

Fell Posts 9.7 Time; UO Paces Relays

By Ron Ricketts

The University of Oregon track team broke eight marks and took 10 first places as it paced the field in Saturday's second annual running of the Willamette Relays. There were 271 athletes from 16 colleges participating. Every event was a final and no team scores were kept.

Coach Bill Bowerman's Ducks were followed by Oregon State College, who set three new records and garnered seven firsts. Lewis and Clark chalked up one new standard and got two blue ribbons while Willamette, Pacific, and University of Portland each picked up a first, and Pacific tied a record.

Fell Sets New Mark

In the feature of the afternoon, Oregon's Bill Fell, 1950 PCC sprint champ, breezed through the 100-yard dash in :09.7, a new meet record for that event. OSC's Merv Brock, who set the former record of :09.8 in 1951, was in second place five yards back.

The Beavers' Duane Eby was the only double winner in individual events. He set a new shot-put record in the senior division with a heave of 50 feet 1 inch and then won the senior discus event at 130 feet 7 inches.

In the 440-yard sprint relay a disqualification kept the Webfoots from another record. There was no time posted as the race went to second place Oregon State. The Oregon quartet had traveled the distance in :42.7.

Oregon set new marks in the shuttle hurdles relay, the distance medley, the university 880-yard relay, the two-mile relay, and the sprint medley relay.

Individual firsts for Oregon were in the novice class discus where Ben Lloyd set a new mark of 130 feet 7 inches, in the senior javelin with a toss of 205 feet 5 1/2 inches by Chuck Missfeldt, in the novice pole vault where Ray Packwood sailed to a new record of 13 feet 2 1/2 inches, and in the senior class broad jump with a leap of 22 feet 1 inch by Don McClure.

Ducks Sweep Pair with Pilots, Lose Non-League Tilt to Orange

Ducks Take Pilots 3-2 Both Contests

By John Whitty

Coach Don Kirsch's Oregon baseball squad played host to the Portland Pilots Saturday on Howe Field, as the two teams met in a double header. The Ducks were forced to come from behind in both contests, as they won the first tilt 3-2 and then came back to take the nightcap by the same score.

Nelson Starts Attack

Daryle Nelson, the second man up for Oregon, hit a Texas-Leaguer double which went over the head of shortstop Pete Lulich, but was out of the reach of Portland's center fielder, Stan Bozich.

In the Pilot's half of the second inning Julie Fajer, the fifth man in the batting order, lined a single into left field, but he got no farther than first base as rifle-armed Ron Bottler caught him attempting to steal second base.

Pat Gilroy started the ball rolling for Portland in the third stanza when he beat out a dribbler down the third base line. Mike Poel, the visitors' backstop, struck out, but Gilroy went to second on the strikeout pitch.

Freshman Hurler Norm Forbes apparently lost his control momentarily and he gave the next man, John Becic, a free pass to first base. With runners on first and second, Forbes tried to pick Gilroy off, but Duck shortstop Nick Schmer muffed the throw and both Pilots advanced.

Shaw Homers

Another boot followed a moment later, as Daryle Nelson couldn't hold on to Pilot Shortstop Pete Lulich's bounding grounder and both Gilroy and Becic crossed the plate to put Portland in the lead, 2-0.

Oregon came roaring back in their half of the third frame to knot the count at 2-2. Freshman George Shaw led off the inning with a towering home run which came to earth far behind Portland Centerfielder Stan Bozich.

Both Nelson and Jim Livesay grounded out, shortstop to first, and it looked as if the inning were about over. Duck clean-up hitter

MENTOR KIRSCH
... two wins and a loss

JV's Open Slate With 11-2 Triumph

Big Jim Tennyson led his Duck Junior Varsity baseball teammates to a one sided 11 to 2 victory over the local Eugene high Axemen Saturday on the Ducklings' field. It was the JV's season opener.

Tennyson paced the attack for the winners as he drove in three runs on three hits in four trips to the plate, one of which was a long triple.

Coach Colonel John Londahl used three pitchers for the Ducklings in the tussle. Farrell Albright, Don Delaney and Bill Blodgett were the three moundsmen who saw action.

Albright started and gave up both Eugene runs in the first inning, but settled down until his team mates gathered three runs themselves before he was relieved by Delaney.

Albright was awarded the win as the Ducks were ahead when he left the game.

Junior Varsity standouts in the hitting department besides Tennyson were Second Baseman Paul Byhre who collected two hits and four runs batted in, and First Baseman Bob 'Honus' Wagner who knocked in two Oregon runs.

Jay Dean's Triple Paces Beaver Win

By Bob Zwald

Oregon State's highly-touted baseball team scored three runs in the top half of the eighth inning to defeat the Oregon Ducks 4-1 in a tight exhibition game played at Howe field Friday afternoon. The loss was Oregon's fifth in eight pre-season games.

A large shirt-sleeved crowd enjoyed sunny skies and fine pitching performances by left-handers Don White of Oregon State and Don Sigmund of Oregon. White scattered six hits over the entire nine innings and struck out four batters. Sigmund allowed only one hit and struck out four in the six innings he worked.

Oregon State opened the scoring in the fifth inning when Danny Johnson walked, stole second, and then came home on Jay Dean's long triple over the bank in left-center. Dean tried to stretch the hit into a home run but was cut down at the plate on a relay from George Shaw to Jim Livesay to Daryle Nelson to Ron Bottler.

The Beavers batted around the order in the three-run eighth inning and found reliever Bill Bottler for four hits. Jay Dean was safe at first on a fielder's choice after Bud Shirtcliff had singled. Pitcher Don White then hit a double-play ball to shortstop Pete Williams but William's wide throw to second base put the runners on second and third.

A single to center field by Beaver shortstop Bobby Buob brought in both runs. After Pete Goodbrod was out on a ground ball to second, Duane Helbig and John Thomas hit successive singles to score Buob with the third and final run of the inning.

In the last of the ninth inning Oregon entered the scoring column. With one away, Pete Williams doubled to left and came home on a single by Ron Phillips.

The Webfoots collected six hits to OSC's five during the game, but the Ducks committed three errors while Oregon State fielded faultlessly.
