The Nation and the World...

Three More Positions Filled by Eisenhower

Compiled by PAT GILDEA Emerald Chief Wire Editor

(AP)-President-elect Eisenhower filled three more top government posts Tuesday.

The positions and appointees are: Arthur Summerfield, Flint, Mich., postmaster-general; Mrs. Oveta Culp Hobby, Houston, Texas, administrator of the federal security agency; and Mrs. Ivy Baker Priest, Bountiful, Utah, treasurer of the United States.

The two women are the first to be appointed to top positions in the Eisenhower administration. Eisenhower described them as outstanding women and said they are only the first of their sex to receive appointments in his administration.

Summerfield's appointment left only two cabinet jobs to be filled of commerce. Summerfield will re- night and drove into the upper sign as Republican national chair- Mississippi valley. man to take over his new post.

Labor Sets Join Plan

(A) Plans to reactivate the federation committee, which has unsuccessfully tried in the past to reannounced yesterday by the newly elected AF of L president, George

New hopes for a merger apparently stem from the fact that CIO also must choose new leadership, following the death of Philip Murray.

"They are trade unionists and so are we, and we must find some way to get together," Meany said.

Meany succeeds William Green who died last week at the age of 82. Meany, 58, had been secretary-treasurer of the labor organization. He is the fourth president in its history.

The new president said he had ganized labor.

Clothing Price Ceilings Off

(A)-Ceilings on all women's and misses' clothing were suspended yesterday following the announcement by Tighe Woods, the nation's out-going price boss.

His office also indicated that ceilings will be suspended by this week-end on men's and young men's apparel, but not on infant's and children's wear.

The White House denied a report that President Truman might end price and wage controls before the new Congress convenes Jan. 3. A White House spokesman said the President has no such plans.

Solon Predicts Expense Drop

(AP)-Government expenses can be trimmed by 15 billion dollars in man who will head the house appropriations committee in the new Congress, John Taber.

Taber estimated the expenses could be held to 65 billion, with a balanced budget and a possible slight tax reduction. The present budget is 79 billion.

state designate, John Foster Dulles | tana. and Gov. Sherman Adams of New Hampshire, who will be Eisenhow- Adams reacted, except to comment er's top White House assistant.

Taber didn't say how Dulles and on "sympathetic ears."

Snow and Wind Blocks Highways In Central Plains

snowstorm blocked highways in secretary of labor and secretary the central plains area Tuesday

> Traffic was tied up in Western Committee Spots Kansas and Central and Eastern Nebraska as the near blizzard reduced visibility virtually to zero.

Plains Region Windy

The weather bureau reported winds of 35 to 45 miles per hour accompanied the snow in the Plains region, piling drifts across roads.

At Chicago, the weather bureau issued a special snow warning for unite the AF of L and CIO, were Minnesota. It predicted five to 10 inches of snowfall Tuesday night with considerable drifting and blowing. Winds of 30 to 40 miles an hour were forecast for Tuesday night and today in Minnesota. Only the extreme Northwest and Southeast are expected to receive light to moderate falls.

Omaha Traffic 'Tied Up'

The driving storm lacked only unusually cold temperatures to qualify as a full blizzard in Nebraska where it hit just in time to tie up the rush hour traffic of homeward-bound motorist commuters at Lincoln and Omaha. Vehicles inched along Omaha's busiest thoroughfares. Cross state trafurged Eisenhower to name a secre- fic was halted in Kansas by drifts tary of labor from the ranks of or- on highways in the western part of the state.

The situation was reported bad in northeastern Kansas. Several trans-continental bus lines held up or cancelled west-bound departures at Kansas City.

Snow Storm in Midwest

The weather bureau termed the snow "an intense storm" which developed today over southwestern Missouri and southeastern Kansas The snowfall was general over the upper Missouri valley and the northern quarter of the Mississippi

Early Tuesday evening, the snowfalls measured five inches in parts of the Missouri valley, with much heavier accumulations probable. A wide area of rain extended south and east of the snow belt across the Midwest and Great Lakes area.

Hunter Dies in Arizona

The midcontinent storm followed severe snows during the past 10 days in the western plateau and Rocky Mountain areas as far south as northern New Mexico and Arizona. Today, there were nine inches of snow reported on the ground at Amarillo in the Texas Pan-1954, was the prediction of the handle. One hunter died in the snow and cold which hit the northern Arizona mountains several days ago.

A new wave of cold air moved from Canada into the northern Rockies and western plains today, sending daytime temperatures down to five above zero at Lara-He talked with secretary of mie, Wyoming, and Butte, Mon-that he thought the proposals fell

11:30 Educ Plang Comm 112 SU Noon Spanish Table 110 SU German Table 111 SU

Professor Henn To Speak Here

Thomas Rice Henn, director of studies in English at St. Catharine's college, Cambridge, England, will deliver an address on Irish drama at 8 p.m. Dec. 4 in the Student Union ballroom.

Henn, who is on sabbatical leave, is in this country to visit English scholars and to obtain research material.

Henn is the author of "The Lonely Tower", "The Apple and the Spectroscope" and several articles and reviews. Occasionally broadcasting for the British Broadcasting company, Henn was a Yeats memorial lecturer.

Calvert, Jones Win

William C. Jones, dean of administration, and Len Calvert, sophomore in journalism, have been appointed to the program committee for the annual meeting of the Pacific Northwest Area Council of YMCA's. Calvert is the only student member of the committee. The meeting will be held on the University campus early in March.

Other members of the committee are Norman Feldkamp, Roseburg; Sanford Reece, Portland; Mrs. Dean Proffitt, Longview; Dr. De-Norval Onthank, Portland; Frank Shearer, Eugene; and Norma Winslow, Salem.

@ Campus Briefs

- e Petitions for the AWS tea food committee chairman are due to Ann Blackwell, chairman, at Kappa Alpha Theta by Monday.
- The application blanks for the graduate record examinations which will be held Jan. 30 and 31 are now available at the counseling center in Emerald hall. The blanks must be filed by Jan. 16.
- There will be a compulsory meeting of Phi Theta Upsilon, junior women's honorary, on Tuesday, Dec. 2 in the SU. No one will be excused for the meeting, according to Judy McLoughlin, president.

Campus Calendar Girls to Leave Straub; Sherry Ross to Move

Women now living in Hendricks Annex in John Straub hall, will be moved to Carson and Hendricks halls, announced Mrs. Golda P. Wickham, associate director of women's affairs. The men now living in Sherry Ross in the Veteran's dormitory will be moved back to Straub winter term, according to Ray Hawk, associate director of men's af-

The 47 women concerned will be moved the first of next term. "We do not want to disturb them now."" said Mrs. Wickham, "but I'm sure they will be out winter term."

Room for 20

At present there is room for 20 of the 47 women. Carson has a capacity of 333 occupants, and is at present housing only 323. In Hendricks hall, there is room of 112, 10 more than the number of present residents. This leaves 27 women without a definite dormitory as-

Vacancies Expected

Enough vacancies at the end of the term are expected by Hawk to take care of the additional women. Reasons listed by Hawk for the drop in number of upperclass women living in the dormitories are moving into a sorority, getting married, or a lack of the funds necessary to come back to school.

Susan Campbell hall, previously a women's dormitory, will continue to house men for the remainder of the year, Hawk said.

Corner of 6th & Lincoln

"Coke" is a registered trade-mark.

1952, THE COCA-COLA COMPANY

COCA-COLA BOTTLING CO. of EUGENE