

Oregon Daily

EMERALD

Fifty-third year of Publication

Volume LIII

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, EUGENE, SATURDAY, MAY 10, 1952

NUMBER 120

EXCITEMENT of Junior Weekend festivities is reflected in the happy smile of the freshman girl (inset) enjoying the Order of the "O" dunking festivities on the Mill Race Friday noon. Jo Martin, top center, was crowned Junior Weekend Queen at Friday night's prom at the Student Union. Her court, from left to right, includes Princesses Barbara Booth, Nannette Silverthorne, Pat Johnson, and Joan Renner. Pictured below the court on the left is the Thursday afternoon Terrace Dance at the Student Union. The Union brought out its new "sidewalk cafe" tables for the event. Clockwise from the Terrace Dance is a picture of Pi Phi and Phi Delta freshman, policing the Student Union lawn during the Campus Clean-up. Next picture shows Delts George Weir, Ken Sipe, and Dan Stachniewiecz working on their "Circus Daze" float for the Saturday parade. The picture below that shows Princess Patricia Johnson, her escort John Kerns, and Princess Joan Renner, with her escort Chalmer Pond, enjoying the Terrace Dance. The bottom right shows the dunking of Weekend tradition violators. The next picture, continuing clockwise, shows Mike Lally, Junior Weekend general chairman, Francis Gillmore, Carolyn Silva, and John Talbot, prom co-chairman, at the prom. Next picture records the mayhem following the tug-of-war Friday afternoon. Above that is a group of dancers at the Student Union ballroom during the prom.