

Phi Delta Theta Tips Fijis in Close Game

The last game of the "B" league semi-final basketball championship was played Wednesday afternoon and it saw Phi Delta Theta take a 25 to 22 decision from Phi Gamma Delta.

The Fijis drew first blood when Fred Muller sank a driving lay-in seconds after the opening tip-off. From then on during the first half it was an All-Fiji show. After Muller's initial bucket, Don Reed hit on a jump shot from the key to make it 4 to 0. Then the Phi Deltas, who had not been playing very heads up ball, managed to click for two points when Dick Garret swiped the pill from one of the Fijis and raced downcourt by himself to tally the winners' first points of the game.

Fiji's Take Lead

The story began to change in the second stanza when Dan Hendrickson hit from the field and Gene Lewis connected on a free throw to bring the score to 11 to 9 in favor of the Fijis. Seconds later after a Fiji time out, Al Wherry swished a long two-hander to tie it all up.

As things turned out the Fijis never regained the lead that they lost with that long set, but rather had a tough time keeping pace with the now 'Red Hot' Phi Deltas.

There were several outstanding features of Wednesday's game. One was the proficiency with which both squads handled the ball. Gene Lewis and his Phi Delt buddies worked a very effective zone cracker on the Fijis part of the game, while the Fijis employed a tried and tested three man weave. As can be seen by the score, the losers had complete domination of the backboards during the first half. Mike Lally, 6' 5" tall, accounted for most of the about duplicated the above paragraph. The rest of the first quarter just graph. Phi Gamma Delta was connecting on a large percentage of its shots while the boys from Phi Delta Theta just couldn't manage to hit the hoop.

Mermen Tackle Canadian Team In Swim Meet

The Oregon swimming team will compete this weekend against the University of British Columbia at 2:30 p.m. Saturday at the men's pool, in a non-conference meet. Oregon suffered their first defeat of the season last weekend as the tough WSC crew edged the Ducks by the narrow margin of 43-41.

Junior Yosh Terada, who turned in the time of 156.5 in the 180 yd. individual medley, will provide tough competition for the UBC swimmers in this event. This time is only one tenth of a second under the northern division record set by Pete Salmon of Washington.

Milton Kotoshirodo will be out to vindicate his loss at WSC last weekend in the 100 yd. freestyle event, where he placed third. According to his previous time trials he was expected to place at least second in the event.

The University of British Columbia squad is especially strong in the breast-stroke events. Allan Wakinekona will be competing with the UBC swimmer who beat the All-American Dick Magnuson of Washington earlier in the season.

This meet will be the final conditioning period for the Ducks before they meet the league leading Washington squad on Feb. 22.

Ducks to Bowl OSC Here Saturday

The story on bowling match between the University of Oregon and Oregon State which appeared on this page earlier this week about the number of games to be played between the two clubs was an error.

The event is a six games, home and home match. The first three games will be played at OSC on Friday, Feb. 15 at 3:30 in the afternoon. The second three games will be played here on the following day, Saturday.

'Civil War' Contests To Begin This Friday

By Larry Lavello

Movies of the Oregon State college basketball squad in action will be shown in lieu of the usual afternoon drill today for the University of Oregon Webfoot cagers.

The Ducks, who meet their intra-state rivals Friday in Gill coliseum, Corvallis, and Saturday in McArthur court, completed their pre-series sessions Wednesday night with an offensive show that was none too impressive.

Coach Bill Borchert worked with a tentative starting lineup of Bob Peterson, Ken Wegner, Chet Noe, Bob Hawes and Kenny Hunt, augmented by Keith Farnam, Ron Bottler and Barney Holland. Jayvees Doug Rogers, Hugh Marxer, Wayne Johnson, Howard Page and Ron Phillips acted as an Oregon State organization in checking the Ducks with a tight-knit man to man and loose, zone defenses. The remainder of the squad worked with Jayvee Coach Don Kirsch at the South end of the court.

The Beavers, who bring up the rear in the Pacific Coast conference's Northern Division race with a 2-10 record split a pair of games with the University of Idaho Vandals, Monday and Tuesday nights in Corvallis.

Gill OSC Coach

Slats Gill, now a landmark at the Northern institution, is in his 24th term at the reins of the Beaver entry. Perhaps his best squad was the 1948-49 aggregation which placed fourth in the National Collegiate Athletic Association tournament, bowing to the University of Illinois in the tourneys 3rd place consolation game.

The Staters are expected to go with a lineup of Jim Padgett and Danny Johnston at forwards; Tex Whiteman at center; and Ron

OSC Tickets on Sale

Oregon State College has reserved a special section for Oregon students at the Oregon-OSC game Friday night at Gill Coliseum.

There are 400 seats available on the floor at the east end of the court, and these tickets are on sale for $1.20 each at the Oregon athletic department.

Fundingsland and Jack Orr at guards. This is a revamped list from the one that has generally been used in the earlier games and has apparently been an improvement. Oregon State has won three of their last six games compared to an over-all record of 8-16.

One of the newer arrivals in the starting lineup is Whiteman, a 17-year-old freshman center from Montrose, Colo. Whiteman tallied 12 points in Monday night's affair, and with the aid of Johnston, who notched 23 points, helped debunk the Vandals.

'Fuds' Helps Beavers

Johnston, a made-over guard, is in the running for an All-Northern Division first string berth. (Please turn to page seven)

Bowling Scores

Tuesday night IM scores:
Sig Eps 2, Frosh Councilors 2
Minturn 4, Pi Kappa Phi 0
Yeomen 4, ATO 0

Merv Englund of the Councilors had the highest series with 522; Arden Willey of Sherry Ross was next with 520; followed by George Troeh of Sig Eps with 503.

Reiser Breaks IM Running Event

Intramural track teams again saw action Wednesday afternoon under the supervision of IM track director and varsity track Coach Bill Bowerman. A powerful Beta Theta Pi team rambled to a convincing 55-8 victory over Lambda Chi Alpha, and Sederstrom hall took the measure of Cherney by a 42-25 count.

Outstanding performance of the day was by Beta freshman Wayne Reiser, who broke the IM record in the three-fourth mile. Reiser was clocked at 3:27.5, which was 2.6 seconds better than the former mark of 3:30.1, set by Jerry Garret of Sigma Chi earlier this year.

An Expert

Yosh Terada Top Medley Swimmer

By Ron Ricketts

Put Yosh Terada's name on the list of the nation's top competitors in the individual medley. His 1:36.7 recorded last week against Washington State is one of the best times turned in this year.

The fans will get a chance to see this ace show his stuff against real competition when the Washington Huskies' Peter Salmon, last year's national champ in the medley, comes here on February 22nd. If Yosh performs as he has done so far this season, Mr. Salmon had better watch out!

Yosh was practically brought up in the water. His home in Hilo, Hawaii is just a few yards from a river and also close to the ocean! Swimming was natural for him but, surprisingly enough, he didn't do any swimming on an organized, competitive basis until his freshman year in high school.

His first competitive swimming was under club sponsorship, since his school did not have a team. Even then he swam in only one meet a year, and did not have a full season of swimming until he entered the University of Hawaii.

Gives Brother Credit

He gives credit to his brother, Walter, for starting his swimming career. Walter belonged to the Wailoa Swimming Club and he brought Yosh to the club. There he began to learn the finer points of swimming under coach Raymond Sekido. From this start gradually improved under the tutelage of Charles Kawamoto, and then under coach Sakamoto at the University of Hawaii.

Yosh was particularly interested in architecture when he entered the university, and that was one of the reasons why he transferred to Oregon. He has changed his major to education since then, however, and will teach either art or physical education after he graduates.

There are quite a few swimming marks Yosh holds that are worthy of note. While competing in the Hawaii AAU meet in 1950 he won the 300-yard individual medley and established a new record in that event. He also swam on the record-breaking, 300-yard medley relay team in the same meet. That summer he went to the National AAU meet in Seattle. There he placed fourth in the 300 individual medley, which was something of an accomplishment considering his age and experience.

Swimming is Yosh's main forte, but he likes to watch other athletic events. He played a little softball in high school and wanted to go out for football, but his mother vetoed this idea!

Yosh has one more year of eligibility, so we'll be hearing and seeing a lot of this aqueduct star. The National NCAA and AAU swimming meets should be seeing a lot of him too!
