

Hunt, Noe Top Scoring As ND Hoop Season Ends

Capt. Ken Hunt and Chet Noe, a pair of talented reserves from the 1951 Oregon basketball team, stepped in this year to capture the Duck Northern Division and total season scoring titles.

Hunt became the highest scoring "little man" in the history of the league when he tallied 218 points and his season's work vaulted him into second place in the all-time Oregon scoring records behind Roger Wiley, who tallied 235 points in 1949.

Noe's 376 points over the entire season was tops for the squad and his 195 conference total ranked him as the fourth highest scorer in Duck history, trailing Wiley, Hunt, and Dick Wilkins. The big center was followed by Hunt with 363 points and Bob Peterson's 352. Peterson also ranked third in conference play with a 170 total.

Ken Wegner, sophomore guard from Portland, led the regulars in accuracy by the field, hitting .367 in league action and .368 for the entire season. Another sophomore, Bob Hawes of Bend, led the free throwers with .781 in the division games and .750 for the season.

Too Big For Rabbits

WHEELING, W. Va. (U.P.)—Conservation officers rubbed their eyes after three giant rabbits had been found dead on roads around Wheeling. One rabbit was four inches short of a yard long. It had ears seven inches long, a six-inch tail and a 22-inch girth.

The first real coke oven in this country is believed to have been built in Connellsville, Pa., by a foundry owner.
