

Killing time

After dark—when visibility is poorest—danger is greatest. So be sure to slow down and be extra alert at night. Be sure, too, to keep your windshield free of mud or grime and to see that your windshield wipers do their job. Remember—what you can't see can hurt you!

Be Careful—the life you save may be your own!

Sponsored in the interest of your safety by

VALUES in Rubber Wear

to keep you "Singing in the rain"

- Specially priced Flats and Heels for girls—all styles—all sizes.
- Shoes for ladies, men, girls, boys and infants

"Serve yourself a Treat"

THE SHOE MART

In the Producers Public Market -:- 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Broadway and Charnelton

Have You Heard About the BIG 6?

Everybody Saves with

Greyhound's 6-RIDE FAMILY BOOK!

Businessmen are among the many groups who like the big discounts and savings received on a Greyhound 6-Ride Book. The book is good in either direction between any two given Oregon points. Any member of your family can use it. Tickets good for 30 days. Big savings with the Big 6!

HERE'S JUST ONE TYPICAL EXAMPLE:

6 One-Way Tickets Cost (Including federal tax) . . . $
6-Ride Family Book Costs (No federal tax) . . . $

YOU SAVE . . . $

GREYHOUND

HERE'S JUST ONE TYPICAL EXAMPLE TO PORTLAND . . . 20.04
. . . 15.35
. . . 4.69

Campus Briefs

● Chairmen for the Kiddy Carnival will meet today at noon in the Student Union.

● Freshmen and sophomore YWCA commission chaplains will meet at 4 p.m. today at the Y headquarters in Gerlinger with Jo Sloan, YW religion and worship chairman.

● The scholarship chairman representing all living organizations are to attend a meeting with Miss Laura Olson, assistant dean of women, in the Student Union at 4 p.m. today. The room number will be posted in the main lobby.

● Six new patients were admitted to the campus infirmary Tuesday evening and Wednesday, making the total number of patients now sixteen. No one was dismissed Tuesday or Wednesday.

Entering Tuesday evening and Wednesday were Jean Mangen, Clara Siverly, Bob Richardson, Robert Stout, Phil Calef and Don Bonime. Remaining in the hospital are Joseph Kirkwood, William Winter, Phyllis Korn, Gary Lee Meyer, Sally Ingalls, Lyn Hartley, Jane Cotton, Jerry Anderson, Clariss Partch and Donald Surfus.

● Whiskerino committee chairmen will meet at 6:30 p.m. today in the Student Union, according to Whiskerino co-chairmen Milan Foster and Bob Summers.

Iowa School Offers Award To Writers

An opportunity for students and faculty members to win $100 has been offered by Herbert Prescott, Grinnell College, Grinnell, Iowa. Fifteen minute radio scripts "of an intelligently patriotic motif" should be submitted in standard form and may be in prose or poetry. A stamped envelope should be enclosed, as all material submitted will be carefully considered, and rejected script will be accompanied by a check-form appraisal.

The Grinnell college radio players, directed by Prescott, plan a series of 13 shows under the aegis of a National Association of Educational Broadcasters, Fund for Adult Education, grant. In the past few years, the group has world-premiered nearly 50 original scripts, many of which are contained in three commercially published books under Prescott's editorship.

Book Honors Work Of University Artist

Jorge Goya, candidate for a master degree in painting and graphics in the school of architecture and allied arts, has been selected as one of 68 painters and sculptors whose work will be represented in a book "Painting and Sculpture".

Also included will be a brief biographical note. The book, to be published by the University of California press, at Berkeley, will go on sale at all major book stores Nov. 27.

The selection was made by a vote from a list of more than 600 recommended artists, by the artists themselves, and with the further selection and recommendation by several art critics.

Guide Sales Begin In SU This Week

The Pigger's Guide will be released as soon as it is off the presses, Pat Choat, editor of the campus directory, said Wednesday. The Guide will go on sale at the SU for 50 cents sometime this week, she said.

The guide will have campus and home addresses, phone numbers and majors of all students enrolled in the University of Oregon.

KWAX to Present 'Poker Flats' Play

The "Outcasts of Poker Flats", a drama of California gold rush days by Bret Hart, will be presented on KOAC at 4:30 p.m. and KWAX, at 6:30 p.m. today.

This week's Radio Workshop production directed by Jack Vaughn, KWAX manager, has a cast of nine, including: Jim Blue, Oakhurst; Joanne Forbes, Piney; Shirley Pettyjohn, Mother Shipton; Sandra Price, the Duchess; Clancy Suiter, the Sheriff; John Bree, Uncle Billy; and Herm Cohen, Molly Moats, and Leonard Overhaiser as extras.

Robinson Outlines 'The Four Poster'

An outline of the Broadway production, "The Four Poster," was given by Horace W. Robinson, associate professor of speech, for members of the Eugene Kiwanis club Monday.

Robinson acted out much of the play's dialogue, explaining the key portions of the drama.

Anthropologist Lectures on Early Man; Proof Given for Crater Lake Origin

L. S. Cressman, head of the anthropology department, spoke on "Early Man of the Pacific Northwest" at a Monday meeting of the Springfield Lion's club.

Colored slides, maps and graphs illustrated Cressman's talk on past men of the Northwest region. Special discussion centered on early man of southeastern Oregon and his weapons, household utensils and way of life.

UO Band to Leave For Stanford Game

Members of the University band will leave today by bus for Palo Alto, where they will play at the Oregon-Stanford game Saturday afternoon.

Enroute, the band is scheduled to play at the Y-Market in Medford and in Talent, Oregon, four miles south of Medford.

No appearances have been scheduled for the group in the Bay area, but most of the members plan to attend the San Francisco Symphony Saturday evening.

Robert Vagner, associate professor of music, and Ira Lee, instructor in brass instruments, will accompany the band.

Chairmanship Open For Winter Drive

Petitions will be accepted until Friday for chairman of the winter term campus Red Cross blood drive.

Co-chairmen of the Roseburg Veteran's hospital project, and a disaster chairman are also needed. Freshmen may petition for the positions. Petitions may be turned in to Joan Walker at Kappa Alpha Theta.

Officers Elected For Commissions

Officers of the YWCA freshmen commissions have been announced. The officers are as follows:

Public affairs commission, Gail Tutty, president; Carol Fisher, vice president; Jo Kopp, secretary; Doris Gragg, treasurer, and Eva Lou Sparks, chaplain.

Religion and worship commission, Patty Teale, president; Hanna Sue Hansen, vice president; Gail West, secretary-treasurer, and Edith Elbon, chaplain.

Service commission, Janet Gustafson, president; Donna Buchanan, vice president; Martha Davis, secretary; Carol Huggins, treasurer, and Jennie Eackus, chaplain.

International affairs commission, Marielsa MacPherson, president; Geri Porritt, vice president; Jean Owens, secretary, and Peggie Miller, chaplain.

Job Opportunities

The U. S. Civil Service commission has announced the acceptance of applications for a Student Aid Trainee examination in the fields of physics, chemistry, mathematics, metallurgy and engineering, for duty in Navy and Army establishments in Washington, D.C. and nearby Maryland and Virginia. Salaries range from $2,750 to $3,175.

This examination is open only to persons who have completed one-fourth, one-half or three-fourths of a college engineering course or who expect to complete such study within nine months of the date of filing application. A written test will be given. Sample questions will be enclosed with the card of admission to the written test, to be sent to each person who applies for the examination.

Applicants who wish to be scheduled for the first written test to be held in December 1952 must have their Form 3000-AB on file by November 18, 1952. Examination will be given in Eugene.

Further information and application forms may be obtained from the U. S. Civil Service Commission and from first- and second-class post offices. Applications should be sent to the Executive Secretary, Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners for Scientific and Technical Personnel of the Potomac River Naval Command, Building 37, Naval Research Laboratory, Washington 25, D.C.

The U. S. Civil Service Commission announced an examination for geologist positions in the Geological Survey of the Department of the Interior and other Federal agencies, located in Washington, D. C., and throughout the country. Salaries are $3,410 and $4,205 a year.

Applicants for this examination will be required to take a written test. In addition, they must have had appropriate education and experience. Maximum age limit for $3,410 jobs is 35; for $4,205 jobs, 62.

Further information and application forms may be obtained from the Graduate Placement Service in Emerald Hall, or from the U. S. Civil Service Commission, Washington 25, D.C. Application must be filed by January 6, 1953, with the Executive Secretary, Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners, Geological Survey, Department of the Interior, Washington, 25, D. C.

The United States Civil Service commission announced examinations for Veterinarian (Trainee) for work with the Bureau of Animal Industry, U. S. Department of Agriculture, at locations throughout the country.

The veterinary (trainee) positions pay $3,410 a year. A 4-year course in veterinary medicine is required; a written test will be given. Students who expect to complete their courses by June 30, 1953 may apply.

The maximum age limit is 35, and the closing date for applications is November 25, 1952.

Further information and applications may be secured from the United States Civil Service Commission, Washington 25, D.C.

Representatives of Armstrong Cork company of Lancaster, Pennsylvania, will be on campus in the near future to interview prospective candidates for their training program.

The training classes will begin on Feb. 9 and June 22, and continue for from four to six months.

The company is looking for graduates or alumni with one to three years of business experience, under 28 years of age, and unmarried. Those selected will report to Lancaster on the date indicated. Transportation expenses will be paid up to 1,000 miles from Lancaster.

Starting salary for the positions is $300 per month, with a $25 raise at the end of six months. Positions open are in non-technical sales. Students with a degree in business administration, economics, or liberal arts are preferred.

Program to Debut Jazz Band Friday

The weekly "Friday at Four" program of entertainment in the SU fishbowl will feature this week the newly organized jazz band.

This band is sponsored by the SU and consists of Sam Panzica with the bass, Marv Young at the piano, Gary Slifman and his clarinet, Bill Lankeit with the cornet, and Dick Buffington and his electric guitar.

Fishbowl Mixer Slated At SU Friday Evening

Another Fishbowl mixer will be held in the Student Union this Friday from 9 till 12 p.m. This dance will be free and is strictly informal, according to Jackie Steuart, chairman of the dance committee. No theme has been selected and music will be furnished by records.