New Coeds Invited To 'Y' Open House Today in Gerlinger

Freshmen "l'il ducklings", upperclass transfers and foreign student coeds will be guests at the YWCA open house in Gerlinger hall from 3 to 5 p.m. today.

Refreshments will be served during the afternoon and Y officers will be available to meet the new university women and explain the Y program for the year. Displays of Y work are planned for the lobby.

Upperclass duckling counselors should contact their little sisters before the open house and bring them to the Y. Freshmen, transfers and foreign students should come for the open house, however, whether accompanied by big sisters or not.

Campus clothes are in order for the affair. Chairmen for the open house are Ann Blackwell and Bobbette Gilmore.

The YWCA freshman program has undergone an extensive revision for this year, as outlined by Mary Alice Baker, YW second vice president in charge of the freshmen commissions.

The new program is designed to give freshmen women an opportunity to work more in the various program areas of the Y as it relates to the national program.

Former commissions—arts and crafts, music, drama and service—have been changed to religion and worship, service, international affairs and public affairs and will work closely with the upper class committees.

Law School Deadline Set for October 25

Students who will be taking the law school admission test on November 15 should pick up their application blanks before October 25 in room 201, Emerald hall.

A $10.00 fee will be charged all applicants for the three and one half hour aptitude test.

At Zeta Tau Alpha

Virginia Simons and Robert Fries took the wedding vows at St. Mary's Episcopal church in Eugene this summer. Their reception was held at the ZTA house. Jo Anne Kirkham married Gene Sutherland, OSC, at the First Lutheran church in Springfield. Roberta Childers became Mrs. William Glass in a ceremony at her home in Hood River. The pinning of Connie Young to Roy Mason, Chi Phi from Oregon State, was announced recently. The basement recreation room at the ZTA house has been redecorated—aqua, cherry and tan plaid drapes set the color scheme.

At Theta Chi

Ken Warren was married to Tri-Delt Karen Jacobson this summer and Bill Bauer to Gloria Lee, ADPi. Ron Clark announced his pinning to Dewanda Hamilton, Kappa.

News of the less amorous note is highlighted with the return of Waldo to the campus after his summer vacation at Ontario, and the settling of the house on its foundation once again after the departure of the football team, which stayed at the house through pre-season practice.

At Sigma Kappa

Marriages during the summer months include those of Donna Jean Meier to Jim Hart, PiKA; Elaine Remple to Ken Sipe, Delt; Roberta McCullough to Jack Sharer; and Nancy Ann Yates to Harold Neufeld, TKE. The engagement of Barbara Tescher to Jim Stevens, Oregon graduate last spring, was announced recently.

At SAE

The summer took its annual toll of S.A.E.'s from the Oregon campus via both the military and marriage routes. Shan Trebbe, Hal Davis and Ted Cash are fighting the battle of Pensacola with the Naval Air Cadets, while Sid Mills is in the army at Camp Roberts, California. Larry Wolfe plans to take the wedding vows on Oct. 3. Ray Karnofski is now engaged to Jean Lawrence, Theta at OSC.

Tom Moss announced his pinning to Ann Bankhead, Theta. Last weekend Punky Franciscovich pinned Mary Pat Lamoure of Portland. The SAE's have planned their first serenade of the year for Carson Hall this Saturday night.

At Pi Kappa Phi

Election of officers was held last spring term with these results: John Crim, Archon; Paul Surprenant, House Manager; Dwaine Stoddard, Secretary; Jim Toner, Historian; Bob Duffy, Chaplain; and Jim Wood- en, Warden. The Pi Kaps have a new mascot this year to replace their first dog, which was stolen last year. Pi II is a golden cocker. Jim Toner married Gwendolyn Haines, of Eugene.

At Pi Beta Phi

Nine marriages, two engagements and eight pinnings equal the news from the Pi Phi house. Summer marriages include the following: Mimi Jones to Mike Haggerty, Kappa Sig; Jackie Lewis to Bob Barrett, ATO; Anne Henderson to Lyle Rogers, ATO; Davida Riddle to Bert Bergstrom, Phi Psi; Elizabeth Johnson to Alan Mann, Beta; Wilma Hamilton to Herb Lombard, Phi Delt; Barbara Zumalt to Keith Far- num, Phi Delt; Ann Gouge to Herm Lind, Fiji; and Ann Darby to Wes- ley Nicholson, Theta Chi.

Katherine Siegmund has announced her engagement to Larry Asch- enbrenner, Kappa Sig, and Janice McEwen is engaged to Bob Newburn. Pinnings include Margaret Dickey to Jim Miller, SAE; Janet Kreg- ness to Don Almy, Theta Chi; Annette Nosler to Buzz Sawyer, Beta from Willamette; pledge Janet Woods to Jim Livesay, Phi Delt; Sarah Turnbull to Ken Johnson, DU; Eileen Betchart to Bill Kirby, ATO; Barbara Booth to Tom Elliott, SAE; and Joan Kappel to Jack Hutch- ins, Beta.

At Phi Delta Theta

A combination basketball court and dance floor is the latest addition to the Phi Delt back yard. Construction plans also provide for an open air fire place and barbeque to be constructed this spring. Pi Phi under- classmen were intent on inscribing initials, etc., upon the wet cement, but alert Phi Delt sophomores put a damper on the plan. Senior Bud Covey announced his engagement to Barbara Borns of Portland. Walt Hinson pinned Ruth Corbett.

At Lambda Chi

The Lambda Chi fraternitly has moved from 618 East 11th Avenue to 650 East 11th this fall, with most of the students returning to school early to put the house in shape for the coming year. New closets and cupboards have been added and some of the woodwork repainted. The new house was purchased from H. Edmunds this summer. The furni- ture was moved into the house a week before school started.

At Gamma Phi Beta

Summer marriages have claimed four Gamma Phi's. Ann Hollenbeck was married to Robin Lamson, Sigma Chi; Hope Reilly to Tom Nordby, Kappa Sig; Valerie Theinman to Don Cobb, Sig Ep; and Dorothy Carr to Tommy Edwards, Sigma Chi. Engagements announced are as fol- lows: Tudy Adams to Sig Ep Raoul Maddox, Irene McLeod to Del Kleen, and Betsy Erb to Frank Bliss. Donna Krieske is wearing the Sigma Nu pin of Bill Hunter.

Welcomed into the house this year are two transfer students, Gail Harrison from OSC and Jackie Baker from the University of Idaho.

At Delta Gamma

Several DG's took long dreamed of vacations this summer. Sue Perry toured the continent and Dorothy Carlson visited New York. Mary Wil- son went on the co-ed tour to Hawaii and Mary Jane Leigh stayed at Jo Martin's home in San Francisco while attending summer session at the University of California. Nancy Morse studied at Connecticut Women's college.

Ann Cummings, a new DG pledge, is wearing the Fiji pin of Byron Tarr. Summer wedding bells rang for Joan Zener and Bonnie Van- netta; Marion Smith became Mrs. Doug Carter, Martha Stapleton mar- ried Peter Stadleman, and Bobby Jones is now the wife of Kelly Farris.
