

Cas Due Wednesday; Ducks in 'Good Shape'

Assistant Football Coach Jack Roche placed the stamp of approval on Monday afternoon's spring grid drill—the first of the 1952 campaign. "They're in pretty good shape," he announced as he surveyed the list of some 50 aspirants for the University of Oregon varsity.

Conspicuous by their absences were Head Football Coach Len Casanova and gridders Pat Curtis, Bob Ashworth and Don Sloan.

Casanova, who is recovering from a back operation in San Jose, Calif., will return to the campus Wednesday morning after an all night trip from Oakland, Calif. on the Southern Pacific's Cascade.

Roche said that he doubts whether or not Casanova will be able to assist physically, with the drills. His back will be in a brace and he may be forced to direct from the sidelines, if possible.

Oregon SU Books Women Keglers

Louis Bellissimo, recreation director of the Student Union, announced today that the famous "Ray Rand's Round-up" women's bowling team from Los Angeles, Calif., will bowl three exhibition rounds here on Monday.

Boasting a team average of 940, the gals have oft-times captured the Los Angeles city title, plus numerous national distinctions. Laverne Haverly has rolled a 741 series on games of 278, 215 and 248. Hattie Wooster is credited with an even 300.

The recreation department will conduct a bowling clinic Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons at 4:00 for beginning bowlers.

He Concedes Nothing

Rain Cancels Drill; Kirsch Optimistic

Bolstered spiritually by a trio of victories last week, Don Kirsch and his University of Oregon baseballers didn't mind losing to the elements Monday afternoon.

The showers failed to dampen Kirsch's outlook for the 1952 Pacific Coast conference Northern Division season which opens

Friday. "We've improved a lot in the past week and I think we have a good chance in the race," said Kirsch.

Kirsch Optimistic

Oregon's 12-5 man-handling of Oregon State's defending champions Thursday afternoon, followed by a pair of decisive wins over Willamette University was largely responsible for Kirsch's optimism.

"Oregon State is the team to beat, but I'm not sold on them. We could win," he said. "We'll host Washington State in the opener on Howe Field Friday and Saturday. Buck Bailey's Cougars have a good pitching staff and that's as far as my reports go," the mentor said.

Mighty Daryle

Slam bangin' second sacker Daryle Nelson has opened up a ten run buldge in the RBI department over Catcher Ron Bottler. Nelson, besides his 19 runs batted in has rapped out 20 base hits, including six doubles, three triples and four round trippers. Center fielder George Shaw also has collected 20 hits in 50 times at bat for an average of .400.

Don Siegmund, the Ducks' southpaw slabster, has twirled 25 and 2-3 innings and has compiled a 2.49 earned run average. Siegmund has won one and lost one. Stan Aune and Bill Mays have each registered two wins and a single loss.

Minturn Blanks Gamma, 2-0

Old Man Weather stepped in on Monday's intramural softball competition, but six of the teams elected to play in spite of the wet fields. In the midst of a good deal of sliding, involuntary style, the three games went on as per schedule.

Gamma and Minturn halls locked horns in game that was probably one of the best pitcher's duels staged this season. Gene Ficker and Burl Deatherage allowed one and three hits respectively and Ficker came out the winner by a 2-0 score. Ficker struck out seven batters and walked none. Deatherage struck out three and walked three.

Thirteen Walks

Behind the 5-hit pitching of Pat Curtiss the Nestor hall nine downed Hunter 12 to 4. Thirteen Nestor batsmen walked to first base while only one went down on strikes. Curtiss gave up six free passes and whiffed three.

Sigma hall thoroughly trounced French hall in a 13 to 2 slug-fest that saw four homeruns chalked up on Sigma's scoresheet. Sigma second-sacker, Steidel collected two round trips for himself. The pitching was controlled, if nothing else, for only six batsmen reached first on walks. A volley of 24 hits accounts for the score.

Sherry Ross Out

Stan Ray hall won by forfeit over Sherry Ross-Omega and the loss marked the end of Sherry-Omega softball competition. Sherry-Omega has elected to withdraw from the game schedule and intramural director, Everett Peery has announced that Sederstrom hall has been granted an opportunity to take the vacated spots on the remainder of the season's schedule. Sederstrom failed to qualify for competition at the season's beginning because of an error in registering.

The Phi Gamma Delta-Sigma Nu and Lambda Chi Alpha-Phi Kappa Sigma games were postponed and will be re-scheduled.

Cindermen Face Rugged WSC Foe

Stiff workouts followed the Washington victory as the Oregon trackmen prepared to meet one of their major rivals for Northern division track honors.

The Washington State Cougars will be the Ducks' second conference foe when they come to Hayward field on Saturday. The Cougars will prove tough competition as they are strong in the middle distance, distance, and field events.

WSC's freshman-laden Cougars continued undefeated in the young cinder season as they romped to a 93½ to 37½ victory over University of Idaho at Moscow Saturday.

At Moscow, the Cougars won 11 of 15 events and garnered a tie in a 12th event to flatten the Vandals and establish themselves as a distinct threat to Oregon's hopes of winning the division title.

In the top event of the day, Neil Rader of Tacoma, WSC's sensational Freshman two-miler, won a gruelling test against Lou Gourley, Idaho's highly regarded frosh, in the time of 4:21.4.

High hurler Alan Torgerson and half-miler Bill Link, Cougar Frosh from Spokane, won their specialties in competition with veterans.

Clint Richardson of WSC was high scorer of the meet with 11 points garnered by a victory in the 200-yard dash and seconds in the century and broad jump.
