

3275 Sign Up For Next Term

A total of 3275 students had checked through the office of students affairs Wednesday in the advance registration procedure; 591 have paid their fees.

Last year's spring term enrollment at the end of regular registration was 4489. At the end of advance registration last year 785 had completed registration.

During the first week of spring term from Mar. 31 to Saturday noon, April 5, students who have not paid their fees may pick up their cards from the registrar's office and pay fees at the cashier's office. The cashier's office hours are 8 a.m. to 12 noon and 1 to 3 p.m.

There is no penalty fee for day by day delay of payment of fees during this week, but on April 7 a penalty for late payment of fees will be $5 and will increase $1 per day thereafter.

Students are not completely registered and do not have a definite place in classes until they have paid their fees, Clifford L. Constance, registrar, stated.
