

FRIENDS OFFER TO VISIT CAMPUS

Wilton Hartzler, college secretary of the American Friends Service committee, will be on campus Tuesday and Wednesday, April 8 and 9, to talk to students about opportunities to participate in summer work projects.

These work projects, sponsored by the American Friends Service committee, included work camps, seminars, work in mental hospitals and working as interns in industry. The projects will give the students a chance to live and work in areas in which there are social, economic, racial and international tension in this country, Mexico and Europe.

On Tuesday, Hartzler, Jack Merner, secretary of the YWCA, and Mary Elizabeth McDowell, secretary of the YWCA, will be available to talk to any interested students about these work projects and about summer projects sponsored by the YM and YW.

view students in the YM offices in room 318 in the Student Union and Miss McDowell will see students at the YWCA offices in Gerlinger hall. No appointments will be necessary.

At 4 p.m. Tuesday there will be a "summer projects round-up" in the YMCA offices during which students who have worked in the past will tell their experiences. At this time also any interested student may ask questions, Merner said.

Any student who is unable to see Hartzler on Tuesday may see him Wednesday by making an appointment through Merner or Miss McDowell.

SU Record Group Petitions Wanted

Recorded music committee chairman petitions have been called for by the Student Union board. Deadline for petitioning is 5 p.m. Tuesday. Petitions are available in the box outside room 301 of the SU.

All students are eligible to petition for the position, whether they have worked on the committee or not. Petitioners will be interviewed by the board Wednesday.

Duties of the chairman include supervision of the music listening rooms, responsibility for record collections and presentation of the record concerts.

UO Publication Editors, Managers To Be Selected

The Student Publications board has announced three spring term meeting dates at which it will select editors and business managers of student publications for next year.

The pub board will meet April 15 to choose the editor and business manager of the 1952-53 Oregon. Petition deadline for these two jobs is noon April 12.

On May 6 the board will name the editor and business manager for the 1952-53 Emerald and will interview candidates for editor of the Orenter in order to make recommendations to director of student affairs. Petition deadline for these positions is noon May 3.

At the May 20 meeting, the pub board will select editor and business manager of the 1952-53 Student Directory with petition deadline set for noon May 17.
