

He's Not a 'Red' at All....

There's a true story making the rounds about UCLA's head Football coach, Henry (Red) Sanders. It seems that Red's not red at all. In fact, he never was. The name, which was pinned on him in his childhood by an uncle, has nothing to do with the color of his hair, which is iron grey.

To satisfy all kinds of needs, America's nail producers make more than 100 different types of iron and steel nails.

A hopeful squad of 37 Oregon footballers boarded a bus for Portland this morning and will fly to Los Angeles for the season opener with the powerful UCLA Bruins. This Saturday at 2 p.m. in the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum the Webfoots will get their first taste of battle.

The Bruins, coached by Red Sanders, are rated strong Rose Bowl contenders and have been installed as 20 point favorites. Paul Cameron, swivel-hipped junior tailback, will be the big gun in the UCLA single-wing attack. Six-foot-five inch end Ernie Stockert, an all-American candidate, will be the principle target for Cameron's deadly passing.

Oh, Brother!

On defense, the boys in powder blue have another all-American candidate in Donn Moomaw, 220 pound linebacker. The student rooting section has a special yell for the Santa Ana giant sounding something like 'Mooooo-Mah!'

Scouting Assignments

Vern Sterling and Bill Bowerman will scout Idaho in its opener against Washington in Seattle. Mike DeLotto is assigned the South Dakota-Nebraska match in Lincoln, Nebr.

and Line Coach Vern Sterling) is the fact that Sanders is considered one of the nation's top defensive experts. Last year UCLA was the only team to hold Oregon scoreless. It was Sanders who devised the defense for the college all-stars that was credited with holding the Los Angeles Rams to only one touchdown in the game at Chicago this summer.

Oregon, although a little more experienced than last year, is still a green team, Casanova said. Due to many changes in the line, most of the positions are new to players. The loss of Dick Patrick, Mike Sikora, Don McCauley and Lou Kolias, mainstays of last season's line, made vacancies without adequate replacements.

Novikoff and Hodges

The principle loss in the backfield was that of scat-back Tommy Edwards. Otherwise the backfield is pretty well intact with good strength at the fullback position in Tom Novikoff and Cece Hodges.

In yesterday's two hour drill the team worked on offense, defense, punting, and placement kicks. The "UCLA" team with Barney Holland at tailback scored three touchdowns against the defense, all on passes to Don Sloan and Chuck Greenley. Tom Novikoff got off several nice punts and Emerson Harvey split the goal posts with point - after - touchdown attempts.

The Webfoots will make their Los Angeles debut sporting new traveling uniforms. A lightweight "breakaway" jersey will be worn with gold moleskin pants replacing the white one's of last year. The new jersey will have the green numerals painted on instead of sewn and are designed to tear away in the grasp of an opposing

No Schedule!

Due to a scarcity of space, the Emerald is unable to print the 1952 Pacific Coast conference football schedule as promised. Watch for it next week.

Touch Football Gets First Call

University of Oregon's 1952-53 intra-mural sports program is tentatively set to begin Monday, Sept. 29 when the first touch-football games of the season will be played.

Gene Evonuk, in charge of the program, announced that the meeting of intra-mural managers, originally scheduled for Friday, Sept. 26, has been switched to Thursday, Sept. 25 so as to avoid a possible conflict with the University of Nebraska-Oregon football game in Portland. Time and place for the meeting is 4:00 p.m. in the Men's physical education building.

Also on the 1952-53 schedule for fall term is a two-league schedule of volleyball, "A" and "B." If a hall, house or co-op enters more than one team, "A" members may not play on "B" teams. In the case that there are more than five "B" teams, a tournament will be held.

The deadline for team entries is at 3:00 p.m. Tuesday.

Tickets Available

Reserved seat student tickets for the Oregon-Oregon State football game in Multnomah stadium, Portland, Nov. 22, are now on sale at McArthur court.

Howard Lemons, athletic business manager, said that the tickets are for sections A, B and C which are on or near the 50-yard line. The ducats, nearly 1,500 of them, sell for $2.50 a piece and on a first come, first served basis.

Tickets for the Washington-Oregon game in Seattle, Oct. 18 may also be purchased at the business office.
