

Religious Notes

Compiled by Mitzi Asai
Emerald Religious News Editor

Newman Club

Newman club, the organization for Roman Catholic students, is sponsoring a coffee hour Sunday at 7 p.m. in Gerlinger hall. Lloyd R. Sorenson, assistant professor of history, will give a short talk on "The Effects of the Reformation on the Catholic Church Today." Students will meet tonight at 7 for a skating party.

Westminster Foundation

Regular Bible class will be held Sunday at 9:30 a.m. at Westminster Foundation.

Gail West will lead the evening vesper service at 6 p.m. Speaker for the forum which follows the service will be Mohammed Chaudri, foreign student from India. "Islam" is the subject of his talk. A social hour will follow the forum.

Canterbury Club

Father Evan Williams, Episcopal chaplain at the University, will deliver the sermon on Sunday morning at St. Mary's church. He has chosen as his topic, "Sheep and Goats" and will discuss the possibilities of grey hybrids.

Gamma Delta

Gamma Delta will meet at 1343 Mill street for a social evening at 5:30 p.m. Sunday. At 7:30 two films will be shown at Grace Lutheran church.

Wesley Foundation

Wesley Foundation will hold open house this Saturday night.

Sunday morning at 9:45 the Koinonia Klass (college-age Sunday School) will meet at the First Methodist church. Ken Peterson will lead the discussion of another in the series of "Parables of Jesus." Church services follow the class at 10:45 a.m.

A Thanksgiving program will begin at the First Methodist church Sunday evening at 6 p.m. with a dinner. Wesley Foundation will provide a program, immediately following the dinner.

Reds Slay Whales

(AP)—The Soviet press said Sunday the Soviet whaling expedition to the Antarctic in 1951 netted 2459 whales and more than 25,000 tons of oil. It estimated the profit to the state as 100 million rubles (25 million dollars at the Soviet exchange rate.) The newspapers said Soviet harpooners have replaced Norwegian harpooners on Soviet Whalers.

Classifieds

FOR RENT: Nicely furnished 4 room, modern, clean, warm apt. for students or working couple. All utilities furnished. Tele. privileges. $65. Call 5-5243. 4-11-21

FOR SALE: Sunbeam-Talbot convertible, $1,775. Edward Morton, Law School 4-11-21

FOR SALE — Never been used. 2 pr. skis 7' & 6' metal edges $20 each. 2 pr. White Stag ski pants, women's size 12, men's size 32-30, $15 each. 1 woman's skit boots, size 8, $10. $75 for the lot. Good sitzmarking! Phone 4-2320 or call at 2015 Elk Drive, Fairmount Dist., Eugene after 6 p.m. 11-21

WANTED to buy—'32 to '39 Ford, Chev. or Plymouth for work car. Not over $200, must be in good mechanical condition. Ph. 4-2858 11-21

Alterations and sewing. 749 E. 13th, Apt. 3. Ph. 3-3178. tf

FOR RENT: Nicely furnished studio apartment, near campus. For married couple. Ph. 5-6889.

LOST: Navy blue purse. Around noon Monday between Friendly & Carson. Finder call 3-2711.

Next Tuesday at 5:30 p.m. students will gather for another pot-luck dinner.

Wednesday at 4 p.m. and 6:30 p.m. two cell groups will meet. The groups will discuss personal, national and world problems.

The chapel service regularly held each Thursday noon at Wesley house and choir practice have both been cancelled for this next week because of Thanksgiving vacation. Open house scheduled for Nov. 28 and 29, have also been cancelled.

Christian House

Sunday morning there will be the usual 9:15 doughnut hour, followed by two classes at Christian house, one on "The Psalms" and the other on "How We Got Our Bible." The regular evening fellowship will be held at 6 p.m. instead of the usual 5:30.

Christian house students have charge of the evening church service beginning at 7:30 p.m. Four students from different countries will hold a panel discussion on "Things for Which America Should be Thankful." Participants are June Nakata, Japan; Godfrey Ibom, Nigeria; Elias Lavi, Iran, and Gerry Van Doren, United States.

Special music will be given by a student choir led by Mary Lou Watts, with Pat Hartley as soloist.

Following the church service, students are inviting members and friends of the church to an informal reception in the west wing of the church at 8:30 p.m. Mary Alice Baker and Martha Goodrich are in charge of arrangements for this part of the program. June Fulco, Bob Adams and Mary Lou Watts have charge of the evening service itself.

Lutheran Students

Sunday at 5:30 p.m. a supper will be held, to be followed by a Thanksgiving program of singing and worship.

An International tea is scheduled for Tuesday at 3:30.

University Forensic Squad Left Thursday For Northwest Regional Tournament

The University forensic squad left Thursday afternoon for Pullman, Wash., where they plan to attend the annual Northwest regional forensic tournament Friday and Saturday. Original plans to fly to Pullman were cancelled because of heavy fog Thursday and the trip will be made both ways by train.

Students on the travelling squad include two men's teams: Bruce Holt, freshman in pre-law, and Paul Ward, freshman in political science; Phil Cass, freshman in pre-law, and Don Mickelwait, sophomore in liberal arts, and one women's team, Loretta Mason, freshman in speech, and Elsie Schiller, junior in journalism.

Three Teams

The three teams will be accompanied by Herman Cohen, forensics director, and Robert Kully, graduate assistant in speech.

Cass and Mickelwait, accompanied by Cohen, will go on from Pullman to the University of Denver to participate in the Western Speech association tournament to be held there Nov. 25, 26, and 27.

The Oregon squad will compete with teams from four states, Washington, Oregon, Idaho, and Montana, at the regional tournament sponsored by the Washington State college chapter of Pi Kappa Delta, national forensic honorary. It is the first competitive speech tournament of the season for the Northwest and the University squad's initial performance for this year.

Fair employment practices legislation on the national level will be the topic of argumentation at both tournaments.

Kully and the remainder of the squad will return to Eugene Sunday.

Kobayashi to Show Educational Slides

Bunji Kobayashi, graduate student in architecture sponsored by the International Institute of Education, will show slides of Japanese domestic architecture Monday at 7:30 p.m. in Architecture 107.

Kobayashi, an assistant professor of architecture in Nippon University, Tokyo, will show slides of Japanese architecture ranging from the Neolithic period to the 19th century. The slides will include Katsura palace in Kyoto.

The slide show is being sponsored by the University of Oregon chapter of American Institute of Decorations, a national interior design honorary. This show is the first of a series of two. The next slide show will be Monday, Dec. 1, when slides on Buddhist and Shinto architecture will be shown.

Dick Busey
Gas Peddler
7th at Lincoln

MAYFLOWER
11th & ALDER DIAL 5-1022

"STORY OF ROBINHOOD"

with

Richard Todd - Jean Rice

HEILIG 4-9311

"AFFAIR IN TRINIDAD"

with

Rita Haywerth - Glenn Ford

Also

"MAGIC FACE"

with

Luther Adler

come to Munsingwear's
Pajama Party
in Balbriggans

$4⁹⁵

Sleep, study or lounge cozy and warm in Balbriggans. Of finest close-knit cotton... soft and long-wearing. Knit and finished to resist shrinking, sagging, stretching.

In coral, green, navy, sizes—14-18

In chartreuse/plum, yellow sunshine, orange, coral/navy, beige/green, sizes—14-20

The Broadway

HEAR

Dr. John Bird
of
London, England

Sun. 11 a.m. "THE REAL TEST" KASH broadcast 7:30 p.m. "THE UNPARDONABLE SIN" MON. "HEAVEN, WHAT IT IS LIKE" TUES., "IS THERE A HELL?" WED., "THE MOST IMPORTANT QUESTION IN LIFE"

Sunday School - 9:45
Goal - 1,500

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH
Broadway at High —