

SA File Pictures To Be Taken Today

Students who have not had their pictures taken for the files in the office of student affairs are reminded by the office to have them taken today between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. in the basement of Johnson hall.

Pictures will be taken between classes. Those students who can not arrange to have their pictures taken during the scheduled hours are asked to make specific arrangements with Art French, University photographer, in Johnson hall.

More than 100 different safety devices, machines, and methods have been introduced into American mines in the past 20 years.

Hayden to Lead IRC Discussion

W. S. Hayden, associate professor in architecture, will lead an International Relation club discussion on "America: Compadre of Latin America" Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in the Student Union.

Hayden has recently toured South America observing the effect or recent trends in domestic affairs upon inter-American relations and the importance of South America to Western hemispheric solidarity.

Pan-American co-operation will be discussed by students from this area who are especially interested in this field.

Hey gals, have you got your date? Hurry now, it's getting late!

Log Ceremonial Ribbon

PRINCEVILLE, Ore. (U.P.)—The traditional snipping of a ribbon was bypassed by officials at ceremonies opening a new highway near this lumber conscious community. A 20-foot log, 18 inches indiameter was dropped across the highway and dignitaries sawed through the barrier.

Leap Year comes but once in four, Is there need to say much more? (Heart Hop Friday)

Why the last thing in the world you could call me is a snob—I despise snobs!

That's just the trouble, Mister, a lot of people are snobs and don't know it!

Not me—I'm a good American. Why, my people . . .

See what I mean—never mind your people. It's you we're talking about.

I don't get it!

Okay, what kind of day did you have? Bawl out any waiters? Give any dirty looks? And when you got on to politics at lunch did you start picking any race apart—make a few cracks about someone's religion? You see, that's where the trouble starts.

Well, I — — I uh . . .

Look, Mister, nobody is saying that you mean to be intolerant—but every time you make a crack like that you are hurting your country's unity.

I never thought of that. Say—who are you anyway? Your conscience.
