

Not One, But TWO . . .

No-Hitters Scored In Opening IM Tilts

By Jack Dennon

With the exception of one game, the intramural softball action Monday evening was largely a series of one-sided affairs. The three-ring circus type of action saw two pitchers gaining no-hit ball games. Sigma Chi's Jim Calderwood pitched a no-hitter against Pi Kappa Phi, and Phi Kappa Psi's Hal Lemon held the boys from Sigma Alpha Mu hitless. Top slugger for the day was ATO's third-sacker, Altman, who connected for four long blows in as many trips to the plate.

In back of Calderwood's no-hit pitching, Sigma Chi squashed Pi Kappa Phi 21 to 0. Calderwood struck out five batters, walked only two and hit a home run himself. Barney Holland also collected a homer for Sigma Chi.

Phi Delt's Win

Phi Delta Theta batsman collected 16 hits to help walk on Delta Upsilon 18 to 4 Phi Delt pitcher, Clay, gave up just four hits, one of them a homer by DU's McConnell. Phi Delt's Post and Clay each banged out triples.

Sigma Alpha Mu bowed to Phi Kappa Psi 13 to 1, as Lemon held the losers hitless. Lemon also hit a triple and shortstop Wayne Ballantyne socked a home run to aid the cause. The Sammy pitcher, Olds, allowed eight hits and struck out 4 batters. Lemon whiffed five batsman.

In the second round of the day's play, the Campbell Club men successfully snubbed the Delta Tau Delta diamond outfit by a comfortable 13 to 3 margin. Heino and Jones shared the pitching honors for the winners, while losing moundsmen were Beerman and Owens.

Order of O to Meet

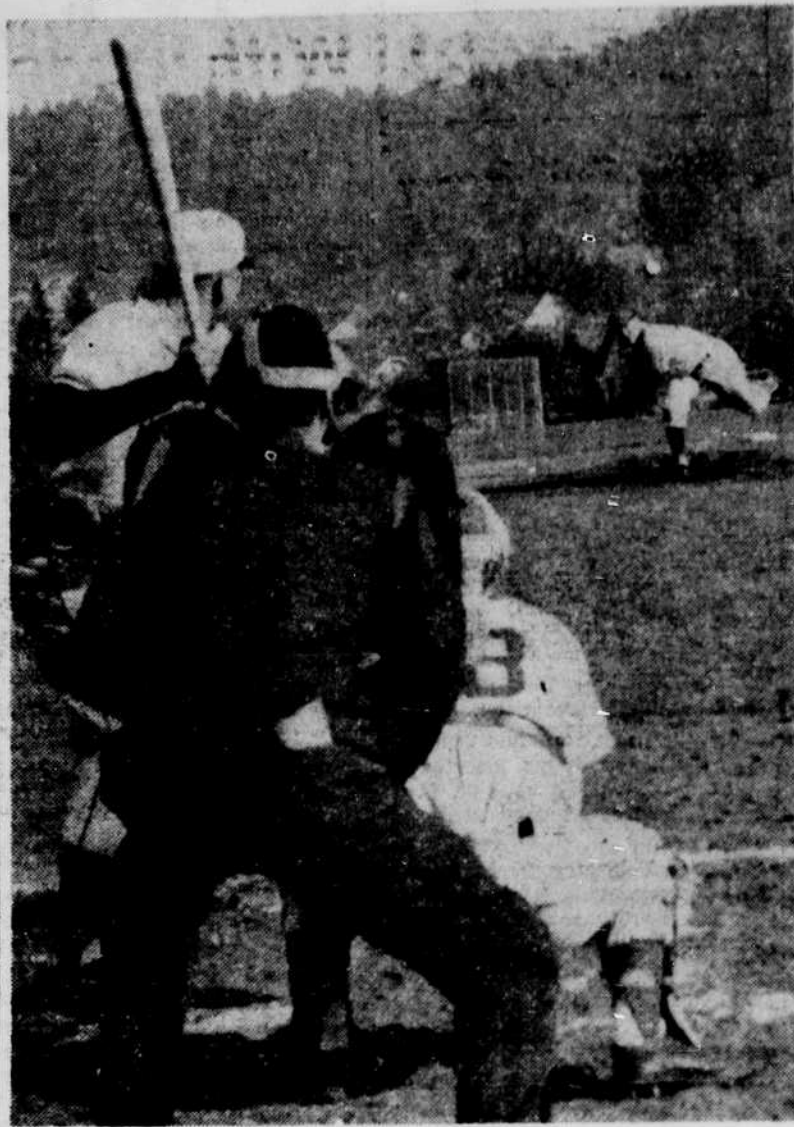

The Order of the O will meet at noon Wednesday at the Alpha Tau Omega house, according to President Jim Livesay. Initiation will be held for new swimming letter-winners, and all members are asked to attend.

Cas Recovering, Will Return Soon

Len Casanova, Oregon football coach, says he "feels better than at any time in the past three months." Talking by phone Monday to Assistant Coach Jack Roche from a San Jose, Calif. hospital, Casanova said his back would be placed in a cast Friday or Saturday following an operation April 11 for removal of a spinal disc.

Casanova hopes to be in Eugene in time for the opening of spring football drills on Monday, April 14, or soon afterward.

Siegmund Fogs One Past Aggie

Mentor Pleased By Relay Win; UW Test Ahead

"I was very pleased with them—very pleased." Those were the words Coach Bill Bowerman used in regard to the Oregon track team's performance at last Saturday's Willamette Relays. No doubt he should be pleased as the times, distances, and heights turned in by the Duck thinclads, who broke eight records and garnered 10 other firsts, are comparatively unheard of for so early in the season.

A pulled leg muscle sustained by Dick Zimmerman was the only injury reported by Webfoot tracksters, so they should be at full strength to meet the tough Washington Huskies Saturday. The Husky meet will open the Northern division dual-meet season for Oregon.

Time trials are scheduled for today. The tentative entries for the Washington meet as released by the athletic news bureau are as follows:

100-yard dash—Bill Fell, Jerry Mock, and Bruce Springbett.
220-yard dash—Fell, Mock, and Ted Anderson.

440-yard dash—Anderson, Doug Clement, Merlyn Samples.

880-yard run—Jack Hutchins, Al Martin, Bill Hail, and Jack Loftis.

Mile run—Fred Turner, Art Backlund, Roy Bradetich.

Two-mile run—Wayne Reiser, Ben Johnson, and Gary Garrett.

120-yard high hurdles—Larry Blunt, Tom Swalm, Ralph Risley, and Dick Zimmerman.

220-yard low hurdles—Jack Smith, Ray Packwood, and Tom Swalm.

High jump—Jack Smith, Emery Barnes, Walt Badorek and Charles Phillips.

Broad jump—Don McClure, Tommy Edwards, and Al Opplinger.
Pole vault—Packwood, Russ Mannex, and Ed Robison.

Javelin—Chuck Missfeldt, Chet Noe, and Brian Weddell.

Shotput—Noe, Ben Lloyd, and Bob Craig or Jim Jones.

Discus—Lloyd, Badorek, and Don Long.

Mile relay—Anderson, Samples, Clement, Fell, Hutchins.

Tennis Team Slates Weekend Tilts Against Multnomah Club, Irvington

Coach Bob Laurence's varsity netmen will see their first action of the season this weekend when they travel to Portland to take on the Multnomah Athletic Club and the Irvington Club tennis squads.

The MAC match will be played Saturday, and will consist of six singles matches and two doubles events. Sunday the Ducks will face the Irvington Club in a marathon of eight singles and four doubles contests. Both matches figure to provide a stiff workout for the Webfoots.

Battle for Top Spot

Intrasquad practice was resumed last week after a lay-off over the spring vacation, and competition among the eight aspirants for positions on the five man squad continues to be fierce. At present Jack Neer, Bill Rose, transfer Paul

Willey, and Tom MacDonald are all fighting it out for the number one singles spot on the squad.

Rose is having scholastic difficulties, however, and may be ineligible to play. Showing a good deal of improvement lately has been Ron Lowell, ex-Klamath Falls star, who recently gave letterman Don Neras a stiff battle before being downed in a three set match. Standings at present time have the squad in the following order: Rose, MacDonald, Willey, Neer, Neras, Lowell, Neil George, and Bruce Dingler. Final rankings will be made shortly prior to the opening Northern Division match April 26.

Laurence is as yet undecided upon what men he will use to form his two doubles teams. The combinations of Neer and Rose, and MacDonald and Willey look particularly good. Also playing together have been George and Neras semi-finalists in the ND tourney last year, and Lowell and Dingler. All four teams will be used Sunday against Multnomah.

Cousins Works Out

Working out with the squad Monday, and displaying a sharp game, was Norman Cousins, editor of the Saturday Review.

Borcher Calls Hoopsters

There will be a meeting for all those interested in playing varsity basketball next year at 3:15 Wednesday at McArthur court, according to Bill Borcher, basketball coach.

IM Golf Postponed; Chi Psi Wins Net Go

No games were played in either the intramural golf or tennis action on Monday, which was set for the opening day of the season in both sports.

The slated golf match between Delta Tau Delta and Tau Kappa Epsilon was postponed until Wednesday, while the Chi Psi-Pi Kappa Phi tennis match was won by Chi Psi on a forfeit.

THE WEEKEND THAT ALMOST WASN'T

OR WHY SHOULD THE LEOPARD CHANGE THOSE SPOTS, ANYWAY?

Once there was a Sophomore who had mastered Strategy and Tactics. He could point out, with diagrams, just where Napoleon had pulled a blooper . . . and how the Hundred Years' War could have been stymied in twenty minutes, if he had only been consulted.

He didn't, however, know Women. As he demonstrated by forgetting his girl's Birthday. She, naturally, was incensed. Sent him a chilly letter canceling their date for the Spring Weekend, three Days away, and announcing that She was Through, Forever. Fortunately, he was a Man of Infinite Resource. He waited until Thursday, then hiked to the Western Union office and sent a telegram. Very casual . . . to wit: "Sorry you can't make Weekend. Under circumstances, am dating Eloise Witherspoon. You may have seen her Picture when she was voted Dreamiest Dish on Campus."

His Pigeon arrived, breathing Fire, on the first train Friday. After the Air had settled, it turned out to be a Wonderful Weekend.
