

VOLLEYBALL GAMES

Nestor Hall Defeats Sherry Ross; Sig Eps, ATO's, Sigma Nu Win

Nestor Halls' A volleyball squad ended a successful intramural season Wednesday afternoon by upending the Sherry Ross A's, 15-5 and 15-1.

In other games Campbell Club won by forfeit over the League Eagles; Chi Psi took a forfeit decision from Pi Kappa Phi in a B game; the Sig Eps grabbed two victories from Lambda Chi Alpha, 15-13 and 15-9; ATO's B team defeated an undermanned Phi Kappa Sigma squad, 15-5 and 16-14; and Sigma Nu toppled the Phi Psi's in another B contest, 15-10 and 15-0.

Nestor Tall ended its almost-undefeated season with two decisive triumphs over Sherry Ross. Stalwart Nestor performers were Denny Olson, Jerry Hamilton and Jerry Ferrell. Ced Grant turned in a good game for Sherry Ross, reported Jim Buckley.

Harry Fuller reported that the Sigma Phi Epsilon B's tipped the Lambda Chi's 15-13 and 15-1.

Alpha Tau Omega had a hard time quelling a Phi Kappa Sigma rally in the second game, as reported by Mike Kilkenny. After winning the first clash 15-5 from five players, the ATO's edged out the Phi Kaps 16-14 in an elongated finale. Top ATO spiker was Tom Matthews.

Cary Moran and Dick Johnson lead Sigma Nu's B team to two quick wins over the Phi Psi's, 15-10 and 15-0, according to reporter Gary Meyer.

Big Ten Delegate Picked on Monday

CHICAGO (AP) — The Big Ten representative in the Rose Bowl football game will be announced on Monday after a poll of the conference athletic directors.

It will mark the first time the athletic directors rather than the faculty representatives have selected the Bowl team. The athletic directors have been instructed to pick the most representative team. With one exception in the past years this has been the conference champion. For the 1949 Rose Bowl game, runnerup Northwestern was named instead of Michigan tState because the Wolverines had gone the previous year.

At the present time, four teams are in the running for the Big Ten crown. They are Michigan, Wisconsin, Purdue and Minnesota.

Versatile Oregon State Tackle

DOUG HOUGLAND To Face University of Oregon Backs Saturday

DAM THE BEAVERS

Practice Stresses Ground Offensive

By Bob Cole Emerald Sportswriter

Held on a piercing cold, foggy afternoon, Wednesday's Webfoot gridiron drills revealed the running attack, which finally came to life last Saturday against Stanford's Indians, may provide Oregon with a well balanced, potent offense for their "Civil War" clash with Oregon State this weekend.

Not cooled off one bit by the day's low temperature, the Duck offense ran smoothly in a lengthy dummy scrimmage. Barney Holland, still holding on to the number one quarterback spot, along with Hal Dunham and George Shaw, mixed up the plays, with the aerial attack and ground game both receiving attention.

The rushing of Tom Novikoff, Cece Hodges, Ted Anderson and Farrell Albright may well give the Webfoots the scoring punch they have lacked most of the season inside the twenty-yard line.

Spectators at the contest can expect to see the pigskin in the air a good portion of the afternoon. The Oregon aerial artists have carried the brunt of the offensive power this season, and with the new found ground attack to open up the Beaver defense they should have an excellent opportunity to show their passing prowess.

On the other side of the field during the Duck drills, the defensive platoon worked on halting the hard running Sam Baker and the OSC passing game headed by Jim Withrow, who has connected on several touchdown tosses this season.

Having suffered a broken thumb on his throwing hand, it is questionable whether Withrow will be available for much action. If he is, there is plenty for the Oregon defenders to worry about.

Most of Len Casanova's aggression came out of the encounter in Palo Alto in pretty good shape. Hal Simmons, a starting tackle, was the only man on the field Wednesday not wearing pads.

It could have been the cold weather which made the Webfoots so peppy yesterday, but, rather than that, it appears they're determined to show the upset of Stanford was no fluke, and end the season successfully with a triumph in the season's final encounter.

STATISTICS

UCLA, Southern California Hold Defense Edges

LOS ANGELES—UCLA and Southern California, the West's two grid titans who have their showdown Saturday in Los Angeles, dominated every defensive department in Pacific Coast Conference statistics released today by the PCC Commissioner's office.

USC Heads Defense

UCLA leads in rushing defense and pass interceptions while Southern Cal is first in pass defense and total defense. The Trojans also lead in two other departments which can be used to good advantage in a defensive battle—punting and punt returns.

UCLA has allowed opponents only 95.9 yards a game rushing to Southern Cal's 103.6. The Trojans have given up only 67.9 yards passing with UCLA second at 127.3, and 171.5 yards total defense with UCLA again second, 223.1.

The Bruins have intercepted 32 enemy passes, only four less than the Conference record, to 25 for the Trojans. Southern California has averaged 41.8 yards punting and 14.5 yards on punt runbacks for leadership in those departments.

Cal Tops Rushers

California is the leading offensive team with 367.2 yards a game to 337.3 for Washington and 318.4 for Stanford. California also has the best rushing average with 273.7 yards to 200.7 for Idaho. Washington holds a bulge in passing with 173.7 yards to 164.4 for Oregon. Idaho has the best kickoff return average of 23.2 yards.

In other games this weekend, Oregon and Oregon State meet in Portland and Stanford and California at Berkeley while Washington State plays Oklahoma A & M at Stillwater. Idaho has concluded its schedule while Washington is idle. The 1952 schedule will be completed on November 29 when Washington and Washington State meet in Spokane and Southern California plays Notre Dame at South Bend.

Publicity Lands Player in Jug

(AP) — A young father was granted probation in Spokane after the judge heard testimony that the former high school football star was so puffed up with his sports publicity that he had a hard time adjusting to life outside school.

Judge Ralph Edgerton placed 20-year-old Robert Schwarder on probation for two years on a bad check charge and ordered the youth to stop drinking.

Schwarder's attorney said the former Spokane high school athlete had spent so much time on sports his grades dropped and he was forced to leave school. The youth had spent 105 days in jail while awaiting sentence and saw his 7-week-old baby for the first time today.

Team Heads Meet For Playoff Spots

Team managers for the winning intramural volleyball squads in each league will meet Friday morning at 10 a.m. in the intramural office of the Physical Education building.

The purpose of the meeting will be to draw for playoff positions in the volleyball finals, according to P. R. Washke, intramural director.

SPORTS STAFF

Desk Editors: Morton Harkins and Sam Vahey.

Classifieds

Room and board or board only. See Mrs. Kile, 874 E. 13th St. Phone 4-0422. 12-8

FOR RENT: Nicely furnished 4 room, modern, clean, warm apt. for students or working couple. All utilities furnished. Tele. privileges. $65. Call 5-5243. 4-11-21

FOR SALE: Sunbeam-Talbot convertible, $1,775. Edward Morton, Law School 4-11-21

FOR SALE — Never been used. 2 pr. skis 7' & 6'6" metal edges $20 each. 2 pr. White Stag ski pants, women's size 12, men's size 32-30, $15 each. 1 woman's skit boots, size 8, $10. $75 for the lot. Good sitzmarking! Phone 4-2320 or call at 2015 Elk Drive, Fairmount Dist., Eugene after 6 p.m. 11-21

WANTED to buy—'32 to '39 Ford, Chev. or Plymouth for work car. Not over $200, must be in good mechanical condition. Ph. 4-2858 11-21

Alterations and sewing. 749 E. 13th, Apt. 3. Ph. 3-3178. tf

FOR RENT: Nicely furnished studio apartment, near campus. For married couple. Ph. 5-6889.

LOST: Navy blue purse. Around noon Monday between Friendly & Carson. Finder call 3-2711.

Advertisement for The Christian Science Monitor. Includes text: "You'll need reliable answers to your 'crisis questions' this year!... get them in THE CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MONITOR". Also includes a coupon for an introductory subscription for $3.

Advertisement for the Oregon Daily Emerald. Features an illustration of a man in a suit and a car. Text: "The late John Doe. When he came to the intersection he was late for an appointment. Now he's late—for life. Walking in city traffic, be careful—look both ways, watch the lights, cross safely. You're way ahead to stop, look, and live! Be Careful—the life you save may be your own! Sponsored in the interest of your safety by Oregon Daily EMERALD".