UN Political Committee Approves India's Plan

Compiled by Andy Salmins Emerald Assistant Wire Editor

(AP)—India's plan for breaking the Korean truce deadlock was approved Monday by a majority of the United Nations political committee as a climax of one of the bitterest diplomatic battles in the history of the U.N.

The plan has been altered in many ways to meet the objections voiced during the debate, but the basic proposal has been retained, the committee will create a neutral commission to handle Korean war prisoners. The plan also puts the U.N. on the record as firmly opposing forced repatriation of prisoners of war—a provision on which the United States remained steadfast.

The plan was approved by a 53 to 5 vote, Nationalist China abstaining. The plan now goes to the general assembly for action.

Ike Picks Last Cabinet Men

(AP)—The presidential cabinet has been completed with the announcement of the final two appointments made by the president-elect, Dwight D. Eisenhower. Martin Durkin, a Chicago union official, has been named secretary of labor and Sinclair Weeks, a Boston businessman, has been named as secretary of commerce.

Two More Issues Due

Only two more Emeralds will be published this term, on Friday and Dec. 11, Thursday of next week. Regular publication will resume on Jan. 6.

Groucho Marx

(Continued from page one) such stage hits as "The Cocoanuts" and "Animal Crackers" which were later made into films. The Marx brothers continued to keep movie-goers in stitches until they retired in 1941. A comeback appearance was made in the 1946 film "A Night in Casablanca."

Since 1947 Groucho Marx has been ad-libbing and quizzing contestants on "You Bet Your Life." He won the George Foster Peabody award for his radio work in 1948.

Marx flew up from Hollywood for his campus talk which will be his only public appearance in the Northwest on this trip. He is being accompanied on his visit to the University by his daughter Melinda, a graduate of Bennington college where she was the editor of the student newspaper.

Western Scene

Senator Morse to Speak Tuesday; Oregon GOP's Repudiate Wayne

The latest in the series of skirmishes between the Oregon Republican party and U. S. Sen. Wayne L. Morse involves a blank picture and the election of an anti-Morse spokesman as president of the Oregon Republican club.

Morse, who will appear on campus next Tuesday in McArthur court, has been the target of much criticism from the Republicans since he actively supported Gov. Adlai Stevenson for president during the recent campaign.

At the recent Portland meeting of the Oregon Republican club the senator was represented on the convention program by a blank space instead of the customary photograph. The blank spot was surrounded by drapery and bore

the letters "R. I. P."

The club also elected Fred Robinson, Medford, long time Morse critic as president. Some observers have taken this move as further repudiation by the Oregon Republicans of the controversial senator.

Morse is expected to discuss some of the major problems which, in his opinion, face the next Congress.

IRC Meets Tonight; Three Speeches Set

The International Relations club will hold the second of a two-meeting series tonight at 7:30 in the Student Union.

William A. Williams, assistant professor of history; M. D. Wattles, assistant professor of economics; and M. S. Ramani will speak on "World Events During the Campaign."

'Brigadoon' Leads Tryout Set Tonight

Tryouts for the four main leads in the spring theater production of "Brigadoon" will be held in the choral room of the music building tonight at 7:30, according to Donald Allton, assistant professor of music.

Parts to be selected are a tenor, baritone, soprano and contralto. Scores are available in Allton's office for anyone wishing to look at the parts.

Additional tryouts for those unable to attend tonight will be held next Tuesday at 4 p.m. These tryouts are only for singing roles, emphasized Allton. Line reading eliminations will be held at a later date.

Red Cross Board Petition Due Today

Today is the deadline for petitions for vacant positions on the Red Cross Board.

Positions open are campus disaster chairman, blood drive chairman, Roseburg trips chairmen and special events chairman.

Petitions are to be turned in to Joan Walker at Kappa Alpha Theta.

Religious Council Plans Study Group

A study group to discuss the "Christian Student and the University" will be held at Lutheran Student house Thursday at 9 p.m. It is being organized by the University Religious council especially for students who plan to attend the United Students' Christian council conference later this month, but anyone interested is welcome to attend, according to Jane Simpson, URC president.

Radio Society Taps Sixteen

Sixteen new members were pledged to Kappa Rho Omicron, radio honorary, Monday night at a regular meeting of the organization.

They include Loann Morgan, Joanne Forbes, Al Barzman, Gordon Burtner, Gordon Rennie, Clarence Suiter, Bob Coleman, Shirley Pettijohn, Ken Whittle, John Bree, Dick Petersen, Len Krichevsky, Marilyn Patterson, Gerald Pearce, Mary Wilson and Hugh Carrabrant.

New KRO pledges will produce "Uncle Charlie's Christmas Party" over KOAC Dec. 11, which will be taped and sent to radio stations throughout Oregon for re-broadcast. Ken Warren and Jack Vaughn will be directing.

Committees for the Christmas party and publicity were formed at the meeting Monday. Appointed to the Christmas party, to be held on third floor Villard Dec. 14, were Al Barzman, Len Krichevsky, Loann Morgan and Joanne Forbes. Working on publicity are Gordon Burtner and Marilyn Patterson.

You Don't Find Dates on a Christmas Tree

OR What Are You Doing New Year's?

Once there was a Girl who was the Prettiest Pigeon in Town. She stood out like a well-constructed Swan amid a Gaggles of Geese. So, during the Christmas holidays, Our Girl had a hatful of Invitations. Eighteen just for the big New Year's Eve dance. Her Problem was which Swain to accept.

She summoned her small sister, aged 10. "Chick," she said, "here is a lesson in Practical Psychology. See these eighteen invitations? Only one is from a man of Poise, Personality and Perception. Masterful... considerate... enterprising... subtle... sophisticated... a Man of Promise. Do you know which one it is?"

"Jeepers no," said the wee Sister, "I don't." From the heap Our Heroine selected One Invitation—on a yellow Blank. "Always," she said, "pick one that comes by Telegram." The Small Fry gulped, "Golly, can you tell all that from a Telegram?"

Big Sister closed one lustrous Eye. "Never forget it," she said. "You can't miss."

The point to remember: when you're Lining Something Up for Yule or any time send a Telegram. It flatters the Sender; gives your approach a Man-of-the-World touch that makes it Something Special. Whenever you want to Do Better... on anything from a Date to a Job Interview... stake your claim via Western Union.
