Movies of the Oregon-Washington football game in Seattle will be shown tonight at 6:30 in the Student Union ballroom.

Oregana Selects Business Staff

Dolores Parrish, business manager for the Oregana, has announced her business staff for the coming year.

The staff members are Alan Oppiger, advertising manager; Jim Light, sales manager; Carol Lee Tate, promotion and publicity; Barbara Evonchuck, organizations manager; Marilyn Parrish, executive secretary, and Helen Wright, high school program director. Joan Walker is in charge of late Oregana sales.

What They Are Saying

Gov. Thomas Dewey of New York says that Truman doesn't dare let a clean, fresh administration get into Washington, "because treason is too great."

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt says Stevenson is, in her words, "better fitted" than Eisenhower to be president.

Republican vice-presidential nominee Richard Nixon says that Stevenson's Illinois record exposes him as what Nixon calls a weakling, a waster and a small caliber Truman.

Vice President Barkley has urged Floridians to endorse what he calls "the outstanding two decades of progress" by voting democratic.

Gov. Earl Warren of California has told a New Jersey audience that ten out of eleven western states have gone to republican administrations and no one has been let down.

The governor also said in the same speech that the same Democrats who wanted Eisenhower to head their 1948 ticket now belittle him as "a man on horseback."
