UO Tennis Team Seen as Contender

With about a month's practice already under their belts, it is beginning to look like Coach Robert Laurence's net team is going to be one of the strongest contenders in the Northern Division tennis race getting under way next April.

At present, eight men are out for the team, including Tom MacDonald, Don Neras, Neil George, Ron Lowell, Bill Rose, Bruce Dingler, Jack Neer, and Paul Willey.

Oregon Bowlers To Face Huskies

The University of Oregon goes bowling at the University of Washington on Saturday, April 5. The hand picked Oregon team will meet the best of Washington in Seattle to roll the first six games of a six tilt home and home match. On Saturday, May 5, Washington visits the Oregon campus for the second half of the match.

Oregon's road team, composed of seven top student bowlers averaging better than 160 each, is as follows: Don Allen; Dick Graham; Ken Ireland; Bruce Koppe; Leo Naapi; Bill Perkett; and George Troeh. They will have a tune-up match with Dick William's All-Stars on Saturday.
