the best corsage—girls providing their dates with an original creation.

Mortar Board's search for Oregon's Least Man on Campus is continuing, with 10 finalists to be chosen at 4 p.m. Tuesday in the Student Union. Men's living organizations are to choose a candidate and turn his name in to Jeanne Hoffman, Kappa Alpha Theta, or Joanne Hewitt, Delta Delta Delta, by Monday night. The winner will be elected the night of the Ball.

Qualifications for LMOC include: (1.) lack of campus interest, (2.) lack of cooperation, (3.) least class attendance, (4.) biggest picnic-goer.

Religious Notes

Compiled by Tom Shepherd

With the return of spring-like weather, many religious groups have planned picnics, parties, beach and mountain trips for the weekend.

Wesley Foundation

It's party time tonight at Wesley house, 1326 Kincaid. The major spring term get-together will be under the direction of Dave Seaman, foundation director. All University students are invited to share in the evening of games, contests, students, square dancing, social dancing, treasure hunts, and food. Campus clothes are in order. Graduating seniors will be honored at the 3 p.m. Sunday senior picnic at Armitage park. Wesleyans will meet at Wesley house at 3 p.m. and will go from there to the park. Raoul Maddox and Tudy Adams are in charge.

Nigerian student Godfrey Ibom will be the guest speaker at the 5:30 p.m. Tuesday pot-luck dinner. All University students are invited to sign-up for the dinner. Students desiring to attend Wesley's annual planning retreat held this spring at Suttle lake, May 30 to June 1, are asked to make reservations as soon as possible at the foundation office.

Gamma Delta

The regional newspaper will be published by members of Gamma Delta, Lutheran student group at 4 p.m. Friday in their club room at 1343 Mill st.

Lutheran Students

"Christ on the job" is the theme of the talk to be given by Anthony Triolo at 6:15 p.m. following the 5:30 p.m. Sunday supper. All interested University students are invited to the talk which is in the organization house at 1376 Alder st.

Christian House

Christian House will hold its annual retreat and planning conference at Chapel-by-the-Sea at Nelscott this weekend. Cars leave Christian House at 4 p.m. today and will return Sunday.

Inspirational speaker for the conference is the Rev. William Terbeek, director of Corvallis Christian House. General chairman for the outing is Bob Randall. Margaret McCulloch is in charge of food; Pat Hartley, Mary Peterson and Wah Chun, program; and Dean Hinson, programs.

Those who cannot leave today will leave Christian House at 9 a.m. Saturday, under the direction of Ralph Adams.

There will be an informal discussion at 5:30 p.m. Sunday at Christian House, with Jack Merner, former secretary of the University YMCA, in charge. Topic for discussion will be "How Can Our Student Centers Function More Effectively on the University Campus?"

International Tea Hour will be held at 4 p.m. Tuesday. Executive council will be at 4 p.m. Wednesday, followed by a potluck dinner. Those who bring food should bring either salad or dessert; others bring fifty cents. Reservations should be made by calling Christian House, 5-3491.

Westminster House

A hayride and barn dance will be held by Westminster Foundation tonight. All attending are asked to meet at Westminster Foundation at 7 p.m.

There will be a 9:30 a.m. Bible study on the Book of Acts Sunday, and at 6:15 p.m. students may meet at the Foundation for a vesper service to be held at Washburn Park with Beverly Goheen and Barbara Fulton in charge.

The social education and action study group will meet at 7 p.m. Tuesday at the Foundation to discuss John C. Bennett's book, "Christianity and Communism."

A fellowship supper will be held at 5:30 p.m. Wednesday at Wesley Foundation.

Canterbury Club

A snack supper, evening prayer and discussion period are planned by the Episcopal group at 5:30 p.m. Sunday in the parish hall.

All University Episcopal students have been invited to attend the Celebration of the Holy Communion held at 7 a.m. Wednesday in Gerlinger hall. Next week's service will be in recognition of Ascension day, one of the four great feasts of the Christian year.

Newman Club

Medical ethics will be discussed by the Rev. Alfred A. Williams, chaplain of Portland St. Vincent's hospital, at the Newman club meeting at 7 p.m. Sunday in the Student Union.

The Catholic priest will discuss ethics as it pertains to gynecology, childbirth, the use of narcotics, hypnosis, sterilization and other medical subjects.

Following his talk there will be open discussion. The meeting will be open to the public.

Bob Funk Wins $25 Poetry Prize

Bob Funk, senior in English, has been awarded the $25 Julia Burgess Poetry prize for a poem entitled "The Bright Planets."

A second prize of $10 was awarded Woodruff Wood, senior in architecture and allied arts.

Judges for the contest were T. F. Mundle, assistant professor of English; John Sherwood, assistant professor of English; and S. N. Karchmer, instructor in English.

Funk is this year's editor of the Oregonian and an Emerald columnist.

Campus 'Ladies' Snowball Tonight To YWCA Party on Howe Field

The YWCA sponsored "Ladies Night Out" party will begin at 5:30 p.m. today on Howe field, with members of women's living organizations "snowballing" from the various corners of the campus.

Tickets for the event, a money raising project for the YWCA, are on sale in living organizations for 15 cents. They will also be available at the field entrance.

Fun Night for Women

The party, designed to be a combined fun night for all campus women, is completely informal. General Chairman Helen Wright announced. The "get-together" entertainment will be spontaneous, she said. Softball will be available and bridge will be played.

Women attending are to bring sack lunches and ice cream will be sold. Coke will be furnished by the Y.

Orides Meet at Gerlinger
Orides, off-campus women's group, have asked that off-campus women attending the event meet at Gerlinger and proceed from there to the field. The complete schedule of the groupings for the snowball gatherings may be found in Thursday's Emerald.

In case of rain, the event is planned for Gerlinger annex.

Living organizations may be "creative" in what costumes they might choose to wear. Miss Wright said. Pedal pushers and jeans may be worn.

Two Music Majors Plan Joint Recital

Patricia Hartley and Anna Marie Blickenstaff, juniors in music, will present a joint junior recital Sunday at 4 p.m. in the music school auditorium. Miss Hartley will sing and Miss Blickenstaff will present several cornet solos.

Miss Hartley, a piano major, is a member of University Singers and Miss Blickenstaff, a piano major, plays the organ and is a member of the University Symphony orchestra.

Their program will include numbers by Bach, Beethoven, Brahms, Debussy, and Handel. A portion of the "Messiah" will be sung by Miss Hartley.
