Oregon Ducklings in Good Shape To Meet Undefeated Washington

Oregon's frosh football squad, almost in top physical shape, went through a wet practice under the guidance of Coach Bill Bowerman Thursday afternoon, hoping to get an attack ready which will stop the Washington Pups when the two junior squads meet at Seattle this Saturday at 2 p.m.

The only player remaining on the injury list is Doyle Higdon, right end, who is nursing a sprained ankle. Dick Pavlat, halfback, who sat out the O.S.C. frosh battle with a broken hand, will be back in the fray against Washington.

The Pups have racked up a formidable record during the last four years. Not since 1948, has a Washington frosh eleven come out on the short end of a grid-iron score. This season they have trounced OSC, 58-0; and WSC, 26 to 6.

Concerning Oregon's chances this weekend, Coach Bowerman commented, "Any team that is determined and plays good football has a chance. Spirit is the most important factor."

Slated to start on the line for the Ducklings are Ted Overton and Larry Scheinfurt, ends; Lon Stiner and Harry Johnson, tackles; George Mutchler and Troy Bellah, guards; and Art Weber, center.

Oregon's starting offensive backfield will consist of Johnny Keller, quarterback; Dick James and Chuck Boydston, halfbacks; and Larry Ross, fullback.

Jets, Yeomen Lead Bowlers

This week the Jets are tops in the S.U. Faculty bowling league. Their three to one win over the Vitamins Monday night brought the Jets a total of 22 games won, 6 lost. Case bowled a 587 series for the team. On the other side of the fence, the Vitamin's Grancovitz bowled a 223 game and a 519 series.

Other faculty league results for Monday include Liberal Rats 2, with a 505 series for Grisley, to Grenadies 2, with a 211 game and 523 series for Grinor; Northsiders 3, with a 526 series for Hellie, to Hot Rods 1; Flying Saucers 3, with a 522 series for Williams and a 504 series for Ungerleider to Eight Balls 1.

Faculty league team standings: Jets won 22, lost 6; Flying Saucers won 17½, lost 10½; Northsiders won 17½, lost 10½; Grenadiers won 16, lost 12; Vitamins won 15, lost 13; Hot Rods won 11, lost 17; Liberal Rats won 10, lost 18; and Eight Balls won 3, lost 25.

Latest results of the Dorm Bowling league has the Yeomen as the top team with a total of 21 games won, and seven lost. Hale Kane has captured the most individual championships. Yano has the highest average, a 173; and Takano has the highest net series, a 562.

Other individual champions are Therioula, Gamma hall, with a net game of 234; Johnson, of the S.U. Castoffs, with a gross series of 612; and Van Berknaut of Nestor, with a gross game of 237.

Injuries Weaken Indian Backfield

By Ron Ricketts
Emerald Sportswriter

Two of the bottom-drawer teams of the Pacific Coast conference, Stanford and Oregon, will meet Saturday in what should prove to be an interesting game of football, at Palo Alto. Game time is 2 p.m.

PCC Standings

UCLA	5	0	0	1.00
Southern California	4	0	0	1.000
Washington	5	1	0	.833
Washington State	3	2	0	.600
Stanford	2	3	0	.400
California	1	3	0	.250
OREGON	1	4	0	.200
Idaho	0	3	0	.000
Oregon State	0	5	0	.000

GAMES SATURDAY

OREGON vs. Stanford at Palo Alto, Calif.
Idaho vs. Oregon State at Corvallis
Washington State vs. California at Berkeley, Calif.
Washington vs. Southern California at Los Angeles

Oregon is again assuming the underdog role according to most of the sports-wise, but it is rather difficult to picture the Ducks as such when you look at Stanford's humiliation by Southern California last week. In any event it is reasonably certain that there will be eleven men on each side, although Oregon Coach Len Casanova stated, "We can match their injuries three to one."

Oregon left Eugene Thursday night on the Cascade Limited and will headquarter at the Alexander Hamilton hotel in San Francisco. The Webfoots will take a light work-out in Stanford Stadium today.

Injured Backfield

There is no doubt that the Indians will be in a mood for revenge after the SC debacle, but their starting backfield will be composed of second and third stringers with the exception of Bob Mathias, which might prove to be too much of an offensive handicap. Oregon is still worse-off, however. Injured halfbacks Cece Hodges and Farrell Albright are on the doubtful list but they will be taken along and may play.

Regular Indian quarterback

Bobbie Garrett has an injured throwing arm and will be replaced by Jack Gebert. Gebert is an inexperienced and unheralded sophomore, and, although he looked good in spots against SC, is a question-mark. Left half and fullback are also unknown quantities with senior Chuck Brazel and sophomore Jarvis Watson seeing their first starting action of the year in those positions.

Skip Crist, the regular Stanford right half, has a broken nose but is expected to see some action. At any rate the Indians will have lots of speed. Both Brazel and Mathias are good pass receivers and should be frequent targets for Gebert aeriels. Crist is a hard runner through the middle, but he will offer the only line-plunging strength with halfback Ron Cook out of action.

Ducks Take to Air

Oregon, as usual, will concentrate on the aerial game with quarterbacks George Shaw, Hal Dunham, and Barney Holland on the firing line. Their principle receiver will be end Monte Brethauer, who is close to two national pass-receiving records.

Phi Kaps, Betas, Sigma Nu, Sammies, DU's, SAE 'B's Win

Phi Kappa Sigma downed Kappa Sigma 9-15, 15-10 and 15-4 to take top honors in the intramural "B" volleyball games Thursday afternoon.

In other games, Beta Theta Pi B's won over Chi Psi B's, 15-12 and 15-2; Sigma Nu B's defeated the Tau Kappa Epsilon B's 15-10 and 15-7; Sigma Alpha Epsilon B's won over the Delta Tau Delta B's 15-0 and 15-4; Sigma Alpha Mu downed Lambda Chi Alpha B's 15-3 and 15-7; and Delta Upsilon succumbed to Theta Chi B's 15-11 and 15-3.

Gibins-Popovick Star

After dropping the first game to the Phi Kappa Sigma's 15-9, the Kappa Sigma team came back to win the next two, 15-10 and 15-4 in two hard fought games. The winners were led by the spiking of Phil Gibins and Mike Popovick. The losers were hampered by having only four players on their team.

The Tau Kappa Epsilon B's were defeated by Sigma Nu B's 15-10 and 15-7. In the first game the Sigma Nu's moved ahead early in the game to build up a 15-5 lead. The Tekes reduced this lead to 9-10 but were cut short as the Sigma Nu's rallied to win 15-10. In the second contest the Sigma Nu's spiked themselves to an easy 15-7 win.

In other "B" game action, Sigma Alpha Mu downed the Lambda Chi Alpha team 15-3 and 15-7. Al Barzman was the outstanding player for the Sammies, as they coasted to victory.

As reported by Paul Hales, Beta Theta Pi B's won over the Chi Psi B's, 15-12 and 15-2 in two high spiking volleyball games. Sage Chandler and Tom Lyon starred for the winners.

Theta Chi B's behind the accurate playing of Dave Lenz and Vern Vinding won over the Delta Upsilon B's 15-11 and 15-3 as reported by Judge Elderkin.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon B's downed Delta Tau Delta B's 15-0 and 15-4 as reported by Allen Peters. The SAE team was in supreme command both games as they downed the Delts. Bob Britton, Bob Styles and George McIlvaney were the lead players for the winners.

Husky Passer Receives Call

The nation's number one passer—Washington whiz Don Heinrich—apparently is Army bound. But he'll have time for at least one more game—a big one—against the powerful Southern California Trojans. The Bremerton, Washington, draft board announced today it is calling Heinrich for induction on November 24th. A quick glance at the calendar makes that next Monday.

Washington meets USC on Saturday—with perhaps a Pacific Coast Conference championship at stake. The Trojans will be out to protect their unbeaten record and their Rose Bowl chances. Washington will be trying to exploit an outside chance for the Pasadena bid. A Husky win... plus an SC victory next week over UCLA—plus a Washington victory over Washington State on December 29—all this would leave the race in a 3-way tie.

That's taking a lot for granted, of course. But Washington has been gaining momentum in recent weeks—after an early season loss to UCLA. And the key to the Huskies' success has been the strong throwing arm of Heinrich. What his induction will do to Washington's later chances is a big question. The secretary of his draft board, Myrtle Smith, says Heinrich was due for a call-up last September 8th—just at the start of the football season, but his school obtained a deferment.
