

Sigma Chi Selects Thirteen Frosh Semi-Finalists in Annual Contest

Thirteen freshman girls have been selected by the Sigma Chi fraternity as semi-finalists in the annual contest to select the Sweetheart of Sigma Chi for the coming year.

The candidates and the living organizations which they represent are as follows.

Margot Casanova, Chi Omega; Paula Curry, Kappa Alpha Theta; Carol Devilbliss, Alpha Phi; Patty Fagan, Pi Beta Phi; Sally Hannah, Alpha Omicron Pi.

Carole Hansen, Alpha Chi Omega; Edna Humiston, Gamma Phi Beta; Bev Jones, Carson five; Marilyn Lundell, Carson three.

Phyllis Mullin, Delta Zeta; Sally Phillips, Delta Gamma; "Dimpy" Spaulding, Kappa Kappa Gamma; Barbara Wilcox, Sigma Kappa.

The thirteen were selected after an informal fireside last Thursday night by a vote of the fraternity members. They were notified of their selection by telephone immediately after the votes were counted.

The candidates will be guests of Sigma Chi tonight at an informal get-together and dance. They will be escorted to and from the fraternity house by members of the fraternity.

Tonight's event opens the second week of the contest, which is scheduled for three weeks, and culminates on November 1, with the annual Sweetheart Ball.

The semi-finalists will attend

Thurston Named Business Head

Sally Thurston, junior in business, has been appointed Emerald business manager for the remainder of fall term. Miss Thurston was appointed Friday by the Publications board.

Miss Thurston replaces Jim Shea who resigned from the position recently because of the time and effort required for his graduate work in journalism and the effect of the job on his health. She has worked on the Emerald for two years and has held the position of advertising manager previous to her appointment.

lunch at the fraternity house on Wednesday, and on Thursday night a fireside has been scheduled. The girls will wear jeans.

Another vote will be held after the fireside on Thursday to determine the five finalists, and the five will be notified of their selection by means of a serenade on Saturday night.

Elections Stall Political Debate

(P)—Britain, France and some other nations have refused to make policy statements in the United Nations assembly on the grounds that they might be construed in the United States as interference in the presidential campaign.

As a result of their action the assembly has agreed to call off its general debate on political issues until after the presidential elections.

The U.S. delegation announced that it was submitting a proposal asking an investigation of Communist charges that the U.N. has waged germ warfare in Korea.

Two Murder Suspects Freed

(P)—The movie house operator held in connection with the robbery-massacre of a grocer and three children near Chester, Cal., was freed today. Louis Blair was released at Reno, Nev. after a lie detector test which officials called inconclusive.

At Quincy, Cal., another suspect was also released from custody Tuesday.

Tuesday Mrs. Christal Young, widow of the slain Guard Young, made this appeal to those responsible for the death of her husband and two children. "Put your faith in God and surrender," she said.

Commission to Give Exam for Assistants

The United States Civil Service commission has announced its annual examination for junior agricultural assistants. The jobs to be filled from this examination are agricultural economist, agricultural writer-editor, agronomist, animal husbandman, botanist, entomologist, fishery biologist, forester, geneticist, home economist, poultry husbandman, soil scientist, statistician, wildlife biologist and zoologist.

The beginning salary is $3,410 a year and the positions are in the Department of Agriculture and Department of the Interior in Washington, D.C. and throughout the country. A written test will be given, and education, or educations and experience, is required. Pertinent experience alone, in addition to the written test, may be qualifying for agricultural writer-editor. Students who expect to complete their courses by June 30, 1953 may apply.

Full information, including instruction on how to apply, may be obtained at the graduate placement service or from the head of the department where the appropriate courses are given. Applications must be filed by Oct. 21.

Grad Applicants Due for Interviews For Civil Positions

Representatives of a well-known government agency which is looking for a variety of people who will be leaving the campus this year, will visit the University within the next few weeks to interview applicants.

The positions, with full civil service benefits, are in the fields of economics, political science, social science, linguists of any level and language, journalists and writers for reporting and editing, and responsible secretaries. The latter openings can lead to work abroad.

Nisei, Japanese and Chinese, particularly if they know their native language, are also in demand.

Students who are interested in being interviewed should contact the graduate placement office in Emerald hall. Notifications of the date and time of the appointments will be sent out from that office.

JOB OPPORTUNITIES

W. Donald Fletcher, director of Coro Foundation, will be in the graduate placement office in Emerald hall at 10 a.m. today interviewing students interested in municipal affairs.

The foundation offers a nine-month program from October through June. The program is run on a full time professional basis, with a tuition charge of $500. The foundation grants each intern a subsistence scholarship of $1000 plus $125 for one dependent or $350 for two or more dependents.

Requirements for this field include good character, good health, leadership abilities and a definite interest in public affairs with a potential desire for a career in the field. In order to be interviewed a student must have a written evaluation of personal qualifications for this field, an analysis of a social-economic-political problem and a completed application blank.

For additional information and application blank, contact the graduate placement service.

FOR A LONG TIME we've suspected that today's college man would no longer "gladly die for dear old Siwash." Neither does he play ukuleles and sing "Alma Mater" at the drop of a beanie.

We believe, too, that when it comes to sportshirts the college man is no different from his older brother in town. He doesn't go for fads and screwball styles. But he does go for smartness, good workmanship ... and above all, value.

That is why we believe you'll like the new selection of sportshirts by Manhattan®. For they have all these qualities, plus a distinctive air that sets them above the ordinary shirt.

So ask for Manhattan ... the college man's sportshirt.

Amendment to ASUO Constitution

The ASUO Senate proposes to the Associated Students of the University of Oregon that:

Article VI, Section IV (Dates of Elections) be amended to change Freshman elections from after the first and prior to the fifth week of winter term, to after the fifth and prior to the eighth week of fall term except for the academic year 1952-1953 when the election shall be held after the fifth and prior to the tenth week of fall term.

- () YES, I vote to adopt the proposed amendment.
- () NO, I vote against the adoption of the proposed amendment.

As provided in Article 2, Clause 9 of the ASUO constitution, the Emerald is publishing "the sample ballot and voting instructions ... the two successive days prior to election".

The voting instructions, as listed by Helen Jackson Frye, ASUO vice-president and chairman of elections, are as follows:

1. Polling places will be located at:
 - a. East entrance of the library.
 - b. Front of the Co-op.
 - c. Front of Fenton hall on 13th.
 - d. Front of Student Union.
 - e. Carson hall
 - f. John Straub
2. Any student who presents his "Registration card" (student body card) and has his name on the poll book may vote.
3. One-third of the eligible voters must vote and two-thirds of those must mark the affirmative choice before the measure will pass.
4. Polls will be open from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 22.
5. This is a non-partisan issue and endorsed by the ASUO senate.
6. If the measure passes, freshman elections will be held Nov. 14 of this year and before the eighth week of fall term hereafter unless changed again by constitutional amendment.
