8th Army, was named a truce delegate to succeed Major General Claude B. Ferenbaugh.

Swiss federal police announced . . .

Wednesday that they have arrested a man believed connected with the mysterious death a year ago of an American Naval attache assigned to Communist Romania.

The attache, Captain Eugene S. Karpe of Delhi, La., fell or was pushed from the famed Orient Express as it sped through a tunnel in Austria Feb. 23, 1950. The mutilated body was found by a track walker.

Swiss Federal Police Chief Walter Balsiger said an "alleged Romanian . . . probably connected" with Karpe's death was arrested "a shore while ago." He refused to give further details.

Senator Estes Kefauver . . .

declared his candidacy for the Democratic presidential nomination Wednesday despite signs that he faces an uphill fight in one of the early tests of democratic sentiment.

The Tennessee Democrat is preparing to enter the race although a formidable combination was forming to stop him from winning convention delegates by default before President Truman's 1952 intentions are disclosed.

High ranking U.S. and Canadian . . .

air force officers met at the headquarters of the Air Defense Command in Colorado Springs, Colorado Wednesday for top-secret strategy discussions.

Twenty-five officers representing the air forces of both nations attended the first day's session of the joint conference.

"The defense of the North American continent against enemy attack is a primary concern of both Canada and the United States," said General Benjamin W. Chidlaw, commanding general of the U.S. Air Defense Command.

Freshmen Report Fine Cooperation

The freshman class, handling the campus March of Dimes drive, has received splendid cooperation so far, according to the drive committee.

Entertaining frosh groups from Carson hall, Hendricks hall and Vets' dormitories have toured living organizations since Tuesday, and will continue their rounds tonight.

Friday a Dimes mixer will be held. Admission will be a contribution to the March of Dimes fund.

Nancy Kelty, publicity chairman for the drive, said, "We appreciate the help, and hope it will continue throughout the campaign." The objective of the drive, she said, is not dimes and dollars, but 100 per cent participation.

"Students, don't feed those dimes to a telephone—let them support a worthy cause in your 1952 March of Dimes," Miss Kelty said.

Committee for the drive is: Francis Gillmore, junior, general campus chairman; Ann Gerlinger, freshman chairman; Donna Trebbe, custodian of funds; Judy Elleson, Doug White and Bob Glass, cochairmen of entertainment; Bob Summers, posters; Dorothy Kopp, chairman of Dimes mixer; and Miss Kelty, publicity.

Officers Named By Fraternal Group

Bill Schuppel, Alpha Tau Omega, was elected president of the Junior Inter-Fraternity council Tuesday.

Bob Bosworth, Phi Kappa Psi, was selected as first vice president and Pete Williams, Phi Delta Theta, was named secretary of the group.

Bill Walker, out-going president of JIFC, told the group their objectives are to promote workable relations with the Inter-fraternity council, promote better fraternal relations, instill academic competition between the pledge classes and promote better civic campus projects.

The Knothole club is currently the top project of JIFC. The club is composed of grade school and junior high students of Eugene who are given special prices for Oregon basketball games. The JIFC is responsible for ushering the kids to their seats and keeping them there, Walker said.

Four houses volunteered to send a representative to usher at Friday's St. Mary's game. They are Tau Kappa Epsilon, Delta Tau Delta, Sigma Phi Epsilon and Sigma Nu. Ushering Saturday night will be representatives from Alpha Tau Omega, Beta Theta Pi, Chi Psi and Lambda Chi.

because of their faith, the only people to hold no type of inquisition." He illustrated his point by a description of the generous behavior of Saladin toward Christians during the Crusades.

Rabbi Nodel, hastening to agree, stated that the Jews, except in very modern times and in the United States, have never had such tolerance as has been shown them in Moslem countries. Contemporary difficulties in Africa and the Near East have more of a political than a religious basis, he asserted.

"In fact, the Golden Age of Jewish literature and culture was in Spain under the Moors—and it declined when the Moors were driven out and replaced by the Christians."

Campus Briefs

Vodvil co-chairmen petitions are due at 5 p.m. today at Delta Gamma. The vodvil, which will be held in conjunction with World Student Service Fund, requires co-chairmen under a stipulation set up by last year's executive council, one to represent WSSF and the other to represent the ASUO.

Final tryouts for Amphibians, women's swimming honorary, will be held at 4 p.m. today in the Gerlinger pool. Those trying out will be asked only to exhibit basic strokes, Joan Jacobs, Amphibians president, said.
