Friday evening, in conjunction with the second annual AGS-sponsored Halloween party, KWAX will present a special feature. A roving radio man will be present at some of the parties planned for Eugene children.

Auditions for KWAX announcers and disk jockeys will be held today in the KWAX studio, third floor Villard, from 10 to 12 a.m. and 1 to 3 p.m., announced Don Parr, chief announcer.

The first show to be heard over KWAX on Monday through Friday at 5 p.m. is "Piano Moods." This is a student program featuring the piano stylings of music students. The program has no definite type of music to be played as jazz may be heard one day and classical music the next.

"Songs of Many Lands" is aired over KWAX every Tuesday evening at 6:30. Bill Swenson as announcer spins the top records of foreign countries. Each Tuesday night there may be a different theme with records only from one country. Hawaiian and French rec-

Alumni Invited To Homecoming

All living organizations on campus are urged to invite their alumni to return to the campus for Homecoming. Bobbette Gilmore, chairman of the hospitality committee announced.

A trophy will be awarded for the living organization with the largest percentage of alums returning.

Registration of the old graduates will be held at the Student Union, and at the Eugene and Osburn hotels downtown beginning at 3 p.m. Nov. 7 and ending at 1 p.m. Nov. 8.

Dean of Women Attends McMinnville Meeting

Mrs. Golda Parker Wickham, associate director of women's affairs, represented the University at the fall potluck dinner meeting of the McMinnville parents association Tuesday evening.

The meeting, held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. John Manning, was a discussion period for University problems.

Photo Schedule

Theta Chi and Sigma Phi Epsilon will have Oregana pictures taken at Kennell-Ellis today, Jody Greer, Oregana associate editor, has announced.

Proofs are to be returned to Kennell-Ellis a week after they are picked up, Miss Greer stated.

Campbell Club and Tau Kappa Epsilon will be snapped Friday.

Carlson Will Attend National Confab

J. S. Carlson, director of the counseling center, will leave Monday to attend a nationwide conference of the administrators of college counseling services. The meetings will be held on the campus of Michigan State college.

Discussion will center on the relationship between counseling and admissions, based largely on experiences of combining the two.

Carlson will also visit high schools in the Chicago area.
