

Minturn Hall, Beta Win Final Berths

By Jack Dennon

Minturn Hall and Beta Theta Pi will play Monday at 4 p.m. DST for the intramural softball championship as a reward for their victorious performances Thursday afternoon over Sigma Chi and Cherney Hall respectively. Minturn beat Sigma Chi in a thrill-packed 1 to 0 ball game while the Beta's out-slugged Cherney Hall 14 to 7.

Scared Stiff

At the end of his three-hit performance, Minturn pitcher, Gene Hilfiker phrased the tenseness of the contest well when he said, "I was scared stiff." What aroused Gene's fear was undoubtedly the two sudden hits in the seventh and last inning, by Shortstop Dick Petzoldt and Pitcher Jim Calderwood.

With two on and none out Minturn talked it over with Coach Joe Tom, and decided to walk Doug Rogers in order to make a force out at any base. Nursing his shaky one-run lead, Hilfiker proceeded to strike out Ron Walters; Ed Halberg popped out to Shortstop Bob Fase and Hilfiker ended the ball game by pouring across three strikes on Petzoldt.

Minturn scored its winning run in the third inning when Bob Fase with a single, stole base and then scampered to third on the wild throw to second. Catcher Lou Santos stepped up and drove a hard liner into center field to score Fase. In the fourth inning Left-fielder Kotoshirodo hit a triple but was left on base.

Hilfiker gave up three hits, struck out seven batsmen, and walked three. Calderwood allowed three hits, struck out ten, and walked two.

Mann hurls win

Al Mann pitched the Beta Theta Pi's to their 14-7 victory over the freshmen nine from Cherney Hall. The game was a slug-out affair from the very first pitch. Mann was found for five hits while his Beta batsmen connected Bob Hinman's tosses twelve times. Mann miffed eight batters and handed out four free passes while Hinman cut down four on strikes and walked five.

Bill Fell is Father Of Baby Boy

Coach Bill Bowerman may have found a prospective sprinter for the 1970 Oregon track squad Thursday with the announcement of the birth of William Fell, Jr. at South Gate, California.

The new arrival, son of the Duck's ace sprinter, Bill Fell, weighed in at 8 pounds, three ounces and both Bill Jr. and his mother, Robbie, are reported to be in excellent condition. Mrs. Fell left Eugene late last month to return to her home in South Gate to await the birth of the child.

Oregon Tilt Rained Out; OSC Regains Lead With Victory

Oregon State climbed back into first place in the Northern Division baseball race today with a 6 to 2 decision over the University of Washington at Seattle. Norm Wellman pitched his third straight victory of the Northern Division season.

The visiting Beavers drove Washington starter Chuck Magnuson to cover in the second inning with three runs. OSC scored three more in the fifth inning to put the game on ice.

Duwayne Helbig and Pete Goodbrod got two hits apiece to lead Oregon State's nine-hit attack. The two teams meet again today.

The weather helped boost OSC into first place, because the scheduled Oregon-Idaho game at Moscow was rained out. Oregon was leading the Northern Division race Wednesday by a few percentage points.

Cindermen to Face Beavers Saturday

Oregon's thirty-fourth dual track meet with Oregon State will get under way Saturday afternoon at Corvallis. Coach Bowerman's trackmen are figured to have things pretty much their own way with the Beavers who have yet to win a meet this season. This will be the last dual meet of the season for both teams.

No meet records appear to be in danger. The mile relay record of 3:22.4 set in 1931 by an Oregon team could be lowered if Bowerman uses his top team. Close duel will probably take place between Webfoot Ray Packwood and Lyle Dickey. OSC's Northern division polevault king, Chet Noe has been improving lately and could give Duane Eby, another ND leader, a close contest in the shot put.

The 100 yard dash could be close with Jerry Mock looking for an upset over OSC's Merv Brock. Bill Fell holds the meet record of 9.5 set in 1950 but will be competing in the Fresno relays. Saturday along with Chuck Missfeldt. This pair alone is usually worth at least ten points.

The following are Oregon's tentative entries for Saturday's meet: 100 yard dash—Jerry Mock, Bruce Springbett, and Jack Smith. 220 yard dash—Mock, Springbett, and Smith.

440 yard dash—Ted Anderson, Doug Clement, and Merlyn Samples.

880 yard run—Jack Hutchins, John Loftis, and Bill Hall.

Mile run—Al Martin, Wayne Reiser, and Art Backlund.

Two mile—Fred Turner, and Dick Bradetitch.

Low hurdles—Larry Blunt, Tom Swalm, and Ralph Risley.

Javelin—Schoonover, Liles, and Heppner.

Discus—Walt Badorek, Ben Lloyd, and Chet Noe.

Shot put—Noe, Craig, Jones.

High jump—Emery Barnes, Jack Smith.

Broad jump—Smith, Tommy Edwards, and Chuck Phillips.

Pole vault—Ray Packwood, Russ Manex, and Eddie Robison or Ken Higgenbottom. Robison has a safe leg.

Mile relay—Bill Briot, Merlyn Samples, Bill Hai, and John Loftis.

If the meet is close, Bowerman will use Anderson, Martin, Clement, and Hutchins.

Golf Team to Face Washington In Crucial Division Encounter

The University of Oregon golf team will compete with the University of Washington in the most decisive meet of the season at the Inglewood Country club in Seattle Saturday. Both teams have a spotless record thus far in conference play, with Oregon having defeated OSC, Idaho, WSC and the University of Portland by decisive margins.

The Duck squad, coached by Sid Milligan competed in a preliminary meet with the College of Puget Sound Thursday and will travel to Seattle for the meet with the Huskies on Saturday.

The veteran Husky squad is characterized by a "big four" consisting of Jim Bourne, Jimmy Hynds, Paul Johanson and Don Russell, returning letterman who constitute the nucleus of the squad. The Washington team has set its sights this year to dethrone the Ducks who have won the conference dual meet title for three years running.

The Oregon golfers will play in their same positions that they held in the recent meets with Idaho and WSC. Captain Ron Clark, who is playing his last season of varsity golf will be the number one man. Letterman Bob Atkinson will play the number two position for Oregon, and Don Krieger, who is competing in his first year of varsity play will find the third spot.

Fred Mueller, who is in mid season form, will be the fourth man for Oregon and Sophomore Al Mundle will play in fifth position. Bud Cross will round out the Duck squad.

Last Scrimmage Set Saturday

Another light workout is on tap for the University of Oregon mole-skinners today as they prepare for their final scrimmage of the spring Saturday morning on Hayward field.

Coach Len Casanova split the squad into two sections again Thursday, separating the backs from the line. Johnny McKay, backfield mentor, Casanova and Assistant Coach Jack Roche then had the Duck backs, plus the ends run through a few new plays.

Meanwhile Line Coach Gene Harlow and his aides, Brad Ecklund, Dick Daugherty and Don McCauley handled the tackles, guards, centers and the ends.

Fell, Missfeldt In Fresno Meet

Bill Fell and Chuck Missfeldt, veteran members of the Oregon track squad, will be entered in the 26th annual West Coast Relays at Fresno, California, Saturday night, it was disclosed today by Coach Bill Bowerman.

Fell, PCC sprint champion in 1950 and co-holder of the Oregon 100-yard dash record at 9.5 seconds, and Missfeldt, defeding NC-AA javelin champion, will leave Eugene Friday for the meet.

Bowerman said the Duck medley relay team of Fell, Doug Clement, Jack Hutchins and Al Martin was also invited, but would not enter in view of the conflict with the Oregon-Oregon State dual meet at Corvallis Saturday afternoon. "I think they would do well at Fresno," Bowerman said, "but we want to win our dual meet this weekend and we can't do it with these four men in Fresno."

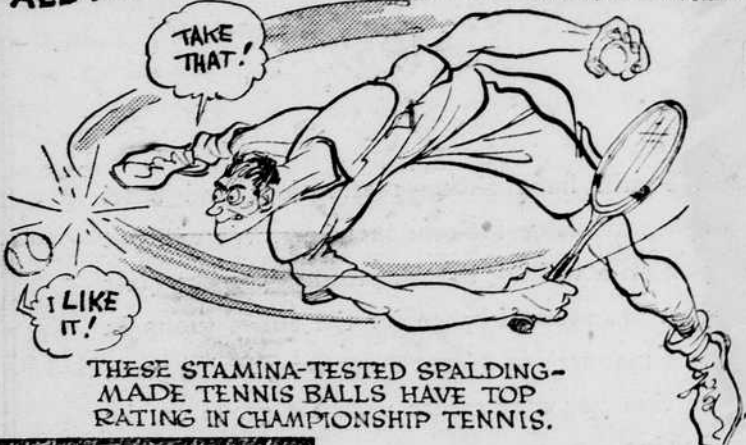

Daylight Saving Time to Prevail For PCC Meet

Daylight time will prevail at the 22nd annual Pacific Coast Conference Track and Field Championships at Eugene May 23 and 24, it was announced here by Leo Harris, director of the meet.

Both preliminaries on Friday and Saturday's finals will start with field events at 3:30 p.m. and the running events will get under way at 4 p.m. Harris also said that there would be no charge for the preliminaries on Friday, but holders of reserved seat tickets for the finals would be entitled to their seats for the Friday program.

More than 8,000 applications have been mailed and orders are now being taken at the athletic ticket office at McArthur Court, Eugene. Reserved seats are $1.80 each. General admission at $1.20 each will not begin until the day of the finals and the student ticket price has been set at 60 cents.
