Petitions Due for Billiard Tournament; Campus Team to Represent Oregon

Petitions for a special event chairman to be in charge of the Intercollegiate Billiard Tournament, Mar. 5 to 19, are now being called for according to Don Zavin, vice-chairman of the Student Union Board.

The chairman is to work with Louis Bellissimo, SU recreation manager, in arranging a campus elimination tournament to choose a team to represent Oregon in the tournament. Divisions of the tournament are to include pocket, straight rail, three-cushion and a special tournament of coeds.

Petitions may be picked up in rooms 301 and 310 of the Student Union. Deadline for turning them in is Friday at 5 p.m., said Zavin.

Campus Briefs

● Chi Delta Phi, women's literary honorary, will meet tonight at 6:30 at the College Side Inn. Oregon pictures will be taken, according to Sue Lichty, president.

● Phi Theta Upsilon, junior women's honorary, will meet at 6:30 p.m. today in the Student Union, Pres. Judy McLoughlin has announced.

Phi Theta members are to wear their uniforms to the meeting as Oregon pictures will be taken.

● "The Preparation and Reactions of B Disulfones" will be the topic of a lecture presented at 7 p.m. today in Science 16 by M. W. Cronyn, assistant professor of chemistry.

● WRA will hold their initiation at 6:30 tonight in alumni hall, Gerlinger. All women who participated in intramural sports fall term are eligible for initiation.

● The Interdorm council will meet at noon in John Straub. Plans for the February dance, the reception for University Pres. H. K. Newburn, the dormitory mothers group and IDC campus political affiliation will be discussed, according to Pres. Tom Shepherd. All members are urged to attend, Shepherd said.

The half-century poll of sportswriters recorded as the "upset of 100 years" the whirl-wind finish of the 1914 Boston Braves of the National League.

SAE's Thump Pi Kaps, 39-9, In Cage Opener

By Ray Kemery
Emerald Sportswriter

Monday afternoon the 1953 Intra-mural basketball season got underway with six fraternity teams seeing action in League one, "A" division. Sigma Alpha Epsilon slaughtered Pi Kappa Phi, 39-9; Beta Theta Pi drubbed Tau Kappa Epsilon, 35-4; and Kappa Sigma slipped by Delta Tau Delta, 13-10.

A 19-point outburst in the final quarter highlighted the SAE victory, in which they trailed only once, that by a 2-0 score. From early in the first quarter Pat Dignan, Bob Carlson and Rex Davis completely dominated the game scoring, accounting for 35 points among them. Halftime score was 16-2.

The point summary:

PI KAPS (9)	(39) SAEs
Suprenant, 0	F 14, Carlson
Toner, 3	F 10, Dignan
Wooden, 0	C 4, Moss

Trotter Tickets on Sale Downtown, Mac Court

Student tickets, priced at 60 cents, are now on sale at McArthur court for the annual Harlem Globetrotter appearance in Eugene, Jan. 19.

The Globetrotters' western team will meet a picked squad of Oregon All-stars in the feature game of a double bill. The barnstorming Philadelphia Sphas and the Hawaiian Surf Riders provide the other half of the twin affair.

Tickets also may be purchased downtown at Skeies' Jewelers and the Warren Hardware store. General admission ducats sell for $1.20.

Betas Blast Tekes

Norm Forbes and Chan Sogge tied scoring honors for the Betas with 11 points; Tom Lyons followed with seven markers. Bobby Bouneff and Forest Easton were the only scorers for the Tekes, each having a field goal. The score by quarters was 6-0, 11-2 and 20-2.

The point summary:

BETAS (35)	(4) TEKES
Forbes, 11	F 0, Markham
Wolfard, 2	F 0, Paul

Beta substitutes: Martin, 4.
Tekes substitutes: Bouneff 2, Bohnstedt.

Kappa Sigs Down Delts

Standout for Kappa Sigma was Doug Talbot who poured 10 of the winners' points in, with Bill Bassett getting the other three. With three minutes left in the third period, Fred Gustafson swished a field goal for the Delts to tie the score at eight all.

Again in the final stanza, the score was tied 10-10 by Jack Adair's field goal. However, Talbot sank a free throw and layed in a final shot that proved to be the clincher.

The point summary:

DELTS (10)	(13) KAPPA SIGS
Ricketts, 3	F 10, Talbot
Leslie, 0	F 0, Daugherty
Gustafson, 2	C 0, Murray

Petitions Now Open For Chairmanships

Petitions are still open for the recently vacated chairmanships of the Student Union art gallery and recorded music committees.

It is the duty of the art gallery chairman to bring exhibitions of classics and contemporary art as well as the work of students to the SU. The recorded music chairman is in charge of the listening rooms and record lending library and also handles a regular series of music listening programs for the students' enjoyment.

Petition deadline is Friday at 5 p.m.

Chairman Sought For Card Tourney

A special events chairman to handle bridge lessons and the bridge tournament is currently being sought by the SU board, announces Clyde Fahlman, chairman.

Petitions for the post may be picked up in rooms 301 and 310 of the Student Union. Deadline for petitioning is Friday at 5 p.m.

The National Intercollegiate Bridge Tournament will be held from Feb. 19 to 21. Cups will be awarded colleges winning national championships and to individual winners. Plaques will be given to all colleges entered in the tournament.
