Plymouth Club

Plymouth club will meet in the Wheeler room of the First Congregational church this Sunday from 6:15 to 7:30 p.m. Rev. Wesley Nicholson will be resource leader as the group continues reading the Gospel of Mark. A social hour will follow the discussion. Mrs. P. L. Risley is the adviser to the club.

Channing Club

Friday evening meetings of Channing club feature a speaker, a social night, or a discussion topic. The meetings are held in the Unitarian church at 11th and Ferry streets beginning at 8 p.m. This week, a discussion topic is, "God—Person, Force, or Phantom," a series of opinions on God by ministers of several faiths ranging from Orthodox Catholic to Liberalism.

Christian Science

Christian Science organization meets every Tuesday evening from 7 to 8 p.m. in the men's lounge of Gerlinger hall. All students, faculty members, and staff of the University are welcome at the meetings.

Wesley Foundation

Friday at 8 p.m. there will be a masquerade party in store for Wesley Foundation, 1236 Kincaid street. Costumes are in order for the evening entitled, "Broomstick Brawl." "Lots of games" are planned for the evening, according to Esther Clark, a member of the group.

Tuesday evening at 5:30 a pot-luck dinner is slated. All are invited to come for "Christian fellowship and good food," Miss Clark added.

Choir practice begins at 6:30 p.m. Thursday at the First Methodist church.

Christian House

In keeping with the Halloween spirit, Christian house opens its doors to allow the spooks and goblins to gather at 8 p.m. Friday. All are invited to the party, which is an informal affair.

Sunday morning at 9:15 there will be a coffee and rolls session. Following this, at 9:45 a.m. there will be two Bible discussion and study groups. Victor P. Morris leads the group in a study of "The Psalms" and Miss Martha Goodrich leads a similar study in "The History of Our Bible."

The fellowship hour Sunday evening at 5:30 will be directed toward "The Christian and Political Action," with William C. Jones, dean of administration, sharing his thoughts with the group. The third of a series of political roundtables will proceed at 9 p.m. at the house, which is located at 736 E. 16th st. The topic for discussion at that time is "Men and Measures on the Ballot."

A special feature of Christian house's activities is a Hawaiian dinner scheduled for Wednesday afternoon at 5:30. Kamm and Wah Chun, two Hawaiian "chefs," Rosie Lowrance, Joan Wilson and Dale

Allton to Present Organ Selections

Donald W. Allton, professor of organ, will present an organ recital at 4 p.m. Sunday in the School of Music auditorium. Admission is open to the public.

The program includes such early Spanish organ music as "Preludi" by Josep Elias, "Tres Versillos de Segundo Tono" by Candelario de Ezarrriaga, "Paso en Do Mayor" by Narcio Casanovas, the "Fugue in G minor (The Lesser)" by Bach, "Aberysturth" by Maurice C. Whitney, "Benedictus" by Max Reger, "Chorale Preludes" by Brahms, and "Chorale in A minor" by Cesar Franck.

Allton is conductor of Choral Union and the University Singers.

Banks are in charge of preparations and the program which will follow. Tickets should be purchased ahead of time by calling and making reservations at Christian house. The cost is seventy-five cents.

Next week is "Election Open House" for Christian house. Students are invited to go to the house, play games, pop popcorn and enjoy the evening as they follow the report of their favorite candidates.

Newman Club

A day mass (an exhibition of the mass) will be held this Sunday at 7 p.m. in the St. Francis high school gymnasium.

All students needing transportation to this mass should meet in the lobby of the Student Union at 6:30.

A day of recollection is being planned for Sunday, November 16.

Westminster Foundation

A variety night featuring card games, dancing and doughnuts will be held tonight at 7:30 in Westminster house.

Lutheran Students

Pastor Ed Svendsen, director of the Lutheran Student Foundation of Oregon, will discuss the responsibility of the Christian student in the University at 6:15 p.m. Sunday. "The Time is Now" will be the title of the talk. Supper will be served Sunday at 5:30 p.m.

Scandinavian and Baltic students will be specially invited to the International Tea Tuesday from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. Christian stewardship will be discussed at the luncheon Wednesday noon.

UO Traditions Start Monday

University of Oregon traditions will be observed beginning next Monday, with violators scheduled to be punished Friday in front of the Student Union.

Traditions are:

1. Everyone is to say "hello" on the hello walk in front of the SU.
2. Only seniors may sit on the senior bench by Susan Campbell and Hendricks halls.
3. No one may walk on the lawns.
4. No smoking on the old campus.
5. No one is to step on the Oregon seal.

6. Freshmen are to wear rooters' lids and khaki pants. Sophomores are to wear levis or khakis. Upperclassmen may wear either cords or slacks. Freshmen women are to wear green ribbons. All members of the Order of the O are to wear their sweaters.

7. Everyone is to wear a homecoming button.

8. Freshmen men are to paint the "O" on Skinner's Butte and to scrub the state seal at 9 a.m. Saturday.

Violators will be punished at 4 p.m. Friday, Nov. 7, in front of the SU. Violators' names are to be announced on Thursday.

Punishment for violators includes "hackings" and the dunking of women in Fenton pool. Members of the Skull and Dagger, Kwama and Phi Theta will turn in names of traditions violators to Order of the "O".
