ATO Nips Minturn; Nestor Stages Upset

By Doug White

Monday marked the opening of the intramural championship playoffs, an dit saw three "A" teams and one "B" club gain semi-final recognition. Alpha Tau Omega downed Minturn hall 42 to 40, Delta Tau Delta beat Phi Gamma Delta 29 to 27, Nestor hall swamped Sigma Nu 36 to 29, and Sigma Alpha Epsilon beat Minturn "B" 25 to 23.

In perhaps the best played game of the IM season ATO beat out a fighting Minturn "A" basketball squad by a 42 to 40 margin. The score itself tells the story of how the contest was played throughout its entirety. It was fast, rugged and high-scoring.

Minturn started the scoring spree with but five seconds played in the initial stanza when Joe Tom sank a lay-in on the end of a fast break. From then on there were no holds barred; whenever Tom, Ray Coley or Pat O'Brien weren't hitting the hoop for the Minturns, Ernie Baldini, Tom Matthews, Ken Torgerson, and Ray Packwood were busy racking up points for the ATO's.

At the end of the first half the score read 21 to 16 in favor of the winners, but as the second half got into way the margin see-sawed back and forth until the final result showed a 36-36 deadlock.

Pat O'Brien started the point-making in the overtime, potting a two pointer from the key. Joe Tom then duplicated the feat by sinking one from about 20 feet out. Then ATO put on the brakes and sent fleet Ernie Baldini in for three quick buckets, and cinched the game.

While ATO was putting the skids on Minturn hall, Delta Tau Delta pulled another close one out of the fire beating Phi Gamma Delta 29 to 27. This contest also went into overtime play with the Deltas outscoring their opponents four to two in the extra three minutes.

Last but not least of the day's "A" games took place between Nestor hall and Sigma Nu. In what may be considered a mild upset, the boys from the freshman dorm showed that they definitely had their sights on the coveted IM trophy as they trounced the Sigma Nus 36 to 29. No one man on the Nestor squad could be picked out for individual recognition; they all played exceptionally well. Pete Williams and Jim Tennyson took scoring honors, tallying 14 and 12 points respectively, while Dick Kofford controlled the backboards and Jim Archer displayed some fine ball-handling. For the losers Vince Tadie copped seven points.

The only "B" game of the day took place between Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Minturn hall. This proved to be a bad day for Minturn as they lost this one as well as their "A" game. When the smoke had cleared from the court it was found that the SAE's were on the long end of a 25 to 23 score.

Ray Karnofski set the pace for the victors, tallying some 16 points while Bob Brittain also played good ball. For Minturn hall Bob Muirhead hit for 11 counters.

'Mural Playoff Schedule Told

Intramural basketball championship playoffs enter the semi-final round today in both "A" and "B" brackets. The champions will be decided Thursday.

Semi-final "A" action today will see Alpha Tau Omega meeting Delta Tau Delta at 4:00 p.m. on Court 43, and Nestor hall matching baskets with Campbell club at 4:45 p.m. on Court 40.

Alpha Tau Omega reached the semi-finals by virtue of a hard-fought 42-40 victory over Minturn, while Delta Tau Delta edged past Phi Gamma Delta, 29-27. Nestor hall downed Sigma Nu, 36-29, while Campbell Club drew a first-round bye.

In the "B" division, Sigma Alpha Epsilon will meet French hall at 4:45 p.m. today on Court 43, in a semi-final clash, while Phi Delta Theta will tangle with Phi Sigma Kappa at 4:00 p.m. on Court 40 in a first-round game. The winner of this tilt will play Phi Gamma Delta in a semi-final game at 4:00 p.m. Wednesday on Court 40. The Sigma Alpha Epsilon team gained the semi-finals by a 25-23 victory over Minturn hall, while French hall drew a first round bye, as did Phi Gamma Delta.

Thus, "A" finalists will be determined in today's two semi-final games, and they will meet for the "A" crown at 4:00 p.m. Thursday on Court 40. The SAE-French tilt today will determine one "B" finalist, and the game Wednesday at 4:00 p.m. on Court 40 between Phi Gamma Delta and the winner of the Phi Delta-Phi Sigma Kappa contest today will determine the other "B" finalist. The "B" championship game will follow the "A" game, and will be played at 4:45 p.m. Thursday on Court 40.

Intramural track meets today are cancelled because of the conflict with basketball playoffs.

Big news in bowling this week is a match game between a picked team of University of Oregon student bowlers and a similar team from Oregon State. The first encounter in the two game series is scheduled for the OSC alleys on the afternoon of February 15. This date has still not been finally confirmed by OSC. The second game in the basement of the Erb Memorial will be played within the following week.

A fighting U of O team lost a close two game series to OSC in February of 1951, the loss of a close game in the home alleys was an unfortunate surprise and should be remedied this year.

The team which should do the trick, tho not definitely chosen at this date, is tentatively listed to include the following men: Bruce Koppe, George Troeh, Ken Ireland, Leo Naapi, Dick Graham, Bill Perrett, and Jim Ekstrom.

Some highlights and sidelights from last weeks play . . . Monday night Faculty league's first place is a tie between the Flying Saucers and the Liberal Rats with 12 wins and 4 losses apiece. Tuesday intramural honors go to Theta Chi at 12 and no. Wednesday intramural top team is Sigma Phi Epsilon scoring 13 wins and 3 losses. Cheryne hall holds down the Thursday highspot by virtue of it's 11 to 1 tally. The W. R. A. holds forth on Friday and Alpha Omicron Pi leads this league with 11 wins and 1 loss.

High averages for each night are as follows: Monday, Colonel Hanes-162; Tuesday, Bruce Koppe-161; Wednesday, Bill Perrett-169; Thursday, Ken Ireland-167.
