INCOMPLETE—This first quarter pass from Hal Dunham to Ron Lyman just missed completion. Oregon State defender is Kaye Booth (47), safety. The Webfoots lost 22-19 Saturday at Multnomah stadium.

OSC, 22-19

Beaver Attack Sweeps Flanks

PORTLAND—Oregon State, battered from pillar to post by all comers during the 1952 season, turned on their down-state rivals from the University of Oregon Saturday for a stunning 22-19 win.

Before 21,333 Multnomah stadium patrons, Jim Cordial and Sam Baker, a couple of particularly rough senior customers, combined their talents to stem a pair of Webfoot leads and capture their fourth straight Civil War wrangle. Wally Jackson, a sophomore from the City College of San Francisco, took advantage of the Webfoots' exposed flanks and their fear of Baker's booming plunges into the middle, to steal the show and was the decisive factor in the Orange triumph.

All for Naught

Shining light in the Duck defeat was Tom Novikoff's brilliant broken field run for a 57 yard touchdown, which was called back because of a clipping penalty. Had the score counted, the Webfoots would have had an 18-16 margin. But as it was the Oregons were on the short end of a 16-12 count with four minutes left in the third quarter.

Monte Brethauer, the senior captain, failed by five receptions to catch Bill McColl's three-year coast record of 106 catches, but did settle for a total yardage net of 1,057. He still winds up the season as the nation's leading active pass-catcher over that three-year period.

The resume: First period. The Webfoots kicked off to OSC and the Orange were able to pick up a single first down before Baker punted to the Oregon 32. Novikoff bumped left guard for a yard. Hodges shot through the same gap for three more and Hal Dunham passed to Brethauer for 35 yards and a first down on the State 32.

Ducks Score First

Anderson, around right end and over right guard, set up a third and five on the 25. Novikoff bucked right tackle to the 22 and hit the center for a first down on the 18. Cece Hodges hammered to the 14 and Anderson was thrown for a two yard loss. But Dunham found Anderson for a 13 yard aerial to the three.

Novikoff, on two successive carries into the OSC mid-section, went in for the touchdown with 6:57 to play in the quarter. Emerson Harvey kicked low to miss the extra point.

At the end of the first quarter, Oregon led, 6-0.

Second period. Novikoff punted on the first play to set up the Beavers with a first and ten on the Oregon 42. Jack Pinion rattled the middle for 19 yards but lost a pair on the next play. A pass to Pinion was good for 14 yards to the Oregon 11. Baker did a complete spin and ground his way to the one. Slammin' Sam bucked it over for the touchdown and Cordial missed the extra point. With 12:40 left the score was deadlocked 6-6.

Passer Seeks Pass

SEATTLE (AP)—There's a question whether Quarterback Don Heinrich will be throwing passes for Washington this Saturday. The star passer was inducted into the Army today in Seattle. He may be able to get a pass—the army kind—to wind up his collegiate career in Washington's game with Washington State at Spokane Saturday.

Cagers Await Season Opener

The Oregon basketball team is shaping up for the opening game, less than a week away, December 1 with Oregon State. The contest, a non-conference encounter, will be played on a neutral floor at the Ice Arena in Portland.

Two football players, Barney Holland who practiced part time during football and Wayne Johnson, were ready for cage work Monday, after ending the grid season last week. Holland seemed to recover his range speedily and was hitting a good percentage of shots from outside the key.

Oregon, which annexed a season's record of 14 wins and 16 losses last year, will probably start the Monday game with Keith Farnum, Chet Noe, Ed Halberg, Bob Hawes, and Kenny Wegner on the court. According to head coach, Bill Borchert, the overall defense and offense is better this year than it was last season, but the team lacks rebound power.

The Ducks will hold a long scrimmage session tonight and will continue practice Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. To give the team a slight holiday there will be no practices Thursday and Friday's will not start until 8 p.m.

MURAL VOLLEYBALL

Counselor Crew Up-ends Yeomen; Collects League Seven Crown

In the final volleyball action before the playoffs, the Counselors A team took the championship of league seven by scores of 15-1, 15-7 over the Yeomen Monday afternoon. Alpha Tau Omega defeated Kappa Sigma 15-5, 15-10 in two hard fought games.

The Counselors showed spiking power in Ken Ball and Merv England, with sets from Ben Schmidt, Bill Nelson and Phil Abrams. In neither game did the Counselors receive any real threat from the Yeomen other than Kerm McLemore and George Boehnke's spikes, but these were too few to be effective.

The ATO B team of Rod Bell, Tom Matthews, Jim Woodside, Bill Wright, Mike Kilkenny and Ron Chevrier combined good set shots and spikes to defeat Kappa Sig.

ATO breezed through the first game behind the spikes of Chevrier and Matthews to win easily. It was in the second game that Kappa Sigma found itself behind by a score of 12-2. Jack Murray came into the game, displaying the best spiking seen on either team. His and Ken Sweitzer's spikes were largely responsible for Kappa Sig's climb until the score was 13-9.

After taking a time-out, ATO finished off the team that threatened to come from behind and defeat them.

Beta Theta Pi won their game by forfeit from Pi Kappa Phi.

Bronco Coach Resigns Post

SANTA CLARA (AP)—The University of Santa Clara is in the market for a new football coach. Dick Gallagher quit today to go back to the Cleveland Browns organization as a personnel man and talent scout.

The announced resignation of Dick Gallagher at Santa Clara came as no surprise. It has been freely predicted for quite some time. Bolstered by reliable sources, we'll predict that Bob-Bronzan of San Jose State will be named to succeed Gallagher, whose team has been able to win only one game this year.

Volleyballers Slate Championship Tilts

Playoffs begin this afternoon to determine the intramural volleyball champions of class A and class B. In last year's action Hale Kane made a clean sweep of the crowns taking both A and B titles.

At 4 p.m. in court 40 Sigma Nu, winner of league one will meet Hale Kane, league two champion in the first of the class A playoffs. This game will be followed by Sigma Alpha Epsilon, league five champions, and Phi Delta Theta, A team winners of league six.

In court 43, league three champion Nestor hall will meet the winner of league four, Theta Chi's A team. Following this game Sigma Alpha Epsilon's B squad will play Hale Kane.

Terps' Grid Woes Blamed on Tatum

WASHINGTON (AP)—University of Maryland President Curly Byrd has blamed the football coaching staff for collapse of the once-mighty team in its last two games. Byrd gave Coach Jim Tatum a verbal dressing down, accused him of talking too much and of not thinking.

Maryland was ranked among the top teams in the nation most of the season. But the past two Saturdays, the Terps suffered losses to Mississippi and Alabama.

Byrd said he has been trying to "shut up" Tatum for three years but has met with no success. Byrd referred specifically to a speech Tatum made in New York recently criticizing Ivy league schools. Byrd's sharpest blast came when he was asked about Maryland's prospects for next year. He said,
