SAE Undefeated; Suzzies Win Out

Sigma Alpha Epsilon showed superb playing ability in trouncing Phi Kappa Sigma, 15 to 4 and 15 to 3, Monday afternoon to remain undefeated in "A" squad volleyball action.

Other games yesterday saw Nestor "B" win by forfeit over Merrick "B"; Susan Campbell "B" best Campbell Club "B" 13 to 15, 15 to 3, and 15 to 13; Sherry Ross "B" take two from French Hall "B", 15 to 1 and 15 to 11; Counselors grab a forfeit from Barrister Inn; and Lambda Chi Alpha edge Delta Upsilon, 15 to 8, 3 to 15 and 15 to 11.

The towering SAE volleyball crew had little trouble disposing of the Phi Kaps. Behind the deadly spikes of Mike Kittredge, Bob Carlson, and Bob White, and the lofty sets of Frank Franciscovich, Jay McMurren and Jim Ganong, the winners were never on the short end of the tally.

Gene Beck, Reed King, and Bob Hinman led the tough Phi Kaps.

Campbell Win

After losing the opener to Campbell Club's "B's", the Suzzies came back to take the next set, 15 to 3, and then go on to win by edging out the Clubbers in an elongated set, 15 to 13. Campbell Club was ahead 9 to 1, at one time in the contest.

Jim Jolly and Vishnue Wassimal sparked the Suzzies, while lanky Jay Ropet and Wilber Boesel were the top Campbell Club volleyers.

Nestor's "B" team remained on the undefeated list with a forfeit triumph over Merrick.

Prep Playoffs Set

PORTLAND (P)—Two of the four opening games in the Oregon class A high school football play-offs have been set for Saturday night. These are Bend vs. Jefferson at Bend and Grants Pass vs. Marshfield at Grants Pass.

The Central Catholic-Hillsboro game at Hillsboro and the Benson-The Dalles game at Portland will be played Friday night.

Wallowa Favored To Defend Title

PORTLAND (P)—Wallowa, with 23 consecutive victories, is favored to retain its Oregon high school Class "B" football championship in the annual playoffs, which get under way this week.

Wallowa, the district eight titlist, plays host Saturday to Echo, District seven champion.

Monroe, the District three winner, will meet Drain, District four champion, in the opening playoff game at Cottage Grove Thursday.

Jefferson, District two titlist, and Garibaldi, the District one champion, will play at Jefferson Saturday.

Maupin and Moro will clash at Maupin Tuesday for the District six title and the right to meet Merrill, the District five representative. The playoff game will be held on the District six team's field.

Lame Ducks View WSC-Oregon Film, Hold Light Drill

Rain sprinkled the varsity football team as they ran through light drills yesterday afternoon, loosening up some kinks from the weekend's action. Following the drills the offensive unit worked on some plays in a dummy scrimmage. A movie of last Saturday's Washington State game was shown following the short workout.

Injuries continued to plague Coach Len Casonova's Ducks. Emery Barnes reinjured his back during the weekend's game. Cece Hodges is still sidelined with a painful broken rib tip. It isn't known this early in the week whether either will see action in this week's Stanford game at Palo Alto.

Don Hedgepeth and Hal Simmons are both suffering from badly bruised shoulders, but it is believed that they will be ready to play the Stanford game. Hedgepeth was working out without pads yesterday but did not participate in the scrimmage.

Farrell Albright's hip injury is keeping him out of play but Cas says that he can't say for sure how long he will be sidelined. The coach also said that Tom Elliott, who broke his leg in the Idaho game, will most likely be out for the rest of the season.

COUGARS WIN, BUT...

Stubborn Duck Defense Slows Powerful Washington State Attack

By Rick Tarr
Emerald Sportswriter

After spotting Washington State two touchdowns in the first quarter, Oregon's Webfoots settled down to turn the makings of a Washington State rout into a real ball game. Saturday's homecoming crowd saw a surprisingly tough defensive line and the pass-catching genius of Monte Brethauer keep the game much closer than the 19 to 6 Cougar margin would indicate.

Specialists Lead Pro Scoring Race

NEW YORK (P) — The "Toe" still is the most important part of football. Tuesday's pro football games left two ace place-kickers on top of the individual scoring columns. They are pacemaker Gordon Saltau, crack end of the San Francisco 49ers and Lou Groza of the Cleveland Browns. Saltau made eight points yesterday on a touchdown and two extra points to boost his season total to sixty. Groza kicked four conversions to run his total to fifty-five.

But Saltau's team didn't win. The 49ers were humbled by the New York Giants 23 to 14. It was the second straight loss for the San Francisco team. Coach Buck Shaw is regrouping his injured forces. In an attempt to plug the 49ers defenses, Shaw recalled End Haldo Norman, who has been coaching at Gustavus Adolphus in St. Peter, Minn.

Sunday's defeat knocked San Francisco into a tie with Detroit for first place in the National division of the National Pro Football league.

Brethauer's nine pass receptions during the game tied the Pacific Coast conference record set last week by UCLA's Ike Jones. Monte out-performed all-coast Cougar end Ed Barker, and edged closer to regaining the top spot on the Coast conference pass snatching parade.

Cougars Put Two Over

Washington State got off two quick scores in the first quarter with Big Bob Burkhart throwing perfect strikes to Wayne Berry for 31 yards and to Barker for 45 yards. These gave Coach Alton Kircher's "comeback kids" a comfortable 13-point lead after only ten minutes of play. Horrified Oregon fans began to have visions of another Washington debacle.

But the fired up Duck defense refused to fold. Hal Simmons, and Emmett Williams, were two of the many heroes of the Duck forwards.

Oregon's only touchdown came on a second quarter drive, the only one to be sustained without a fumble. Starting on the Washington State 48 yard line, Barney Holland engineered the team to the four yard line by mixing the line smashes of Lloyd Powell and Tom Novikoff with two passes to
