

Oregon Wallops Orange Nine; Collects 13 Hits

The Oregon Ducks pulled the biggest surprise yet this spring when they defeated the Oregon State baseball squad on the Beavers' home grounds Thursday by a score of 12-5.

The Webfoots had dropped a 4-1 decision earlier in the season to these same Beavers, and they entered the second game of the series rated to lose again to their hosts.

However, the men from Eugene leaped off to a two-run start in the first inning and from that point on they were never headed.

Dependable George

George Shaw started the game off in his usual style by singling between short and third. The next two men at the plate, Jim Livesay and Daryle Nelson, fell prey to the wiles of Beaver hurler Bailey Brem, Livesay swinging at his third strike and Nelson grounding out, shortstop to first.

Joe Sugura singled to left field, and an error by Oregon State shortstop Bud Buob combined with Ron Bottler's single to score both Sugura and Shaw.

The Webfoots really caught fire in the second frame, with two Beaver errors placing Schmer and Oregon pitcher Charlie Mays on base. Shaw singled for his second consecutive hit, Livesay sacrificed, then Daryle Nelson smashed a home run to center field to score

Golfers Host Pilot Tee-men

The University of Oregon golf team tees off for the first time this season Saturday at the Eugene Country club in a non-conference dual meet with the University of Portland divot-men.

Competing for Coach Sid Milligan's Webfoots in the match, which will start at 8:30 a.m., will be the following seven men: Bob Atkinson, Ron Clark, Fred Mueller, Don Krieger, Roy Morgan, Al Cross, and Al Mundie.

As a team is made up of only six men, one of these will probably act as an alternate. Thirty six holes of qualifying rounds are required before the meet, and since several of the top men, including Clark, have not completed these rounds, rankings cannot be made as yet.

Bob Atkinson has sparkled in play so far, as he has posted 72-73 scores in his qualifying rounds.

Bowling . . .

Bellissimo and Williams won 4 pts. from Case.

Hanes won 4 pts. from Ungerleider.

Bruns won 3 pts. from Yevtich and Hunter.

Greiner won 3 pts. from Gelhausen.

High series: Dick Williams, 546. High game: Williams, 212.

Low Hit Contests Mark IM Play

By Bob Summers

Alpha Tau Omega and Kappa Sigma were victorious by wide margins in Intramural Softball play Thursday while most of the other games resulted in relatively low scores. A no hitter turned in by Jim Hunt of Philadelphia House highlighted the day's pitching performance.

ATO sluggers banged out eighteen hits in defeating Tau Kappa Epsilon by a score of 18-0 ATO's Bob Altman and Jerry Shaw hit homers and Shaw also turned in a fine performance on the mound as he limited Teke batters to one hit.

Fireballer Tom Novikoff limited Theta Chi to three hits and also contributed a triple as Kappa Sigma downed Theta Chi 17-0. Kappa Sigma iced the game in the second inning as they banged out five hits and scored eleven runs—Dick Daugherty and Novikoff were the big guns in the winner's attack while Dave Krieger banged out a double for the losers.

SAE downed Delta Tau Delta 9-2 while Beta Theta Pi pounded out a 4-2 victory over Sigma Phi Epsilon. Kern's homer in the last inning spoiled a no-hitter for SAE pitcher Mike Lynch. Delt pitcher Bill Owens gave up 11 hits, two of them homers by Tom Elliott and Bob Brown. Ekstrom's homer and Harland Mickey's 11 strikeouts highlighted the Beta-Sig Ep fracas.

Philadelphia House garnered five runs on three hits in defeating Chi Psi 5-4.

Pi Kappa Alpha picked up six runs on eight hits to defeat Campbell Club 6-5 in a close one. Gilkey starred for the winners, pounding out a triple and a homerun while Earl Ferguson did a creditable job on the mound for the losers.

French Linksters Trap Sig Ep Golfers

Lowry Hoyer, French Hall, shot a low 77 as his mates defeated the Sigma Phi Epsilon golfers, 8½ to 3½ Thursday afternoon in Intramural league action.

Following are the results, with French Hall players listed first:

Hoyer (77) over Rod Heestand (81), 3-0; Bob Kennedy (87) over Jim Ekstrom (88), 2½ to ½; Jim Stuart (84) over Jim Purcell (89), 2½ to ½; and Dale Sears (91) dolt to Bill Sage (88), 2½ to 1-2.

Oregon Faces Acid Test; Dual Meet Rated Toss-Up

"I'm worried about everything, of course," was the coach-like reply of Bill Bowerman when asked about the invasion of the powerful Washington track team Saturday. His greatest concern, though is with the field events. The only sure five points in this category is from Chuck Missfeldt, the 196 javelin ace. From there on its hope for the best.

In at least two field events, high jump and broad jump, Oregon entrants will have to go against the sensational Swede, George Widenfelt. Chuck Phillips and Jack Smith will try to take his measure in the high jump. In the broad jump it is up to Don McClure to better the versatile Husky.

Pole Vault Close

The pole vault could be close and promises to be a duel between Ray Packwood and Dick Bale. Packwood proved himself under fire last weekend at Salem when he cleared 13' 2" for his best effort.

The Husky discus duo of Jerry Langer and Loran Perry should have it pretty much their own way against Ben Lloyd and Walt Badorek. The shot put situation for Oregon doesn't look much brighter and Chet Noe will have to be at his best to take Perry, a consistent 50 foot putter.

Bowerman will be counting heavily on his runners to turn the tide for Oregon. He feels that the meet may not be decided until the last event, the ever exciting mile relay. The local four will be Ted Anderson, Bill Fell, Jack Hutchins and Merlyn Samples or Doug Clement.

Rose Out . . .

Tennis Squad Invades Portland

Travelling to Portland this weekend for matches with the Multnomah and Irvington clubs' tennis squad will be coach Bob Laurence's varsity netmen. The matches, first of the season for the Ducks, will be played Saturday at 10:30 a.m. and Sunday at 1:30 p.m. The scene of action both days will be the Irvington Tennis Club courts.

"We expect to make a good showing, although with Bill Rose out our chances will be hurt," Laurence stated Thursday. "The results of these two matches will give some indication of what can be expected in conference competition, which begins April 26."

Rose, a freshman, has been one of the outstanding Duck tennis men in pre-season competition thus far, but will not be playing this weekend due to an uncertain scholastic status.

Coach Laurence had to revise his roster somewhat because of Rose's absence this weekend. In doubles, Paul Willey and Tom MacDonald will play number one, while Neil George will move up with Jack Neer in the second combination. Playing third doubles will be Ron Lowell and Don Neras. In singles, MacDonald will play in the number one spot; Willey, number two; Neer, third, Neras, fourth; Lowell, fifth; George, sixth; and Bruce Dingler, even though some of the players whom the Ducks face this weekend play for both Multnomah and Irvington clubs and include some formidable netters. On the M and I team are such outstanding players as Jim Brink, who is ranked eleventh nationally, Emery Neale, Oregon State Open champ for the past five years, and man for OSC.

A return match will be held next Saturday, April 19, on the University courts.

Don't miss the annual Community Easter Sunrise Service at 6:30 a.m. Sunday in McArthur court.

Jayvee Nine Clips Eugene High, 8-3

The Oregon junior varsity baseball squad made it two in a row as they downed the Eugene high Axemen in the second game between the two clubs, yesterday afternoon on Howe field.

Eugene gathered all three of its runs in the first frame off Farrell Albright on two hits and one JV error. In the next three innings Albright settled down to fan eight and hold the Axemen hitless.

Neil Marlett was the big man with the stick as he collected a single, a triple and a home run for a perfect day at the plate. Big Neil drove in three runs and scored three times to make up the biggest part of the Duckling scoring.

Jim Johnson, lead off batter collected a double and a single and stole three bases to be the second most powerful man at the bat. Paul Byhre banged out two singles in four attempts and scored on Marlett's triple.

All together the Junior varsity nine rapped out 14 hits against five given up by the college hurlers. Albright pitched until the end of the fourth inning and gave up three runs on two hits. In the fifth inning Bill Blodgett took over the pitching chores and allowed the townies no runs and three evenly spaced hits. In the four stanzas that Blodgett pitched he faced only 17 Eugene batsmen and succeeded in picking off a runner on first and his team mates contributed a double play from third to second.

This seventh inning double play was the only DP of the ball game. It started when substitute third baseman Gene Duncan scraped up a hot grounder with men on first and second and none away. Duncan turned and stepped on the hot (Please turn to page five)
