

JV's Schedule Weekend Tilts with Oregon State

The Junior Varsity baseball squad will be looking for its first win in conference play when it tangles with the Oregon State college Junior Varsity in the third and fourth games between the two teams.

The first game will be played today on the Oregon State field and tomorrow afternoon at 2 p.m. the Ducklings will play host to the OSC nine.

The Staters took the first contest played earlier this season by a 9-8 count and in the second game they smashed the Oregon boys 14-1.

Albright Stars

Farrell Albright will start on the mound today for the Ducklings and Bill Blodgett will be kept in the bull pen in case Albright gets into trouble. Don Hedgepeth will round out the battery. In the Saturday contest Gene Lewis will make his first start on the mound of Oregon and Hedgepeth will catch again.

Bob Wagner will start at first base and probably bat at his usual clean-up position. Jim Johnson and Paul Byhre will round out the keystone at shortstop and second base, respectively. The usual toss up at third base will take place with either Bill Loch or Gene Duncan in line to get the nod.

Thursday afternoon the JV's held a practice scrimmage with the Northwest Christian college varsity. The final unofficial score was 11 to 3 in favor of the JV's.

Ricketts, Callahan and Lewis worked on the mound for the Ducklings. The Oregon pitchers gave up two hits and the NCC pitcher suffered five blows. Only one error was committed by the Ducklings in their six innings of fielding.

After the games this weekend the Oregon Junior Varsity will still have two contests with OSC for the following weekend. This will climax their schedule.

If OSC can win these next four games it will mean a clean sweep for the Staters. If Oregon wins three out of the four it will put the season play into a tie and if Oregon can win four out of the four it will give them the mythical title over the Oregon State squad.

Football Team Looking Sharp In Spring Drills

The air was filled with passes Thursday afternoon at the 14th session of Oregon football spring practice. Quarterbacks Hal Dunham and Barney Holland were throwing well, with ends Ron Lyman and Monte Brethauer receiving in capable fashion.

Also several running plays were clicked off. Toward the end of the session, the defensive platoon was consistently causing trouble for the squad attempting to advance the ball.

Earlier in the week, the first major casualty of the drills occurred as freshman Bill Spores suffered a fractured shin bone. Also, running halfback Tom Elliot was nursing a slight lip bruise after Thursday's drill.

Head Coach Len Casanova stated that he was very pleased with the enthusiasm and hustle of the gridders. The greying mentor has not taken an active coaching role as he is still recovering from an operation for removal of a spinal disc early in April.

"We are showing fire," Casanova stated, "which I was not

Tennis Team Set For Home Match Against Vandals

The Webfoot net team should see its first home action of the Northern Division season Saturday afternoon, barring rain or other unforeseen circumstances, in a match scheduled for 2:00 p.m. against the University of Idaho's Vandals. The Ducks were rained out in what was to be the home season opener last Wednesday against Oregon State. That match has been moved up to Wednesday, May 7.

Challenge play was the main thing on the schedule Wednesday and Thursday, with Bill Rose challenging Tom Macdonald Wednesday for the number one singles spot in a close three set battle. Macdonald came out on top thus earning the right to play first singles in Saturday's action. Thursday Jack Neer challenged Rose for the number two position but was defeated, thus remaining in number three spot for Saturday. Also on Thursday, Ron Lowell played Neil George for fourth position, with each taking one set. The third and deciding set will be played off this afternoon with the loser taking the fifth singles spot for the Vandal match.

In doubles, Neer and Rose will team up against the top Vandal duo, and Macdonald and George will form the second team.

Due to the fact that little is known about the Vandal squad, Coach Bob Laurence was reluctant to make any predictions concerning Saturday's fray except that "we will have the advantage of playing on our own courts."

Laurence was very pleased with the showing of his own charges this week, and especially with his top two singles men, Macdonald and Rose. Macdonald was somewhat below par in last week's OSC match, but looks like he will be at his peak against Idaho.

Next on the Duck list will be WSC Monday in another home contest, followed by Wednesday's rescheduled OSC tilt.

Cherney Victors In IM Golf Match

Cherney hall topped French hall in intramural golf competition Thursday, 8½ - 3½. Lowry Hoyer shot a 76 for medalist honors and 2½ points for the winners, while his opponent, Gary Campbell posted a 77 and ½ point.

Ray Hempy shot an 84 for 3 points for Cherney, and Bob Kennedy trailed him with an 89. Bob Sogge's 87 earned three more points for the Cherney men over a 94 by Dick Meffert. Don Kotenberg of Cherney edged out Dale Sears of French, 2-1, as he shot an 89 to Sear's 90.

The Emerald sports staff would be appreciate calls by house and hall athletic chairmen after their teams play golf and tennis matches, as this will facilitate printing results immediately.

Today's IM Schedule

- 3:50 North Field Sigma Alpha Epsilon vs. Alpha Tau Omega
- 3:50 South Field Theta Chi vs. Chi Psi
- 3:50 Upper Field Sigma Phi Epsilon vs. Kappa Sigma
- 4:55 South Field Phi Gamma Delta vs. Phi Sigma Kappa
- 4:55 South Field Lambda Chi Alpha vs. Sigma Nu
- 4:55 Upper Field Nestor Hall vs. Cherney Hall

Par-Buster Extraordinary

RON CLARK, outstanding Webfoot linksman, will hold down the top position when the Duck golf team tees off against WSC and Idaho Friday and Saturday.

Golf Team to Face WSC, Idaho In Northern Division Matches

The undefeated University of Oregon golf team will compete in their second and third conference meet of the season this weekend at the Eugene Country club. Coach Sid Milligan feels that the Duck squad should have little difficulty in defeating the Washington State squad on Friday and the Idaho golf team on Saturday. Idaho's Stringfield, who is the Vandals' number one man, will provide tough competition for Bob Atkinson and Fred Mueller of the University of Oregon. The squads will tee off at 8:30 for the morning play and the afternoon rounds will last until 5:30.

The Oregon golfers have completed their qualifying scores, with Don Kreiger being low man with the score of 283 which is 5 under par. This is very spectacular for a golfer who is competing in his first year of varsity competition.

Fred Mueller is in his mid-season form and has completed his qualifying rounds with a score of 289. His short game is good, especially the wedge play.

Bob Atkinson, who is in his usual good form finished third with a score of 293. Captain Ron Clark finished fourth with a score of 301. His drives and irons to the green are particularly good.

Bud Cross and Al Mundle completed their qualifying rounds, finishing close fifth and sixth with scores of 307 and 309.

These six top golfers played for their position on the team for the coming meet on Thursday of this week. Ron Clark played excellent golf, shooting a three under par 69 for the number one position. Bob Atkinson will be the number two man and Don Kreiger, who also shot a three under par 69 will be in the third spot. Al Mundle, who won medalist honors last week against Oregon State, will be in the fifth position and Bud Cross will be the number six man.

The team is very strong in depth, with Bill Tufel and King Shanks, who have tremendous potential, in the 7th and 8th position.

The Oregon golf team is in an excellent position to be the conference champions with the University of Washington being their strongest competition in the Northwest.

Jayvee Track Team Takes Meet

The telegraphic meet results arrived Wednesday from Washington State and the Oregon JV's came out on top 79 to 51.

Thursday afternoon the JV's ran through another complete set of events for a repeat with the Cougar juniors. The results of this one won't be available for a week or so due to the telegraph strike.

Coach Bowerman was out of town Thursday but left instructions for varsity time trials. The time trial events were: 120 highs, 180 lows, 80-yard dash, ¼-mile run, 750-yard run and 180-yard dash.

Today and Saturday the thin-clads will work out lightly on grass. Following are the telegraphic meet results:

100-yard dash: Springbett, O; Hosteter, WSC; Hrutford, O. Time: 10.1.

220-yard dash: Hosteter, WSC; Springbett, O; Samples, O. Time: :22.4.

440-yard dash: Samples, O; Briot, O; Russel, WSC. Time: 52.0.

880-yard run: Hall, O; Lehn, WSC; Wood, WSC. Time: 2:01.6.

Mile run: Rogier, WSC; Bradetich, O; Backlund, O. Time: 4:39.5.

Two-mile run: Bradetich, O;
