

Chekov Play Opens May 23; Beverly Brunton Gets Lead On Popper Book

"The Seagull" by Anton Chekov will be the University Theater's last production of the year. The play will run May 23, 24, 28, 29 and June 4 and 5.

Tickets may be obtained after

Monday at the theater box office from 1 to 5 p.m. Tickets for "Seagull" performances will be $1.

"The Seagull" is one of the Russian dramatist's most prominent plays. Chekov, famous modern playwright who died in 1904, is also the author of "The Cherry Orchard" and "The Three Sisters."

Playing the leads of the Russian characters in "Seagull" are Beverly Brunton, junior in speech; Mike Hemingway, sophomore in speech; Donn Doak, senior in speech; Sandra Price, sophomore in liberal arts, and Myron Campbell, senior in speech.

The play is built around the life of the upper-middle class in Russia during the days before the Revolution. The story is set on the country estate of a famous Russian actress with many successes behind her, named Arcadina and played by Miss Brunton. Miss Brunton appeared before University Theater audiences in the title role of "The Madwoman of Chailot" earlier this season.

The part of Trigorin, a well-known author, is played by Donn Doak, who had leading roles in both "Goodbye My Fancy" and "Mary of Scotland" last year.

Mike Hemingway, remembered for his past role as Sir James Fenton in "Petticoat Fever", appears in "The Seagull" as Trepleff, the son of Arcadina who wants to be a writer.

Another star of "Petticoat Fever", Sandra Price, will play Nina, a neighbor girl, in "Seagull". Myron Campbell plays Pyotr, brother of Arcadina.

Others in the four act play cast include: Leonard Kirchevsky, Joanne Forbes, Susanne Perry, Ben Padrow, Glen Mazon, Thomas White, Donald Picker, Diane David and Carol Charles who take the parts of a doctor, schoolmaster, laborer, cook, maids and members of Russian families in the play.

"The Seagull" was one of the first plays to achieve great success in the Moscow Art theater where it was produced in 1898. It was produced in the United States in 1938 by the Theatre Guild with Alfred Lunt and Lynn Fontaine in the starring roles. Also included in the original American cast were Sidney Greenstreet and Uta Hagen.

"Open Society and Its Enemies" by Karl Popper will be the topic of tonight's browsing room lecture in the Student Union at 7:30.

E. S. Wengert, head of the political science department, will conduct the lecture and Alburey Castell, head of the philosophy department, will lead the discussion.

This book has been described by its author as a critical introduction to the philosophy of society and politics. "Open Society and Its Enemies" has gone through three printings in England and was the subject of a special seminar at Oxford.

Wengert came to Oregon in 1948 from the University of Wisconsin, where he received his AB, Ph.D. and LL.D. He has also taught at Wisconsin.

He is secretary for the Society for Public Administration, a member of O & C advisory board, Eugene district and vice-president of the Northwest Political Science association.

'Campus Workshop' Friday to Present Student Music, Art and Literature

The "Campus Workshop," a program of student drama, music and literature, will be held at 8 p.m. Friday in the Student Union ballroom.

Faber De Chaine, senior in speech, will be master of ceremonies for the program which is under the sponsorship of the SU browsing room committee.

The program will include original student work in musical compositions and songs, poems, a play and a movie.

Student Art Exhibit

Preceding and following the ballroom program, a student art exhibit will be held in the SU art gallery and in the browsing room.

A silent movie parody of "Hamlet," directed and filmed by Jim Blue, senior in liberal arts, will be the featured novelty presentation of the evening. Thirty minutes in length, the film was made on campus and stars Al Barzman, Lois Williams, Martha Stapleton and Bob Chambers.

'Two on the Fifty'

"Two on the Fifty," a stage play written by DeChaine and Gerald Pearce, will be presented also. The one act comedy on the "football alum" features Gordon Howard, Betsy Thayer, Chambers, Barzman, Bill Delgard and Jim Albertson.

A newly copyrighted song, "My Vagabond Heart," written by two Oregon students will be sung by Gordon Green, junior in business. Music was written by Dick Ramsdell, senior in music, and the lyrics are by Bunny Philbrick, senior in speech. "Do I Dare Say I Love You," another song by the pair, will also be sung by Green and a song by John Epley, senior in general science, "My Woman Won't Let Me Go," will also be presented.

The program will also include a modern dance by Fred Sausville and Emery Hermans, a short story and several poems and musical numbers. Titles of these last items will be announced later.

The program is being presented as part of the browsing room committee's annual creative arts program.

Orville Colver is general chairman of the program. Committee members include Lloyd Hanson, stage show; Pearce, drama; Marilyn Patterson, production; Catherine Black and Dave Barney, literature; and Roscoe Wright and Nona Silva, publicity.

Onthank Advises Students Going In Service Soon

Men — are you worried about what you will do when you get out of the service?

The graduate placement service, Emerald hall, has a solution to your troubles. Karl Onthank, director, says that graduates should regard their time spent in the armed services as only "time out" from their civilian career, and should make suitable contacts before they leave and plans to keep in touch with these contacts while in the service.

Many employers, faculty members and business firms agree that men going into the service should in general, look for suitable employment pretty much as usual, he said. Most firms are interested in them even though they may soon leave for service, and will give them training and experience while they are available and welcome them back from service later, Onthank explained.

He said that men going into the service should proceed just as they would if they were going to be available for jobs now. They should register and leave their credentials in the graduate placement office so that the office can help them most effectively now and later, and particularly so that they will have opportunities waiting for them when their time in the service is completed, he asserted.

Tourney to Decide Best Bridge Player

The spring term Student Union bridge tourney will begin tonight at 7 in the SU. All interested bridge players are invited to compete, Tournament Organizer Gunning Butler said.

Sponsored by the SU recreation committee, this current tournament is following last term's national bridge competition in the SU, but will only decide the best bridge player on campus.

"If you are interested in bridge and if you also enjoy good-hearted competition, you should show up tonight," said Butler, junior in psychology.

NAME

ADDRESS

GEORGE W. HALL

Editor Myrtle Point Herald, Myrtle Point, Oregon
Candidate for

Delegate to Republican National Convention

Fourth Congressional District

REPUBLICANS: 1952 is OUR LAST CHANCE to rescue our country from the depredations of socialistic "deals" and return this nation to the principles of Constitutional Government.

Harry Truman has announced that he will not be a candidate—yet, in the next breath, he attempted to dictate what the people should do, viz: "I want Democratic senators, representatives and governors elected . . . I will be IN THERE just the same as if I were the nominee . . ." In other words, he will attempt to dictate the "Democratic" nominee, ignoring the voice of the people at the primaries—primaries are "eye-wash" to Harry—he said so himself.

REPUBLICANS: Let's nominate two great patriotic leaders who have the courage and ability to dash the "fair" deal's accusations back into their faces and, at the same time present a program of unadulterated Americanism that will stop deficit-spending, lower vicious tax burden, revitalize and encourage private enterprise—the backbone of America's greatness—that new payrolls might be created and thus perpetuate the high standard of living enjoyed by America's working people. Leaders who WILL NOT send our boys into Unconstitutional "police actions" to fight and die simply to continue a false war economy that the nation might revel in a war-boom prosperity.

It's high time that young men of America again have their God-given, Constitutional right to chart their own careers, rather than have those careers blasted by war, more war and idiotic "police actions." I FAVOR GENERAL EISENHOWER.

In my 35 years of newspaper experience this is my first attempt to seek political office. Should the Republicans of this district honor me to represent them at the convention, I pledge myself to abide wholly by the will of the Republican voters of Oregon. One major trouble in our country today is having politicians who pledge themselves to the people and then "go their own selfish way," ignoring the voice of the people. I will cooperate with the Oregon Delegation at the convention—so long as that delegation "hues-to-the-line" as instructed by the Republican voters at the Primary. I will not be caucused into changing my vote, unless there is no other alternative.

Education?—Graduate from College of Hard Knocks, U. S. A.

Sponsored by None — Pledged only to The People

I am a Methodist, a Master Mason, an Odd Fellow and have carried a Union Card for 25 years. A life-long Republican.

YOUR VOTE WILL BE APPRECIATED. My name, number and slogan on the ballot will be:

9
