Attendance High At Frosh Picnic

Over 1000 freshmen and new students attended the picnic held Wednesday evening on the quadrangle in front of John Straub.

Roast beef sandwiches, salad, potato chips, cookies, ice cream and fruit juice were served by members of Kwama, Skull and Dagger and Phi Theta Upsilon, sophomore women's, sophomore men's and junior women's honoraries.

Entertainment was furnished by John Jensen and Ed Kenney. Bob Glass was master of ceremonies.

Regular Publication To Begin Tuesday

The Emerald will begin regular publication on Tuesday. The regular publication dates will be Tuesday through Friday. There will be special editions during the year which will be announced in the paper.

SU Open House Tonight to Feature Musical Program

Student Union open house will be held tonight from 2 to 7 p.m. in the fish bowl and on the 2nd floor of the SU. Gordon Badgley will act as master of ceremonies.

Program will feature Beatrice Kay impersonations by Winnie May, the Fiji Trio with instrumentals and songs, Mike Lally, Bob Wheelless and Armand Smith; songs by Ed Kenney and jazz piano selections by Jim Havener, according to Dorothy Anderson, music chairman in charge of fish bowl entertainment.

Sponsored by the SU board and the directorate, the open house is designed to acquaint both old and new students with information on SU activities with emphasis on the actual program.

Jim Blue will show his rendition of "Hamlet" on the 2nd floor from 8 to 8:45 p.m. Ann McLaughlin, movie chairman, will assist in the showings.

Free coffee will be served during open house. Petitions will be available for students who wish membership on the SU program staff.
