

Weekend Ready to Begin

Awards to be Made At Sing Intermission

The All-campus Sing, "Sandman's Serenade" will open at 8 p.m. DST Saturday night in McArthur Court with the Junior Weekend Queen's Processional. Ten men's and ten women's houses will sing, competing for top honors. Awards and tappings by honoraries will be made during the intermissions.

Tickets are 90 cents and may be obtained from sales representatives in the living organizations.

The Queen and her court will enter Mac Court in a processional to view the proceedings of the evening. The Junior Weekend Queen, to be announced at the Prom Saturday night, will be chosen from Princesses Pat Johnson, Barbara Booth, Nannette Silverthorne, Joan Renner and Jo Martin.

During the intermission following half of the houses' songs, the William Frager Skull and Dagger Scholarship will be awarded by John Beal to a sophomore man. Karen Jacobsen will award the Delta Delta Delta Scholarship to a University woman. The Hazel P. Schwering and Burt Brown Barker scholarships will be awarded by Mrs. Perrie Dolph and Burt B. Barker. Trophies for the houses taking top honors in the Float Parade will be presented by Norma Hultgren and Jim Owens.

After all song competition, Friars and Skull and Dagger will tap junior and freshmen men for membership. The Maurice Harold Hunter and Josephine Evans Harpham scholarships will be awarded.

Following the judges' decisions, the All-campus Sing trophies will be presented to the winning living organization in the men's and women's groups. These winners will sing in the Sunlight Serenade Sunday at 3 p.m. DST.

A Queen's recessional will close the All-campus Sing.

Women's houses competing in the Sing are Carson hall, Ann Judson, Sigma Kappa, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Pi Beta Phi, Delta Delta Delta, University house and Chi Omega.

Men's finalists are Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Campbell Club, Delta Upsilon, Sigma Chi, Sigma Phi Epsilon, Alpha Tau Omega, Delta Tau Delta, Lambda Chi Alpha, Theta Chi and Hunter-Minturn.

The order in which houses will sing will be announced later.

All-university Luncheon Scheduled To Begin Late Saturday Morning

The all-campus luncheon, to be held on the Old Campus, weather permitting, will begin at 11:45 a.m., Saturday.

Serving will be done by members of Kwama, sophomore women's honorary; Skull and Dagger, sophomore men's honorary; Phi Theta Upsilon, junior women's honorary; and Alpha Phi Omega, national men's service honorary.

The processional of the queen and her court will begin at 12:30 p.m. The queen will reign over the noontime activities which include the tapping of the following honoraries: Scabbard and Blade; Friars, senior men's honorary; and Mortar Board, senior women's honorary. Ed Raggazino will be master of ceremonies.

Luncheon tickets have been distributed to living organizations. Price of tickets is 47 cents. No lunches will be served in houses and dorms Saturday.

In case of rain the luncheon will be held in McArthur court, according to Joan Cartozian and Don Zavin, co-chairmen of the committee.

Sunlight Serenade Ends Weekend

The Sunlight Serenade, final event of Junior Weekend, will be held at 3 p.m. DST Sunday in the music school amphitheater.

The program will include the following: the all-campus sing winners, the university band; Jan Evans, Walter Martin, Audrey Mistretta and Gordon Howard, soloists; a combo with Kaare Sandegren at the piano, Larry Burr on the drums, Bob Wheelless, string bass; and Dick Schwary playing the trumpet. A student string quartet will also be featured.

There is no admission charge for the serenade.

Students May Get Oreganas in SU

Students who did not pick up their Oreganas during the regular time for distribution Tuesday and Wednesday may now get them in the office of the Student Union on the mezzanine floor.

The yearbooks will be available in that office until further notice, Editor Bob Funk said Wednesday night.

Moms' Breakfast Ticket Sales End

Today is the last day to purchase tickets for the Mother's breakfast to be held Saturday morning at 9 DST in Carson hall.

Representatives will be in the living organizations at noon today with the tickets students may purchase for their mothers who will be on campus this weekend for special events in conjunction with Junior Weekend. Price of the breakfast tickets is $1.25.

Ticket Sales Close

The ticket sales will continue at the main desk of the Student Union only until the desk closes this evening. Ticket Chairman Kay Moore urges students to get the tickets for their mothers to enable them to attend the breakfast which will also be the main meeting of the Oregon Mothers club. Due to limited space, only mothers may attend the breakfast.

Other events of Mother's weekend will include an executive board meeting of the Oregon Mothers club at 12:15 p.m. DST Friday, a tea in Gerlinger from 2:30 to 4:30 p.m. Saturday and the regular Junior Weekend events which they will be able to attend.

Registration

Registration of mothers attending the weekend festivities will be from 2 to 5 p.m. DST Friday in the Student Union; 8 to 11:30 a.m. DST Saturday in Carson hall and 11:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. DST Saturday in Gerlinger.

The men's and women's living organizations with the largest percentage of mothers registered for the weekend will be presented an award.

anyone you meet on the walk.

Annual Tug-of-war Planned for Friday

The annual freshman-sophomore tug-o-war will be staged at 4 p.m. Friday adjacent to the Kincaid bridge, Dick Morse, Junior Weekend traditions chairman, has announced.

The battle is held yearly to determine whether the freshman continue wearing the green ribbons and rooters lids. If the freshman win, the ribbons and lids are discarded in keeping with tradition. Last year the class of 1953 won the contest.

Bob Brittain, sophomore class president, and Bob Glass, freshman class president, are making plans for the "grueling" battle.

Portugal, world's principal cork producer, exported a record 232,109 metric tons of raw and manufactured cork last year to meet growing international demand, trade figures show.

Chairmanship Goes To Gretchen Grefe

Gretchen Grefe, junior in business, was appointed general chairman for Mortar Board Ball, annual gal-ask-fellow dance, by members of the senior women's honorary Wednesday night.

The dance is scheduled for Saturday night, May 24.

Committee chairmen appointed to work with Miss Grefe are Ann Blackwell, chaperones and invitations; Laura Pearson, intermission activities; Ann Carson and Virginia Wright, tickets; Jo Anne Hewitt and Lillian Schott, programs; Lyle Nelson, promotion; and Lorna Larson, publicity.
