

NO NEED KNOCKIN' DAD...

'cause you're already

WELCOME

This weekend you're King of the Campus! And for your pleasure and relaxation we extend a most cordial invitation to come in and "make yourself at home."

Take a stroll through our building...visit the art gallery, the browsing room (chuck full of interesting books)...or sink back in a comfy chair in the Taylor Lounge for a quiet moment and a bit of easy conversation.

Snacks and cooling drinks are yours at the soda bar...pleasant anytime!

And if it's recreation you want, come on downstairs. Here you can bowl, play a skillful game of billiards, shoot some pool, or have a game of table tennis.

Just to keep you "in trim" there's a barber shop ready to do your bidding.

We think you'll like it here...and we KNOW we'll enjoy having you!
