Campus Briefs...

Wednesday's educational movies in 207 Chapman will be "Pride and Prejudice" and two documentary films on the geography and people of the southeast and south-eastern United States. Two showings will be held, one at 7 p.m. and another at 9 p.m. There is no admission charge.

Male ushers are needed for the University Theater production of the "Seagull." Persons wishing to usher at tonight's performance or performances on Wednesday and Thursday of next week may apply at the box office of the theater any afternoon. Ushers may remain and see the performance at no charge after their work is done.

All women who petitioned for Duckling Counseling and who have not attended an instruction meeting have been requested to attend the final meeting, to be held next Tuesday in the Carson hall living room at 6:15 p.m.

Tickets may still be obtained for the four remaining performances of the University theatre production of Chekov's play, "The Seagull." The play will be presented Wednesday and Thursday of this week, and June 4 and 5 next week. Tickets are $1 and are on sale at the theatre box office from 1 to 5 p.m. daily. Some seats are available for Wednesday and Thursday and excellent seats are still open for June, according to Mrs. Gene Wiley, business manager. Frederick J. Hunter, instructor in speech, directs the play.

The teacher placement office has requested that all prospective teachers have their chest X-rays taken immediately at the infirmary for the placement office records. The last day X-rays will be given is May 29, but students are asked by the placement office to get them earlier than that date if possible.

Marshall Stone, visiting mathematician from the University of Chicago, will speak in 123 Science building today at 4:15 (DST) on "Convex Sets." Stone is the son of the late Harlan Fisk Stone who was Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court.

University women who have participated in campus activities this school year will be honored at a recognition dessert June 4, sponsored by the Associated Women's students.

University Episcopal students will hold a celebration of the Holy Communion at 7 a.m. Wednesday in Gerlinger hall. Following a light breakfast, new officers of Canterbury club, Episcopal youth group, will be elected.

Graduating seniors may come in to the alumni office now and obtain their commencement instructions, tickets and other information according to Les Anderson, alumni secretary. The office will remain open until the day of commencement.

Picnic Scheduled By Campus YMCA

An inter-denominational picnic sponsored by the YWCA will be held at 3 p.m. Sunday at Armitage park. All student religious groups are invited to attend, the YMCA said.

Those wishing transportation should meet at the YWCA headquarters in Gerlinger at 3 p.m. Softball will be played during the afternoon and a picnic supper will be served at 6:15 p.m. A charge of 25 cents will be made of those attending.

Wesley Foundation is handling the program. Charles Howard, professor of law, will be the main speaker. Westminster house is making arrangements and the YWCA is providing the food.

Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests

No. 42...
THE PORCUPINE

He's listened to the weak thread of so many shallow claims he's fed-up! His point is—there's a thorough test of cigarette mildness. Millions of smokers throughout America concur.

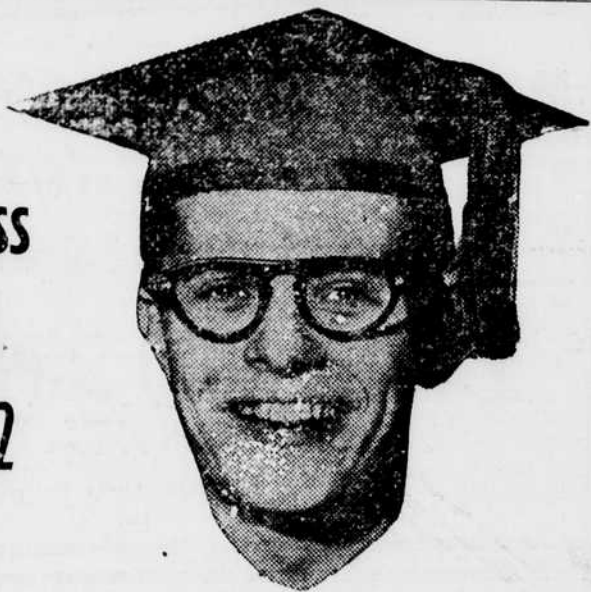

It's the sensible test...the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test, which simply asks you to try Camels as your steady smoke—on a day-after-day, pack-after-pack basis. No snap judgments! Once you've tried Camels in your "T-Zone" (T for Throat, T for Taste) you'll see why...

After all the Mildness Tests...
