Tardy Professors Narrow Listing

Today's listing of honor roll students does not contain the names of all students who received a 3.5 GPA or better. Some professors had not turned in their grades when the list was compiled the Monday following finals.

Donald DuShane, director of student affairs, said Monday that those students who made the honor roll but were not listed should check with his office. Arrangements have been made with the University news bureau to supply hometown news releases for those students not listed. All grades will be recorded on official records.

Registrar Clifford Constance said that the number of late grades fall term was not above normal. The Board of Deans is interested in the problem, Constance stated, and reports are made on faculty members who turn in late grades.

Positions Open For WSSF Drive

Petitions for general chairman of the campus World Student Service Fund drive are due Jan. 15. Jane Simpson, president of the University Religious Council, has announced.

The petitions are to be turned in to Miss Simpson at the YWCA headquarters in Gerlinger hall. Last year, Oregon contributed the most of any college in the Northwest region during the drive.

Dance Starts Tonight

Recreational square dancing will begin tonight at 7:30 p.m. in Gerlinger annex, announced Miss Shirley Cox, instructor in physical education. Beginners are welcome said Miss Cox.

IDC Invites Newburn To Reception Feb. 4

The Interdormitory council has invited University President H. K. Newburn and Mrs. Newburn to attend an informal reception in the dining room of John Straub dormitory on Feb. 4.

Independent men will attend the meeting with the Newburns, the IDC reported.

The county court in Oregon is composed of a county judge and two commissioners in all counties except Multnomah, where the county business is administered by a board of three commissioners.

Six Bowlers To Represent Ducks in Tourney

A team of six bowlers will be chosen this month to represent Oregon in the Northwest Regional Bowling Tournament to be held on campus April 11, announced L. A. Bellissimo, SU recreation manager.

Selection of the team will begin January 19 and continue until Jan. 28. Men entering the competition must complete 36 games playing alternately on Mondays and Wednesdays or on Tuesdays and Thursdays at 4 p.m. The six men with the highest average at the end of 36 games will represent the university in the tournament.

All men interested in bowling are asked to register for the competition at the recreation desk in the basement of the Student Union. A charge of 20 cents a line will be made for the 36 games.

Bellissimo urged anyone with bowling skill who might be interested in future tournaments to enter for the sake of gaining valuable experience. Performance of the entrants this year will be taken into consideration when a team is selected next year to make the trip to Seattle to compete in the tournament to be held at the University of Washington.

Northwest Keglers Slate April Games

Dick Williams, director of the Student Union, announced yesterday that the first annual Northwest Regional Bowling Tournament will be held on the Oregon campus April 11.

Plans for the tournament were made at the regional meeting of the Association of College Unions held during fall term at Oregon State college. These tournaments will be patterned after those currently held in the midwest by the Big Ten schools.

All colleges and universities in Oregon, Washington, Idaho and British Columbia will be eligible to enter teams in the tournament. Invitations to the tournament together with rules and regulations will be sent out this week.

Dance Classes Start for Children

Three classes in dance rhythms for children are currently being offered by the extension division each Saturday morning.

Mrs. Margaret M. Logan is instructing the class. Mrs. Logan described the class subject matter as "not step patterns, but a more active type."

Classes meet at 9 a.m. (for children 5-6 years old); 10 a.m. (7-8 years); and 11 a.m. (9-10 years). Cost is $6 for 11 lessons. The classes are held in Gerlinger hall.

A course in "modern" dancing is also being taught by Mrs. Logan. Cost of the series of 11 two-hour lessons is $12. The class meets from 7:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. each Monday in Gerlinger.

Sports writers, by a wide margin, named Jack Dempsey the "greatest fighter of the past 50 years" on Jan. 28, 1950.

SECOND SERIES

Ducks Set for Luckless Cougar; Borchner Pronounces Farnam Ready

Handed a pair of trouncings by the classy University of Washington Huskies, the Oregon Webfoots are primed to turn the tables on another Washington rival — the WSC Cougars here Friday and Saturday nights.

Currently on a four games-in-five nights tour of the Willamette valley, Coach Jack Friel's Pullmanites are still looking for a winning combination. The Cougars have already suffered 14 setbacks and were decided underdogs going into their current series with Oregon State at Corvallis Tuesday night.

Duck Coach Bill Borchner indicated that Keith Farnam, leading goal-getter with a .396 average, has shaken the effects of a siege of pneumonia and will be ready for full-scale action during the Cougar series. If Farnam does start Friday night, Kenny Wegner will be shifted back to his regular guard position and will team up with Barney Holland. Ed Halberg will start alongside Farnam and Chet Noe will open at the post.

Statistics released Tuesday by the Athletic News Bureau list the husky Noe as the top scorer with 167 points; Farnam as the sharp-shooter; Noe as the leading rebounder with 177; and Wegner the number one free throw tosser, 59 for 74 and a .797 percentage.
