

Office Enlarged During Vacation

Office of H. P. Barnhart, director of dormitories, located in Carson hall, was enlarged and moved to provide better natural lighting by physical plant employees during the holiday vacation period.

Barnhart's office now occupies what was formerly the men's lounge and coat room, adjacent to the men's rest room.

Journals to Publish Jessup's Articles

Three articles written by Bertam Jessup, associate professor of philosophy, will appear in forthcoming issues of professional journals.

"The Mind of Elia", a study of the philosophy of Charles Lamb, has been accepted by the "Journal of the History of Ideas." The "Journal of Aesthetics and Art Criticism" will publish Jessup's "Meaning Range in the Work of Art." "The Comparative Aesthetic Judgment" will appear in "Philosophy and Phenomenological Research."

Cressman Directs Anthro Survey

A survey of Oregon coast prehistoric development which was begun in June 1951 was continued last summer under the direction of L. S. Cressman, professor of anthropology.

Excavations were carried on for six weeks at Bandon, Netarts, Coquille and finally at the Big-Eddy site at The Dalles. At The Dalles work was carried on under contract with the National Park service in an area which will be flooded by the Dalles dam.
