Wet Weather

Typical Oregon rain was forecast by the U.S. weather bureau for this week. Today will be cloudy with showers.

Fifty-third year of publication Vol. LIV

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, EUGENE, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 7, 1953

NUMBER 46

SAM ADAMS

Williams to Lecture On Radical Leader

William Williams, assistant pro- | at the University of Wisconsin fessor of history, will open the winter term lectures in the Browsing room at 7:30 tonight discussing Samuel Adams.

His lecture will deal with Adams, "Taproot of American Radicalism," and his activities as a major political leader prior to and during the revolutionary period of this country's history. Carlisle Moore, associate professor of English, will conduct the discussion following Williams' address.

In his first year of teaching at the University, Williams is the author of a new book, "American-Russian Relations, 1781-1947." published by Rinehart this fall.

He was the United States representative to the Carnegie Institute at the world student conference in Paris, France, during

A member of the American historical association and the Mississippi valley historical association, Williams did his graduate work

KWAX Staff Changes Set

University radio station KWAX will begin its series of broadcasts this term Monday at 6 p.m. with 13 changes in the top staff.

Students announced as staff members for winter term are John Bree, senior in speech, program director; Joanne Forbes, junior in speech, program coordinator; Sandra Price, junior in speech, business manager; Gordon Rennie, junior in speech, continuity director; Don Parr, junior in speech, special events director; Jerry Shaw, sports director.

Dick Peterson, senior in speech, publicity director; Loanne Morgan, sophomore in speech, traffic manager; Hugh Garrabrant, junior in business, chief announcer; Gordon Burtner, senior in speech, news editor; Shirley Pettyjohn, senior in speech, office manager; Judy Johnson, freshman in liberal arts, record librarian; Ken Whittle, junior in business, transmitter engineer.

Hugh Garrabrant, chief announcer, will hold announcer and disc jockey auditions Wednesday, Thursday and Friday afternoons at

Staff members will meet tonight at 7 p.m. in the KWAX studios.

Positions Open For Senior Ball

Petitions for Senior ball chairmanships were called for Tuesday by Senior Class President Tom Wrightson.

Committee chairmanships open include decorations, promotion, publicity, tickets, programs and chaperones. Preference will be given to seniors, Wrightson said, but all students may petition.

Petitions may be picked up on the third floor of the Student Union. They should be turned in to the ASUO office, the special events room of the SU or to Wrightson by Friday, Jan. 16.

The Senior ball will be held Feb.

and received his PhD in 1950.

Prior to his teaching assignment at the University, he was instructor in American foreign relations at Washington and Jefferson college, special lecturer in American history at Bard college and visiting lecturer in American history at the University of Wis-

Cash Waits Owner

Are you broke? Not from the expenses of the first of the term. but from losing money.

Some money was found on campus Monday and is now being held by Dorothy Evenden in the business office at Emerald Hall, ext. 200. The owner should be able to identify the approximate place where the money was lost and the

Marian Ma

Theater Plans Election Party

The election of a new University theater executive board will be held at the "UT Jamboree," annual winter term theater party scheduled for Sunday at 6 p.m. in Villard 102. A representative from each class will be named.

Entertainment for the party, which is held for all students working at the theater, includes a showing of the movie "Hamlet" produced by Jim Blue, senior in liberal arts. Music, dancing and refreshments are also on the evening's program.

Nominees for representatives on the board are: freshmen. Cecily Ley, liberal arts, David Sherman, journalism, Carol David, liberal arts; sophomores, Judy Ellefson, speech, Betsy Thayer, liberal arts, John Jensen, speech; juniors, Sandra Price and Clarence Suitor, both speech majors; seniors, Beverly Brunton, Donna Knoll, Phil Sanders and Jo Anne Forbes, all majors in speech and graduate students, Al Kaiser, speech, Ben Padrow, English and Georgia Hemovitch, general studies.

Beverly Brunton, senior in speech, and Phil Sanders, junior in speech, are chairmen for the

Freshman Men Hear Discussion Of Frat Advantages, Rush Week

talks on the opportunities of fraternity membership and the rules governing rush week at Tuesday evening's assembly in the SU ball-

Fredrick Hunter, ex-Chancellor of the State Board of Higher Education and main speaker of the ible for rushing. Upperclassmen evening, emphasized the leadership which a fraternity offers. He compared fraternity membership to "a three-year course in leadership with training in the recognition and acceptance of authority, responsibility, and criticism."

Hunter said the idea of the fraternity as "polite country club" was only a small part of its func-

A film, "Toast to our Brother' was shown.

Jim Harding, IFC vice-president,

Men going through rush week will sign up for rush dates Monday from 2 to 5 and 7 to 10 p.m. Any freshman who has a 2 point GPA for twelve hours of credit is eligmust have a 2 point GPA and a 2 point accumulative grade to be eligible.

The rushees will have twelve dates during the week from Tuesday through Friday with three dates each day. The time of the dates is lunch from 11:30 to 1 p.m.; dinner from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m., and evening from 7:30 to 10 p.m. Saturday will be preference day when the rushees will pick up their bids.

In order to change a date, the rushee should take his date card to briefed the freshmen on the rules the IFC office, 214 SU, between 9

Nearly 300 freshman men heard to be followed throughout the a.m. and 11:30 a.m. on Tuesday or from 10 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. Wednesday through Friday.

Open rushing will begin one week after the formal rush week closes. The same rules will regulate that period.

36 Pledged

Thirty-six men pledged 15 fraternities during fall term open rushing, the office of student affairs announced. Pledged were:

Alpha Tau Omega-Ron Pheister. Paul Poetsch and Harlan Thoreson; Beta Theta Pi-Paul Hales and Harold Reeves; Delta Tau Delta-John Gregor, Ronald Monroe, Richard Neifert, Keith Robertson and Robert Schafer; Kappa Sigma - Douglass Talbot; Lambda Chi Alpha-Lynn Emrick; Phi Gamma Delta-Jack Profitt; Phi Kappa Psi-Phillip Dixon and Lawrence Kleinsmith.

Phi Sigma Kappa-Ronald Miller; Pi Kappa Alpha—Alvin Busby, Bernard McMahon, Edward Morris, Richard Morse, Ray Myrick, Jr., Clarence Suiter, Richard Swennes and George Weseman; Sigma Alpha Epsilon - Charles Coulter; Sigma Chi-Manning and Merritt Barber; Sigma Nu-Ward Cook; Sigma Phi Epsilon-Duane Allan, Ralph Ettel, Jr., Trenton Huls and Leslie Maxson; Tau Kappa Epsilon-Harvey Eppstein, Dan Meeker and Randolph Middleton: Theta Chi-Leo Naapi.

Seven Make Law

Honor Grade List

school honor roll fall term, according to Dean Orlando J. Hollis. A cumulative grade point average of 3 point or higher covering all work done in the school of law is needed to make the special honor

William E. Dushaime and Steve

Seven students made the law

Saturday Noon Deadline for Fees A total of 1721 students, slightly | Adair, junior in business adminless than half of the anticipated istration, who were issuing the enrollment for winter term, had completed registration procedures and the payment of fees late Monday, according to Clifford L. Constance, registrar. No estimate of Tuesday's figures was available.

1721 Students Complete Registration;

Payment of fees and the final steps of registration may be made up to 12 noon Saturday. A late payment fee will be assessed after that date. The last day for changing classes has been set for Jan. 19. Following that date, students who drop or change courses must obtain a grade in the course.

Student body cards, received upon payment of tuition and fees, must be presented at the athletic department in McArthur court in order to obtain free athletic cards. These cards will be necessary for admission to this weekend's games with Washington State college.

Only 96 women and 349 men had obtained their cards by Tuesday afternoon, reported Bob Shetterly, were lined from floor to ceiling senior in political science, and Jack

Fahlman Named To Union Position

Clyde Fahlman, Student Union board chairman and a senior in sociology, has been appointed to the student executive committee of the National Association of concrete brick. College Unions for the coming

One of ten students selected for a position on the board, will also lead work shop session at the Association of College Unions' national convention which will be held at Berkeley, Calif., in April.

Walls Refinished In SU Rooms

Refinishing of walls in the Student Union in first, second and third floor meeting rooms and halls was done during the holiday vacation at a cost of about $2000, according to Dick Williams, director of the SU.

Constant moving of furniture caused damage to the plaster walls and necessitated the installation of Kalistron and micarta wall covering materials, Williams said.

Walls of the first floor meeting rooms and the third floor hallway with Kalistron, a new plastic material. Walls of the second floor meeting rooms, adjacent to the ballroom, were covered with blue micarta to the height of about five roll. feet.

Physical plant employees during the holiday period repaired cracks in the walls in several places, caused by the gradual shrinkage of

Employment Low For Winter Term

Part time jobs for students "are rather quiet this term" according to Miss Shirley Sylvester of the student employment office. The slack in job opportunities follows the high employment of students over the Christmas vacation.

The outlook for summer employment is better said Miss Sylvester. Summer jobs for men in the national forest service at Yellowstone park and for men and women over 21 in hotel work at a Colorado resort are presently available.

Notification of other summer work, including canneries, should be made soon, she added. Students may register now for this and other types of work at the employ-

A. Tyler headed the third year class. The three top men in the second year class were James L. Hershner, Malcolm F. Marsh, and Malcolm J. Montague. William T. Linklater and John R. Gill earned top rating in the first year class.

YW Service Group To Meet Thursday

Women interested in working on the projects sponsored by the YWCA service committee should attend a meeting of the committee at 4 p.m. Thursday at the YW, Sharon Anderson, service chairman has announced.

Topics which will be discussed by the group include the YW's work in the children's hospital school, the big sister program, the charm school for junior high school students, work at the juvenile detention home, helping displaced persons adjust to the English language, the YW co-operative nursery and the Westmoreland teenage canteen project.

DU's Move to Philadelphia House; Sherry Ross Moves Back to Straub Philadelphia house is now occu- | campus, according to Ray Hawk, pied by members of Delta Upsilon after a move that saw members of the co-op moving into the old DU house which has been purchased for them by a group of church organizations.

Eighteen or twenty DU members can be accommodated in their | maintained until completion of the present quarters, the rest of the new DU house next fall.

associate director of student affairs. This arrangement will be have been moved from Hendricks annex and that the Sherry Ross group in the vets' dorms will probably move back to John Straub hall this week.

members are living at home or off Hawk added that all women ment office.