Campus Briefs

● A total of $1,224.17 in gifts for the foreign student service fund were taken by the University during fall term, according to J. O. Lindstrom, University business manager. Donors included parent-teacher associations, churches, schools, public service organizations, the embassy of Pakistan and University dormitory resident.

● Walter G. Banks, graduate in speech, has been elected president of the Block and Tackle club, an organization open to persons who stutter and those who have a professional interest in helping those with stuttering handicaps.

● Petitions for chairmanships for the All-Campus Sing are now being called for by Junior Week-end chairmen. Chairmanships open are judges, decorations, programs, tickets, seating, publicity and contact committees. Deadline is Monday, April 7. Petitions may be turned in to Jody Greer, Pi Beta Phi, or Francis Gillmore, Kappa Alpha Theta.

● A meeting of all World Students Service Fund chairmen has been called for 3 p.m. today in the Student Union by Jo Sloan, general chairman.

● State representatives from campus living organizations for the May 2 and 3 mock political convention will meet at 6:30 p.m. today in Room 3, Fenton hall.

ASUO Senators Make Grade-point Again

For the second straight term, every member of the ASUO senate made the grade—literally.

All of the 27 members made a 2 point or better, the grade required to stay in student government activities.

The average grade was a 2.86 with 12 senators making a 3 point or better and one, Arlo Giles, earning a 4 point carrying nine hours.

Three pointers included Joan Abel, 3.06, Helen Jackson, 3.67, Virginia Wright, 3.79, Jean Gould, 3.25, Jeanne Hoffman, 3.63, Judy McLoughlin, 3.24, Tom Barry, 3.56, Bill Frye, 3.20, Dave Rodway, 3.21, Al Karr, 3.65, Bill Carey (ASUO president), 3.50, and Bob Glass, 3.14.

Locke Essay Subject Of Discussion Group

The second essay in John Locke's "Of Civil Government" will be discussed by the Great Books Discussion group at 8:15 p.m. today at Wesley foundation, 1236 Kincaid st.

Discussion leader will be Bill Karl. The meeting is open to the public. Members are asked to read the selection before the meeting.

Members for PS Honorary Sought

Pi Sigma Alpha, national political science honorary, is now calling for petitions from students interested in membership, according to Tom Barry, president of the organization.

Petitions may be obtained from members of the honorary and must be turned in to the members or Mrs. Pickett of the political science department by April 18.

To be eligible for membership, Barry said, a student must have completed at least 15 quarter hours or 10 semester hours of work in government, political science, international relations or public administration including at least one course not offered in lower division work. The student must have a "B" average in these courses and an accumulative GPA of 2.75 or better.

Election of officers will take place at the next meeting of the honorary, slated for April 19 at 7:30 p.m. in the Student Union. Members include Doug Ambers, Evelyn Baker, Margaret Bishop, Leo Boyle, Ellen Christiansen, Claire Cordier, Jim Crittenden, Roy Eames, Walt Freauff, Carson Moore, Frank Neuber, Richard Paul, Morris Sahr and Carolyn Silva.

Combella Invited For Guest Lecture

Frederick Combella, associate professor of classical languages, has been invited to be the annual visiting lecturer in classics at Bryn Mawr college. He is in the East at this time filling the lectureship.

Combella, nationally recognized for his work in the field of Homeric studies, has published widely in the field. His work has included not only studies but also book reviews for learned journals. He is presently engaged in writing a book on "Homer and His Audience." The Oregon professor was recently made an assistant editor of "Classical Philology," a journal published by the University of Chicago.

Baldinger Gains New Art Position

Thomas O. Baldinger, holder of a master's degree in art education from the University of New Mexico, has been appointed assistant professor of art in charge of art education, by Sidney W. Little, dean of the school of architecture and allied arts.

Baldinger's appointment came at the beginning of spring term. He also attended the University of California and the Art Institute of Chicago.

Medical School Takes 19 Students

Admissions to the medical school in Portland include 19 Oregon students, according to a report released by A. H. Kunz, head of the University chemistry department and chairman of the University's committee on pre-medical and pre-dental advising.

YMCA to Hold Retreat Saturday

The cabinet of the YMCA will hold its annual retreat Saturday at the home of Frank Graham near Jasper.

During the retreat the new officers of the YM will be installed and the purposes and projects of the YM will be explained.

Plans for spring term will also be made at this time and tentative plans for fall term will also be made. Jack Merner, secretary of the YM, will talk to the group about the chances of work on YMCA-sponsored summer projects.

Any interested YM member is urged to go, Merner said. The students will leave the Student Union at 8 a.m. and transportation will be furnished, he stated. There will be a slight cost for the two meals to be served during the day.
