The show is in three parts—the 1890's, the 1920's, and the 1950's—and reviews the field of entertainment during these periods. A chorus line introduces each sequence. Al Barzman and Bob Chambers are masters of ceremonies.

The show was presented at Oregon State earlier this term.

HOW MANY INDIANS MAKE A RESERVATION?

OR

Whose Aching Back, Did You Say?

Once there was a Sophomore who was planning a Whale of a Weekend in New York.

Being a Man of Some Foresight, he carefully packed his copy of "New York Confidential," his compilation of Terrific Manhattan Numbers, and his list of Solvent Alumni in the Big City. Likewise 1 clean shirt, 1 toothbrush, 1 razor and 1 package of Sen-Sen. He was Ready.

Just then his roommate came up with a Tip for the Traveler. "Hey!" he said. "have you wired ahead for your Hotel Reservation?"

Our Hero guffawed. "Don't be dull," he answered. "I'll make up my mind where I want to stay when I get there. New York is Full of hotels."

He was right. New York is full of hotels. On this particular weekend, however, it was also full of people. Political convention.

Oh, he's all right again now. Two nights on a bench in Central Park never killed anyone. Only thing that bothered him was the squirrels. He thought they were looking at him Oddly.
