Pi Phi, Sig Eps Win First Place Honors in All-Campus Sing

Pi Beta Phi, singing "Dear Hearts and Gentle People," and Sigma Phi Epsilon, with "Poor Pierrot," won first place awards in Saturday night's 12th annual All-Campus Sing—"Sandman's Serenade."

The Pi Phi's, dressed in red skirts, white peasant blouses and with red ribbons in their hair, were led by Carol Dwyer. Bob Gray conducted the Sig Ep group.

Placing second in the Sing were Chi Omega, led by Joanne Abel and singing "My Child Is Gone," and Sigma Alpha Epsilon, last year's men's winner, singing "Foggy, Foggy Dew" under the direction of Don Parr.

Third place winners were Delta Gamma with "Children's Prayer" and led by Dorothy Carlson, and Minturn-Hunter halls, singing "Mom" and led by Charlie Oyama.

Summers Gets Another

Bob Summers, incoming sophomore class president, was awarded the $150 William Frager Skull and Dagger Scholarship during Sing intermission. The presentation was made by John Beal, president of Skull and Dagger, sophomore men's honorary, which, with Samuel Frager, makes the award available. Summers was named the outstanding underclassman Thursday by Alpha Phi Omega, national service honorary, and tapped for Skull and Dagger later Saturday night.

Scholarships given each year by Delta Delta Delta went to Mitzi Asai and Dorothy Govig. Miss Asai, a sophomore in liberal arts, won a $350 award. Miss Govig, a junior in music, was awarded a $250 scholarship.

The Hazel P. Schwering Scholarship, presented by Mrs. Perrie Dolph, was given to Georgianna Mills, junior in political science.

Alpha Delta Pi and Phi Delta Theta won Mother's Day awards for having the highest percentage of moms registered for Junior Weekend.

The scroll for the outstanding professor of the year was presented to E. G. Ebbighausen, associate professor of physics, faculty member on the ASUO senate and former chairman of the honor code committee, by Friars, senior men's honorary.

Turner Wins Award

Fred Turner, junior in pre-medical, capped a big day by winning the Maurice Harold Hunter tuition Scholarship and plaque engraving in the Student Union browsing room awarded each year to a junior outstanding in leadership. Saturday noon Turner was tapped for Asklepiads, pre-med honorary, and Friars, senior men's honorary. The award was presented by Frederick M. Hunter, father of Maurice Hunter, who died in World War II.

Tau Kappa Epsilon won the Josephine Evans Harpham cup for the living organization with the most outstanding house library. Carl Hintz, University librarian, in making the award commented, "Congratulations for showing that men can read as well as women." Last year three women's houses were judged tops in the library contest. Only one award was made this year.

Orides, Gamma Get B.B.B.

The Burt Brown Barker Scholarship cups went to Orides, organization of Eugene women, and Gamma hall. The award is given annually for the men and women's living organizations with the highest GPA for the year. Gamma hall maintained a 2.65 GPA for the year.

Orides won the women's cup for the third consecutive time and will now retain it permanently. The group's GPA for the year was 2.95.

Bill Carey, ASUO president, delivered a short farewell speech while the Sing audience waited for the judges' decisions. Carey, who will leave for an officers training course at Fort Benning, Ga., at the end of the week, said that the office of ASUO president had provided him with a "warehouse of memories." He said that the "greatest honor I have ever received was to be elected president of this great student body" and complimented Oregon students on their enthusiasm, helpfulness and achievements.

Campbell Club, Tri-Delt Tops in Float Parade

"Me and My Teddy Bear"—Junior Weekend float of Campbell Club and Delta Delta Delta—took first place in the float parade contest Saturday.

Second place award was won by "Little Toot"—float of Hendricks hall, Tau Kappa Epsilon, Sherry Ross—Omega halls, and Nestor hall; and third place went to Alpha Chi Omega and Delta Tau Delta's "Circus Daze".

The winning float consisted of a huge excelsior teddy bear with rolling eyes, and had a coed portraying a child in the teddy bear's lap, while a record played "Me and My Teddy Bear". Three more co-eds walked in front of the float, one carrying a small teddy bear, flanked by two candle-bearers.

"Little Toot" had a tugboat with the race of that cartoon character on the front, and a ship in the back. "Passengers" peered from out of the portholes of the ship, which was painted dominantly black.

'Ike' Wins Second Nomination, This Time at Willamette U.

Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower won his second Republican presidential nomination in as many weeks—this time at the Willamette mock Republican convention in Salem Saturday, following his victory here last week.

Eisenhower captured the nomination on the fifth ballot, piling up 697 votes to 489 for Gov. Earl Warren of California, reported Tom Barry, chairman of the University of Oregon delegation. Harold Stassen, he said, was named vice-president on the second ballot.

Eisenhower and Sen. Robert A. Taft battled it out through the first three ballots, Barry explained, with Harold Stassen's campaign manager supporting the general after the second vote.

Following the third ballot, Barry said, Taft's manager urged the Ohio senator's supporters to back Gov. Warren, the shift giving Warren 526 votes in the fourth round. Taft's support fell to 95 and finally 15 votes.

The University's 27 delegates represented three states—Michigan with 46 delegates, Illinois with 60 and Wisconsin with 30. Dick

Tuesday Hoffman, Kefauver Coming; Thursday, Stassen

The West's most prominent candidate for the Republican nomination for president since Herbert Hoover in 1928 and 1932 will be the speaker in today's 1 p.m. assembly.

He is Gov. Earl Warren of California, who will be one of four campaign speakers this week when he gives his address in the Student Union ballroom.

Paul Hoffman, former head of the Economic Cooperation association, now on leave from the Ford Foundation, will speak at 4 p.m. Tuesday in the SU ballroom. He is campaigning for Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower for the GOP nod. At 8 p.m. the same day in the ballroom, Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee, seeking the Democratic presidential nomination, will speak.

Warren to Arrive at Noon

Warren will arrive at the airport at noon with a party of 14, including his wife, one of his daughters—Nina "Honeybear" Warren, and newspaper, newsreel and television men.

He will be met by an official delegation from the University, including students led by John Tonack, president of campus Young Republicans. Tonack has urged interested students to turn out for the welcoming.

Warren will have a police escort into town—to the Student Union. He will have lunch, and then talk at 1 p.m. His address will be followed by a question period, and he will leave for Bend at about 3 p.m.

At 8 p.m. Thursday in 207 Chapman, University of Pennsylvania President Harold Stassen, also seeking the Republican nomination, will give an address. His talk is slated for Chapman because of a previously scheduled concert in the ballroom.

Warren has emphasized that he is after the GOP nomination, and will not be a candidate for vice-president, nor a "stalking-horse" for Eisenhower (a temporary candidate to draw votes from Warren supporters for Ike). However, Warren has indicated approval of Eisenhower in the past, and in the Wisconsin primary, Warren backers promised support for Eisenhower by delegates elected for Warren.

Ran for Veep in '48

Elected governor of California in 1938 and re-elected in 1944 and 1950 (In 1944 he received both the Republican and Democratic nominations), Warren was the GOP candidate for vice-president of the United States in the 1948 campaign.

Warren got his political start as

Oregon Athletes Win Two Titles, May Get Third

Two University of Oregon athletic teams won Northern Division Pacific Coast conference championships Saturday, while another drew closer to a possible title.

A six-foot, eight-inch high jumper Oregon's Emery Barnes shattered a Bell field, Corvallis, record as the Ducks downed Oregon State, 74 2/3 to 56 1/3, for their fourth straight dual victory. It marked the second time in three years that Coach Bill Bowerman's teams have finished first in dual meet competition.

Oregon's golf team walloped the University of Washington linksters, 14 1/2 to 3 1/2, at Seattle's Inglewood course for the other title. Don Krieger shot a two under par 71 for the Ducks.

The Webfoot baseball team opens a two-game series today with Washington in Seattle. Undeclared in their current road swing, the Webfoots have a one-half game lead over Oregon State in a two-team race. Oregon has won seven and lost two, the Beavers eight and four.

Ridderbusch Attempts to Stay ASUO Installation by Filing Motion

A motion for an injunction which would prevent the installation of new ASUO officers, scheduled for the ASUO banquet Wednesday night, will be made today by Bob Ridderbusch, through his law school counsels Francis Linklater and Fred Risser.

The motion, according to Risser, will have the effect of asking the constitutional committee to issue an order to stop the installation. The committee itself, he said, would have to decide whether or not to issue it on receipt of the motion.

This will be the third petition Ridderbusch has presented to the committee, headed by K. J. O'Connell, professor of law.

Early last week he contested the election only to have Merv Hampton, ASUO vice-president and head of the election committee, and his counsels, law students John Sabin and Lester Pederson, move to have the petition dismissed on grounds that it was not signed under oath.

Then Thursday Ridderbusch presented a second petition—this time signed under oath—asking "that the ASUO student body election of April 30, 1952 be declared null and void and of no effect."

Constitution Not Followed

Given as reasons for having it called off were: that none of the seven polling booths remained open for the "entire period" specified by the ASUO constitution; that the names on the ballot were not in the order decided on by the ASUO senate; that sophomore and junior class ballots did not appear in the Emerald as specified by the constitution; and that "innumerable irregularities" occurred at the Skinner's Butte and Amazon polling areas.

But unless the injunction is
