

CROWNED AGAIN

Hale Kane Spikers Clinch IM Titles With Triumphs Over Phi Deltas, ATOs

Hale Kane, living up to the translation of its name, "Hall of Men," has for the second year in a row taken the championship in both A and B intra-mural volleyball leagues. They gained the championships in the Wednesday afternoon finals by downing the Phi Delta Theta A's and Alpha Tau Omega's B squad.

Backed by their screaming gallery, their A team took the court and behind the smashing spikers of Bob Muirhead and Bob Fase crushed Phi Delta Theta in the first game by a score of 15-1. Hale Kane then squeaked by the second game to post a 15-13 win.

The second game looked for a while like a repeat of the first game but the Phi Deltas fought back and brought the score from 13-7 to 14-13. Hale Kane then took possession of the ball and dropped a serve right into the middle of their opponents for the winning point.

The champion Hale Kane "A" team members—Bob Muirhead, Bob Fase, Milton Kotoshirodo, Charles Oyama, Mike Mathias, Bob Hanaike, Bob Takano and Wilfred Watanube..

Alpha Tau Omega took the court with Hale Kane's B squad. Spiking again made the big difference as Martin Magi, Hale Kane's outstanding spiker, led the islanders to a 15-0 victory in the first game over the hapless ATO's. Don Hanike and Jim Tsugawa's set shots enabled their spikers to spell doom for ATO.

The second game started off with ATO taking a small lead but Hale

Kane came back to win by a score of 15-9. Again it was Magi who was outstanding.

CORRECTION—PIGGER'S GUIDE

It's FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS not five dollars!

On page 24 of the Pigger's Guide, the full page ad of Mutual Benefit Health & Accident Association, the copy erroneously says "$5.00 expenses paid for any one accident." The copy should read $500 (five hundred dollars) expenses paid for any one accident. Obviously the small figure of $5.00 is in error and it is hoped those who read the ad will realize this mistake which the publishers of the Pigger's Guide regret.
