

Alumni Coffee Hours Scheduled Winter Term; Sprague to Talk

Four Alumni coffee hours, patterned on the popular series last winter term, are slated this term, announced alumni director Les Anderson. All of the coffee hours will be held at 7 p.m. in the Dads lounge of the Student Union. Coffee will be served after each talk. Alumni are especially invited to the events, which are open to the public, stated Anderson.

Opening the series on Sunday evening, Jan. 18, will be Charles A. Sprague, editor-publisher of the Salem Statesman newspaper and former Oregon governor. Speaking on "Is There Hope for US in U.N.?", Sprague's talk will be based on experiences as alternate delegate to the U.N. general assembly, a position he held until early this month. Sprague will be introduced by Dean Gordon A. Sabine of the UO journalism school.

"Life on other Worlds" will be the topic of the second coffee hour of the series on Feb. 8. Introducing speaker E. G. Ebbighausen, associate professor of physics, will be Otto Vonderheit, Eugene attorney.

The head of the university's economic department, C. Ward Macy, will discuss "Financing Government — Everybody's Business" on Feb. 22. James H. Gilbert, emeritus professor of economics, will introduce Macy.

The final coffee hour on March 8 will feature Dr. R. M. Overstreet, Eugene pediatrician, who will speak on "Little Killers." Overstreet's introduction will be made by R. R. Huestis, head of the university biology department.

Animal, Land Mass Relations To Be Discussed Tuesday in SU

The theories and principles upon which the relationships of animals and land masses are based will be developed in the first of the 1953 Condon lectures presented by George Gaylord Simpson, chairman of the department of geology and paleontology of the American museum of Natural History in New York.

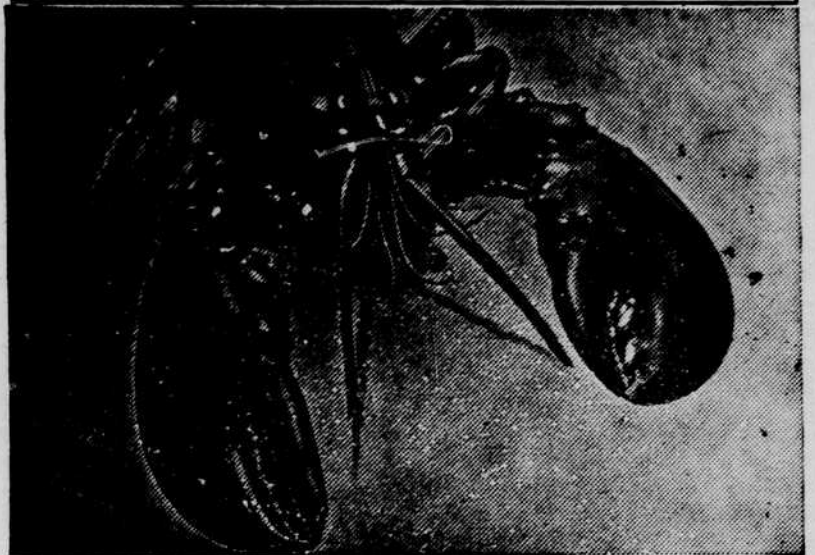

Simpson's lectures, the sixth annual series sponsored by the State Board of Higher Education, will be given in the Student Union at 8 p.m. Tuesday and Thursday. He will also appear at Oregon State college Jan. 20 and 22 and at Portland Jan. 27 and 28.

The illustrated talks will deal with the development of zoogeographic regions, the evolution and movements of regional faunas and the relationships between animals of different land masses.

His Thursday night lecture will be concerned with the relations between the old and new world faunas.

J. Paul Sheedy* Switched to Wildroot Cream-Oil Because He Flunked The Finger-Nail Test

HERE'S a sad Lobster tale. Sheedy was really in hot water. His girl kept saying, "The Maine thing I don't like about you is the way you got your hair! Haven't you read about Wildroot Cream-Boll Hair Tonic? Non-alcoholic. Relieves annoying dryness. Removes loose, ugly dandruff. Helps you pass the Finger-Nail Test. Perfect for you 'claws you need Lanolin on that water-soaked hair." Paul got Wildroot Cream-Oil and now he shore looks slick. In fact, he's in salad with every girl on campus. So if you're net-tled about your messy hair, butter shell out 29¢ at any toilet goods counter for a bottle or tube of Wildroot Cream-Oil, "Your Hair's Best Friend." Ask for it at your barber's, antena to one you'll be tickled pink!
