● Young Democrats will hold their last meeting of the term Wednesday at 7 p.m. in the Student Union.

● The University Religious council will meet at noon Monday in the Student Union. All members are urged to attend as the meeting is very important, Secretary Pat Hartley reported.

● The first "faculty-at-home" fireside will be held Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Karl Onthank, associate director of student affairs. The topic to be discussed will be "Jobs After College—What, How, and How Much." Transportation will leave Gerlinger hall at 7:15 p.m. Reservations may be made at either the YMCA or YWCA.

● Students who have heard from former foreign students are asked to contact one of the members of the Cosmopolitan Club cabinet, according to Ted Goh, president. The last meeting of the term will be held today at Plymouth House.

● "Friday at Four" in the SU fishbowl at 4 p.m. today will feature Judy Ellefson, sophomore in speech, with a reading and Don Bonime, freshman in liberal arts, with several piano selections. Following this Dorothy Anderson will lead a community singing of Christmas carols.
