

University Theater Calls for Ushers

Men are still needed to work as ushers at University theater productions during the 1952-53 season. Any student interested is requested to leave his name at the theater box office or to contact John Jensen at the Delta Tau Delta house.

A few girls are also needed to work at the box office and as check room attendants on the nights of productions.

Green Slams Newbry, Urges Women In Politics

Mrs. Edith Green, democratic candidate for secretary of State in Oregon, criticised actions of Earl T. Newbry, present secretary of state, and pleaded for more women in politics at a forum meeting in the Student Union Friday. "Most voters underestimate the powers of the board of control," she said. "The board sets the tone and standards of state government." The board of control is composed of Governor McKay, Newbry and Walter J. Pearson, state treasurer. It was formed in 1913 by legislative act and charged with the management of state institutions as its primary function.

Oregon Y's to Host State-Wide Concab

The University of Oregon YMCA and YWCA will be hosts to representatives from seven Oregon schools at the Nestigen Regional conference which will be held Nov. 1 and 2.

Ed Nestigen, national program secretary of the YMCA, will be the principal speaker at the conference.

This is the first conference of this type ever to be held on the Oregon campus, according to Nan Mimnaugh, co-chairman of the conference. She stated that the principal purpose of the conference is to allow student and executives of the YM and YW to meet and exchange ideas. While here, the delegates will meet and talk to Nestigen, who is expected to give them ideas on how their associations may improve their programs.

Schools expected to send delegates to the event are Oregon State college, Lewis and Clark, Portland State, Willamette, Linfield, Southern Oregon College of Education, and Oregon College of Education.

Mrs. Green criticised recent actions of Newbry in selling school lands "for a fraction of assessed evaluation." The sale of Oregon shipyards by the board of control and the reduction in assessed valuation of that property by the state tax commission, under the board of control, was discussed by Mrs. Green. She thought the sale price too low and the reduction unnecessary.

Moral Tone Concern

"More women have to get into politics," she said. "Women are more concerned with the moral tone of the nation." She considers coming election issues to be "honesty and integrity in government."

"The most important bill dealing with education in Oregon," according to Mrs. Green is the unified school district bill. Citing an editorial appearing in the Oct. 5 edition of the Portland Journal which stated the conclusion of the interim committee's study of the question she said that Oregon has a complex, inefficient, uneconomical and educationally damaging school district organization setup. The unified school districts would consolidate school administration and would result in a wiser spending of money, Mrs. Green added.

Oregon Debators Leave for Meet At Lewis and Clark

The University debators will attend their first tournament of the season at Lewis and Clark college, Nov. 8, Herman Cohen, forensic director, said today. Competition will be limited to students with no previous college debating experience.

Events scheduled for the one day meet are debate, extemporaneous speaking and interpretive reading. Each contestant will be limited to entry in one division.

Schools from all over the state are represented at the annual "Willamette Valley Pioneer Tournament", sponsored by the Beta chapter of Pi Kappa Delta, national forensic honorary.

An exhibition debate is scheduled for the regular symposium meeting tonight at 7:30 Villard 205, Cohen said.

Theater Ticket Sales Booming

"University theater ticket sales will probably go over last year's record mark," stated Mrs. Gene Wiley, theater business manager. "Approximately 1675 tickets have already been sold and we will continue to sell them at the box office until November 1."

Ticket representative Larry Swanson sold 61 per cent of the membership of Campbell club to give his living organization first place in the house ticket campaign for the third consecutive year. Each member of the group will be entitled to attend along with a guest, any University theater production chosen by the group. They will be the guests of the theater for that production.

In second place with 44 per cent of its members buying tickets was Carson four. Forty-one per cent of Chi Omega purchased season passes to give it third place.

Sally Mollner, sophomore in speech, sold 36 tickets to garner the honor of the individual selling the most tickets. Sandra Price, junior in liberal arts, and Dorothy Iler, freshman in pre-journalism, tied for second position each with 31 tickets sold.

The theater box office will be open this week from 1 to 5 p.m. so that students who did not buy season tickets may purchase seats for "The Happy Time".

Music Students Sing on KOAC

Nineteen students enrolled in music education and music in the elementary school classes are participating in this year's "Let's Sing, America" series produced by KOAC's School of the Air.

Broadcasts of the program originate from the University radio studios in Villard hall. It is heard each Thursday afternoon in all of the undergraded rural schools and the intermediate and upper grades in city schools throughout the state.

The program features a University chorus singing popular American folk songs under the direction of Robert E. Nye, associate professor of music education. Don Hunter, head of the audio-visual department, and Glen Starlin, assistant professor of speech, are assisting Nye with the broadcasts.

On a foggy day in July, 1728, the dour Danish explorer Vitus Bering, whose name was to be given to a sea and a strait, sailed through the narrow passage between Siberia and Alaska. He did not suspect that North America lay a few miles off his beam, says the National Geographic Society.

Petitions Due For Whiskerino

NO DEER NEXT YEAR

The end of a perfect hunt. Meat for the deep freeze, a fine trophy for the den and pleasant memories for many fireside chats.

But what about next year? Will one careless act spread wildfire over this fine forest area. Protect the future. Care with smokes and campfires means unburned forest and more game next year.
