

EMERALD ADS BRING RESULTS

ODDS and ENDS SALE

on Balcony

STATIONERY — BOOKS

VERY LOW PRICE
BEGINNING FEBRUARY 4

U of O CO-OP

DADS WELCOME

Heads or Tails . . .

YOU CAN'T MATCH
THE NEW TAYLORS FOR

- Food
- Fun
- Friendly Folks

Stop in today, Dad. Relax in the student's home away from home. You'll like it!

THE
NEW Taylor's
CAMPUS COFFEE SHOP

Hello, you old soaks

If you haven't gotten so fat, or changed so much we can't recognize you, drop on down.

"Skeet" Manerud and "Shy" Huntington

MANERUD-HUNTINGTON FUEL CO.

Standard heating oil, delivered at your convenience.

997 Oak

Ph. 4-1211 & 5-6362

Huskies Top Webfoots In Big Series Opener

JV's Ramble; Win 84-78 In Clark Tilt

By Rick Tarr

Don Kirsch's Oregon J.V. squad turned in what might be termed an upset by defeating the well-coached Clark J.C. Penguins 84-78. A second half rally saw the local boys pull out of a 34-43 halftime deficit.

The Vancouver invaders had it their own way in the first quarter as they compiled a 19-24 advantage. Sparked by Earl Enos who counted 12 points in the first half, the Penguins looked unstoppable. Oregon's ball handling appeared very sloppy throughout both of the first stanzas. To make matters worse, the Clark team threw up an extremely tight defense and specialized in ball hawking.

Phillips Gets Seven

Ron Phillips turned in the best first half performance for Oregon with 7 points.

The second half got going fast as Byler and Phillips scored four and two respectively in the first minute of play. With only four minutes of the third period gone, the boys in green brought the score up to 47-50. Hugh Marxer then dumped one in, followed in short order by Seigmund's field goal to put the JV's in front by one point.

This was the turning point in the game as Oregon got increasingly stingy with points. The defense began to work while Doug Rogers began cashing in on rebounds.

Johnson Comes Through

The fourth and crucial period was dominated by the one man shooting display of Wayne Johnson. The six-foot-four inch center tied the score in the opening seconds and kept right on scoring to the end.

With the score at 67-67 with two minutes gone, Wayne scored ten straight points via three field goals and four charity tosses.

Johnson's 26 points for the evening was high while Phillips tallied 21. Earl Enos was high for the Penguins with 18.

Summary:

Oregon (84)	Clark J.C. (78)
Phillips, 21	F Enos, 18
Seigmund, 10	F Perry, 8
Choat, 3	C Zapp, 5
Byler, 10	G Miller, 6
Rogers, 8	G Andrews, 14

Oregon scoring subs: Johnson 26, Marxer 5, Davis 1. Clark scoring subs: Dacus 4, Cahill 16, Kiel 3, Jones 3, Allen 4.

TORRID was the word for Bob Houbregs, who scored 30 points for Washington.

Mermen to Open ND Dual Meet Slate at Corvallis

Coach John Borchardt's swimming team will open its Northern Division dual meet schedule today with a match against Oregon State College in Corvallis.

The Ducks will be gunning for their fourth straight victory, as they boast wins over the Aero Club of Portland, and the Multnomah Athletic Club, plus a victory in the Oregon state AAU meet.

The Beaver natators are reportedly strong in the 50 and 100 yard freestyle events, and will provide tough competition in the 200 yard breast-stroke.

Leading the Oregon team will be Gordon Edwards, letterman and all-conference choice last year, who will swim in the distance events.

The Ducks will also be strong in the 200 yard individual medley event with Yosh Terada, who was a triple winner at the state AAU (Please Turn to Page 15)

Houbregs Paces 71-63 UW Win In Rough Contest

By John Whitty

Coach Bill Borchner's Oregon basketball team came close to surprising even their own supporters last night, as they fought the Washington Huskies right down to the wire before bowing to the taller visitors by a 71-63 count.

It was a case of just too much Houbregs for the fighting Ducks to handle. The six-foot, seven-inch Husky forward dropped in shots from all angles to chalk up a 30 point total. The tale of the game is told by the shooting average of .347, as compared with Oregon's modest .323.

Close at Halftime

Even so, the difference between the two teams seemed almost negligible as they battled to a 36-37 score at halftime, with the edge going to the Huskies. By the end of the third quarter, however, the men from Seattle, led by the wild-scoring Houbregs, had moved away from the faltering Ducks to seize a 56-48 lead.

Just fifteen seconds after the last period started, Oregon center Chet Noe fouled out, the first of four Webfoots to leave the game in this manner.

Forty-eight fouls were called by the referees during the course of the very rough tilt, with thirty being credited to Oregon and 18 coming on Washington infractions. Each team had one technical foul called on it, as the booing of the crowd roused the players to fever pitch.

Oregon Couldn't Catch Up

The closeness of the first half is indicated by the fact that the lead changed hands ten times. In the second part of the tilt, the Webfoots could never seem to quite come within reach of the conference leaders, although they never were more than fourteen points behind.

Ken Hunt and Bob Peterson divided the scoring honors for the Ducks, as each chalked up 17 counters. Oregon's free-throw shooting played a large part in keeping them in the ball game, as they made 19 out of 21 for a sizzling .905 percentage.

Pete Hot in Last Quarter

Big Bob Peterson celebrated his return to the fold by gathering 16 rebounds to tie in this department with Houbregs. Big Pete kept in the background during the first three periods, but he just couldn't seem to miss in the last stanza, as he made five field goals and two charity tosses for 12 points.

After the intermission time, Washington came up with a new offense, which saw them place men in both corners, evidently in an attempt to draw out the Webfoot defense.

Houbregs functioned at the pivot position most of the time, and his deadly hook shots kept the Ducks in hot water.

With seven minutes left in the game, Coach Tippy Dye instructed his hoopsters to start ball control tactics, which succeeded fairly well.

Scoring:
OREGON (63) U of W (71)
Peterson, 17 F Guisness, 12
Wegner, 4 F McClary, 1
Noe, 8 C Houbregs, 30
Hunt, 17 G McCutchen, 13
Hawes, 4 G Cipriano, 4

Substitutes: Oregon; Farnam, Vranizan, Bonneman 2, Holland 6, Bottler 2, Johnson, Streeter 3, Covey.

Substitutes: Washington Enochs 2, Parsons, Koon 6, Elliott 3.

WELCOME DADS

Our wish is that you'll find this week-end one of the most pleasant ever. We cordially invite you to drop in to see us!

JOHN WARREN HARDWARE

771 Willamette

Dial 5-3353

Only four motor vehicles were registered in the United States in 1895.