

Workshop To Feature Parody on 'Hamlet'

A campus-produced film parody on "Hamlet" will be the feature attraction of the Campus Workshop program to be held in the Student Union May 16.

The 35-minute movie, directed and filmed by Jim Blue, senior in liberal arts, stars Al Barzman as Hamlet, with Lois Williams as Ophelia, Martha Stapleton as the queen and Bob Chambers as the Ghost, Polonius, the grave digger, Laertes, Claudius, Osrick, Horatio, and player king and queen and a burglar.

The take-off on Shakespeare was completed in six days of shooting at a cost of $40, according to Blue. An eight millimeter movie camera was used.

Costumes were managed by Jo DeLap, Phil Sanders and Bob McNeil handled lighting and sets.

In addition to the film, the campus Workshop will present a one-act comedy written by Faber DeChaine and Gerald Pearce and entitled "Two on the Fifty." Cast of the production includes Gordon Howard, Betsy Thayer, Bob Chambers, Alan Barzman, Bill DeLand and James Albertson.

A modern dance by Fred Sauseville and Emory Hermans will be another principal attraction at the evening's entertainment.

'Red and Whites' Sale Ends Today

"Red and Whites" sales on campus end today. Red and Whites, revealed to be canied apples, are the "mystie" of this year's Phi Theta Upsilon spring term sale.

The candied apples which cost 10 cents each, will be sold at booths in Carson hall, Straub, Hendricks, the Student Union, Co-op and the Side. Booths will also be placed by the library, Fenton hall, on the quad if the weather permits and in living organizations.

This sale is sponsored by the junior women's honorary and run by freshmen women. Proceeds are used for scholarships awarded by the honorary.

DANCE

9 P.M. until ...

GEORGE SHEARING QUINTET

Salem Fri., May 2
Crystal Gardens

Eugene Sat., May 3
Arena Ballroom

tickets on sale at leading record shops

The workshop will be augmented by an art exhibit which will be displayed over a period of several days in the browsing room and the Student Union art gallery. Donna Covalt is chairman for the art selection committee.

Original musical compositions, poems and short stories will also be on display. The May 16 performance will include reading of a short short story and several selected poems. Catherine Black is in charge of this section of the workshop. Miss Black requests that all interested persons turn in short stories and verse to her at the browsing room before May 8.

The workshop committee has asked that persons who have written original songs turn copies of them in at the browsing room for inclusion in the workshop program.

Frosh Orientation Petitions Due Today

Petitions for freshman week orientation chairman are due in the office of ASUO President Bill Carey today at 4 p.m.

Those petitioning for the post will be interviewed by the senate tonight at 7.

The orientation chairman will be in charge of the freshman week program during fall term and the various activities related to getting freshmen acquainted with the campus.

Information on the job may be obtained from the files in Carey's office or the office of Donald DuShane, director of student affairs.

Those petitioning may also talk with Jean Gould, last year's chairman. Anyone may apply for the post, Miss Gould stated, and they need not be a Eugene student.

Institute Beckons Oregon Merchants

The thirteenth annual conference of the Oregon Retail Distributor's Institute will be held here Sunday and Monday.

The conference consists of a series of educational sessions which are attended by merchants from throughout the state. Over 200 businessmen are expected to attend this year's session according to N. H. Comish, professor of Business Administration.

The principal speaker will be E. M. Christenson of the J. C. Penney Co., New York. Students may attend the sessions.

UO Theater Slates Children's Play

A production for children, "Niccobarbus," is slated for four showings at the University theater Friday and Saturday.

The story, according to its author Robert Pierik, senior in speech, is a version of "Snow White and Rose Red" in Grimm's Fairy Tales but with enough of a change, he explained, to necessitate a new title.

The principle part of Niccobarbus will be played by Bob Chambers, assisted by University theater regulars Jim Blue, Phil Sanders, Harold Long and Janet Stone. The parts of Rose Red and Snow White will be presented by two Eugene grade schoolers Nancy Whalley and Patricia Mertz.

Showings are scheduled for 4 p.m. Friday and 10:30 a.m., 2 p.m. and 4 p.m. Saturday on the main stage of the theater. Admission will be 60 cents with all proceeds going to the "Y" building fund.

Vocational Advice Offered to Seniors In High School Meet

Seniors from the three Eugene high schools will attend Vocational Information Day at the Student Union Saturday to hear about jobs open to college graduates.

The meetings, which will run from 9 a.m. to 2:30 p.m., will be divided into three sections. Each will have as speakers Eugene businessmen and three University representatives — Gordon A. Sabine, dean of the journalism school, A. H. Kunz, head of the chemistry department, and Sidney W. Little, dean of the school of architecture and allied arts.

The first period will be from 10 to 10:50 a.m.; the second from 11 to 11:50 a.m.; and the third from 1:30 to 2:20 p.m.

Roy C. McCall, head of the speech department, will speak on "How to Keep Out of Work" at a luncheon for seniors and speakers. The program, which will cover 29 vocations, is sponsored by the Eugene Rotary club.

IRC To Discuss Marxian Principle

An all-day conference on Communism will be held at the University Saturday May 17, according to Toby McCarroll, president of the International Relations club.

Five roundtable discussions are planned together with a symposium on the effect of Karl Marx and a coffee hour in the afternoon. Students and faculty from all parts of the state are expected for the conference, McCarroll said.

The roundtables will include "Russian Communism," "Yugoslav Communism," "Communism in Asia," "Imperialistic Communism" and "Communism and Socialism."

Listening In

... On KWAX

- Thursday
- 3:00 Idaho-U of O Baseball Game
 - 5:30 News
 - 5:45 Campus News
 - 6:00 Campus Interview
 - 6:15 Music in the Air
 - 6:30 Workshop Drama
 - 7:00 Progressive Rhythms
 - 7:30 Surprise Package
 - 7:45 Invitation to Read
 - 8:00 Campus Classics
 - 9:00 Serenade to the Student
 - 10:00 Anything Goes
 - 10:50 News
 - 10:55 A Tune on Say Goodnight

Mother's Weekend Chairmen Named

Joan Lawson, general chairman of the Mother's Weekend, has announced her committee chairmen for the annual event which is to be held May 9, 10 and 11.

Mother's Weekend, which is held in conjunction with Junior Weekend, is an opportunity for students' mothers to visit their sons and daughters and to see the campus.

Committee chairmen are promotion, Sally Hayden; housing, Barbara Keelan; hospitality, Mary Wilson; publicity, Marcia Eagleston; registration, Carol Lee Tate; tickets, Kay Moore; and Mother's tea, Bunny Ivory.

Senior Speech Contest Planned

Seniors interested in participating in the Failing-Beekman senior speech contest June 13 have been requested by W. A. Dahlberg, associate professor of speech, to contact him as soon as possible in room 210, Villard.

The contest, open to all graduating seniors, offers prizes of $150, $100 and $50 for the three best 12 to 15 minute talks on a subject of the speaker's choice. Manuscripts must be submitted to Dahlberg not later than May 15. Help in preparation and detail of speeches will be given to all who wish it, Dahlberg said.

Party Planners Meet at Y Today

Women interested in working on the YWCA sponsored "Ladies Night Out" party May 16 will meet at the Y headquarters in Gerlinger at noon today.

Helen Wright is general chairman. Plans for the party, which starts at 5:30 p.m., include a picnic and games for all campus women.

CAMPUS CALENDAR

9:00 Home Ext Festival	2nd FISU
11:45 Rushing	333 SU
Chem Staff	111 SU
Noon Arch & Arts	110 SU
Queen Sel	114 SU
Spanish Table	112 SU
Deserets	Comm LSU
12:15 Hist & Phil Lunch	113 SU
3:00 AF ROTC Int	114 SU
Campus Sing Dec	112 SU
3:30 Russian Sem	111 SU
Jr Week Pmtn	113 SU
4:00 Art Glry Comm	313 SU
Pers Comm	302 SU
Br Rm Comm	201 SU
Toyonbee Coffee Hr	Dads Rm SU
5:30 IVCF	112 SU
6:30 ASUO Senate	333 SU
State Delegates	3 Fenton
7:00 Phi Eta Sigma	111 SU
Hui	3rd Fl Gerl
7:30 Song Ldr Finals	110 SU
IRC Elect	315 SU
8:00 Toyonbee Lect	Ballrm SU
9:30 Rushing	333 SU

The Emerald Knew

The phone rang at the Emerald shack Wednesday night for the up-teenth time and a pretty, feminine voice asked:

"Who won?"

"Pat Dignan," an Emerald staffer replied.

There was a short pause and then ...

"Well, where's the beer bust?"

It was in a marshy area near radio station KASH.

A fish which can live in either air or water inhabits lakes and rivers in tropical Venezuela and Brazil. Called the buco, it burrows into mud during the dry season, using lungs instead of gills to breathe until the rainy season begins again.

Candidates for SU Board Post Interviewed

Seven candidates for the position of member-at-large for the Student Union board were interviewed Wednesday afternoon.

The candidates are Jim Albertson, Sharon Anderson, Pat Bellmer, Donna Covalt, Jack Nichols, Jim Wilson, and Don Zavin. Donna Buse spoke for Miss Anderson as she was out of town. Two other candidates, Orville Collver and Pat Choat, withdrew their nominations.

The board may select two of the candidates for the member-at-large position, subject to the approval of University President Harry K. Newburn, for one year terms.

Gets Second Reading

Second reading of the amendment of the perpetuation plan was given and the amendment was approved. It allows for student members of SU committees to be selected by petitions with faculty members, as in the case of the newly organized student forum committee, selected by appointment. Previously the perpetuation plan called for all members to petition.

Committee report on the evaluation of the activity pool and the Directorate chairman's report were postponed until next meeting.

Results Held Back

Results of the joint committee selection, which met Monday night to interview petitioners from the Schools of Journalism and Liberal Arts, will be announced May 7 following approval of the selections by President Newburn.

Board Chairman Ralph Hillier announced that petitions for the Directorate will be accepted May 1-12.

Student Union Director Richard C. Williams informed the Board that the 1953 SU convention will be held in San Francisco and on the Berkeley campus instead of in Eugene as had been hoped.

Campus Briefs

● Hui O Kamaaina, Hawaiian group, has scheduled a meeting at 7 p.m. Thursday on the third floor of Gerlinger.

● Plato's "Phaedo" will be discussed by Dr. Albury Castell of the department of philosophy at 7:45 p.m. Friday in the Student Union browsing room. The coffee hour is sponsored by the SU browsing room committee.

● Ten of twenty-two freshmen men and former high school student body presidents meet Tuesday at the Student Union to discuss organization of a permanent president's group. Another meeting is planned for 6:30 p.m. Tuesday in the SU.

● Mike Lally and Don Collin, chairman and assistant chairman of Junior Weekend respectively, will be interviewed at 4:15 p.m. today on KOAC, according to Dick Davis, radio promotion chairman of Junior Weekend.

● Payment for lodging of high school seniors during Duck Preview will be given to all living organizations who turn in the white slips of paper left at each living organization by the high school guests. Slips must be turned in to the Alumni office on the mezzanine floor of the Student Union by 5 p.m. today, in order to secure payment, according to Jackie Wilkes, Duck Preview chairman.

The city of Natchez, Miss., began its history in 1700, when the French set up a trading post on the bluffs which later became famous during the Civil War.

Eugene's Most Modern Shop

RUSH INN

ON THE CAMPUS - 854 E. 13th